

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

WILLOUGHBY de ERESBY, G.C.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 15th day of January 1849.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a Statute made at the Parliament holden in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, "An Act for the amendment of the law of bankruptcy," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, after the passing of that Act, by a commission or commissions under the Great Seal, to appoint as many persons as Her Majesty should think fit, not exceeding twelve persons, being serjeants or barristers at law, of not less than seven years' standing at the bar, to be Commissioners of Bankruptcy to act in the prosecution of flats in bankruptcy in the country; and that any one or more of such Commissioners should and might form a district court of bankruptcy for the purpose of the said Act, and that every such court should be authorized to act in bankruptcy in the country at such place, and in and for such districts, as Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, should be pleased to direct; and that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, to describe and, from time to time, to alter the limit and extent of every such district as to Her should seem fit:

And whereas at a Court holden at Windsor, on the second day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, did order and direct, that, for the purposes of the said Act, there should be seven districts in the country, which should be called, respectively, the Manchester District, the Leeds District, the Liverpool District, the Birmingham District, the Bristol District, the Exeter District, and the Newcastle-upon-Tyne District, and did describe the limit and extent of every such district; and at a Court holden at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, on the thirteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, the hundred of Broxtow, in the northern division of the county of Nottingham, which was then comprehended in the said Leeds District, was separated from that district and annexed to the said Birmingham District:

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of FEBRUARY 2,

Buckingham-Palace, February 1, 1849.

THIS day Her Majesty, accompanied by His Royal Highness Prince Albert, proceeded in state from Buckingham-Palace to the House of Peers, where she arrived soon after two o'clock; and was received, on alighting from her state coach, by the Lord Chancellor, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord Privy Seal, Sir Augustus Clifford, Bart. C.B. Deputy Great Chamberlain (in the absence of the Lord Willoughby d'Eresby), the Lord Steward of the Household, the Duke of Wellington, Garter King of Arms, and the Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, and proceeded to the robing-room in the customary manner.

Her Majesty was there robed, and the procession moved into the House in the usual order;—the sword of state was borne by the Duke of Wellington, the cap of maintenance by the Marquess of Winchester, and the crown by the Marquess of Lansdowne.

commanding their attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, Her Majesty was pleased to deliver the following most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament :

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE period being arrived at which the business of Parliament is usually resumed, I have called you together for the discharge of your important duties.

It is satisfactory to me to be enabled to state, that both in the North and in the South of Europe the contending parties have consented to a suspension of arms for the purpose of negotiating terms of peace.

The hostilities carried on in the Island of Sicily were attended with circumstances so revolting, that the British and French Admirals were impelled by motives of humanity to interpose, and to stop the further effusion of blood.

I have availed myself of the interval thus obtained, to propose, in conjunction with France, to the King of Naples, an arrangement calculated to produce a permanent settlement of affairs in Sicily. The negotiation on these matters is still pending.

It has been my anxious endeavour, in offering my good offices to the various contending powers, to prevent the extension of the calamities of war, and to lay the foundations for lasting and honourable peace. It is my constant desire to maintain with all foreign states the most friendly relations.

As soon as the interests of the public service will permit, I shall direct the papers connected with these transactions to be laid before you.

A rebellion of a formidable character has broken out in the Punjaub, and the Governor-General of India has been compelled, for the preservation of the peace of the country, to assemble a considerable force, which is now engaged in military operations against the insurgents; but the tranquillity of British India has not been affected by these unprovoked disturbances.

I again commend to your attention the restrictions imposed on commerce by the navigation laws.

If you shall find that these laws are in whole or in part unnecessary for the maintenance of our maritime power, while they fetter trade and industry, you will no doubt deem it right to repeal or modify their provisions.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have directed the estimates for the service of the year to be laid before you; they will be framed with the most anxious attention to a wise economy.

The present aspect of affairs has enabled me to make large reductions on the estimates of last year.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I observe with satisfaction that this portion of the United Kingdom has remained tranquil amidst the convulsions which have disturbed so many parts of Europe.

The insurrection in Ireland has not been renewed, but a spirit of disaffection still exists; and I am compelled, to my great regret, to ask for a continuance, for a limited time, of those powers which in the last session you deemed necessary for the preservation of the public tranquillity.

I have great satisfaction in stating that commerce is reviving from those shocks which at the commencement of last session I had to deplore.

The condition of the manufacturing districts is likewise more encouraging than it has been for a considerable period.

It is also gratifying to me to observe that the state of the revenue is one of progressive improvement.

I have to lament, however, that another failure in the potato crop has caused very severe distress in some parts of Ireland.

The operation of the laws for the relief of the poor in Ireland will properly be a subject of your inquiry ; and any measures by which those laws may be beneficially amended, and the condition of the people may be improved, will receive my cordial assent.

It is with pride and thankfulness that I advert to the loyal spirit of my people, and that attachment to our institutions which has animated them during a period of Commercial difficulty, deficient production of food, and political revolution.

I look to the protection of Almighty God for favour in our continued progress ; and I trust that you will assist me in upholding the fabric of the constitution, founded as it is upon the principles of freedom and of justice.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 31st day of January 1849.

PRESENT,

The Queen has been pleased to issue the following additional instructions, under the Royal sign manual and signet, to the Governor-in-Chief of New Zealand, for the purpose of effecting certain amendments in the Royal instructions to that Officer as to the extension of rural lots, and the disposal of Crown lands by auction in that colony :

Whereas, in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and enacted in the ninth and tenth years of Our reign, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the Government of the New Zealand Islands," We did, by certain letters patent under the Great Seal of our United Kingdom, bearing date, at Westminster, the 22rd day of December

1846, in the tenth year of our reign, execute certain of the powers in Us by the said Act vested : and whereas, in further pursuance of the said Act, and in exercise of the powers thereby in Us vested, and in exercise of all and every other the powers in Us in that behalf vested, We did further issue certain instructions under Our sign manual and signet, approved in Our Privy Council, being the instructions accompanying or referred to in such letters patent, as relation being had unto the said letters patent and instructions will more fully and at large appear :

And whereas it is directed by the 22nd section of the 13th chapter of the said instructions, being the chapter entitled "On the settlement of the waste lands of the Crown," "that no rural allotment, within the said demesne, shall exceed in extent one square mile ; but it shall be competent to any such Governor or Lieutenant-Governor to divide any such allotment for the purpose of such alienation as aforesaid, into allotments of one half, or of one quarter of a square mile." And whereas it is further directed by the 24th section of the said chapter, that "no part of the demesne of Us in right of our Crown in New Zealand shall be alienated, either in perpetuity or otherwise, either absolutely or conditionally, until after the same shall first have been put up to sale at a public auction, of which auction three calendar months' notice shall first have been given by such proclamation as aforesaid :"

And whereas it is further directed by the 28th section of the said chapter, that "it shall be competent to any person within three calendar months next after any such auction, to become, without any further auction, the purchaser of any lands so put up to sale as aforesaid, and not then sold, by offering and paying for the same the upset price at which the same may have been so put up to sale :"

And whereas by the said recited Act it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for Us from time to time to amend, and for that purpose to add to, or, if necessary, repeal any such instruction as aforesaid. And that in lieu of the said recited 22nd section, the following direction shall be, and the same is hereby added to the said instructions:—

“It shall be competent for the Governor or Lieutenant-Governor of any such province, with the advice of his Executive Council, to determine the size of rural allotments within the said demesne, provided that no such allotment shall exceed the size of one square mile.”

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of FEBRUARY 27th, 1849.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 31st day of January 1849,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, made in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from any British possessions in or near the continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter (excepting the possessions of the said Company), as to Her Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary.

And whereas Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth deem it expedient and salutary to make the several regulations hereinafter contained touching the trade and commerce of Her Majesty's settlements on the river Gambia and their dependencies.

1st. Now, therefore, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the power so vested in Her as aforesaid, by the said recited Act of Parliament, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the several sorts of goods enumerated or described in the table following, denominated "A Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions," are hereby prohibited to be imported or brought into such settlements and their dependencies, or shall be so imported or brought only under the restrictions mentioned in such table, according as the several sorts of such goods are set forth therein ; that is to say :

A Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions.

Gunpowder, arms, ammunition, or utensils of war; Prohibited to be imported, to be used therein except from the United Kingdom, or from some other British possession; but such articles may, nevertheless, be imported from any foreign country in any vessels which may legally trade between such foreign countries and the British possessions on the western coast of Africa for the purpose of being warehoused at the port of Bathurst for exportation only.

Articles of foreign manufacture, and any packages of such articles, bearing any names, brands, or marks purporting to be the names, brands, or marks of manufacturers resident in the United Kingdom.

Base or counterfeit coin.

Books first composed or written or printed and published in the united Kingdom wherein the copyright shall be subsisting, and printed or reprinted in any other country, as to which the proprietor of such copyright or his agent shall have given to the Commissioners of Customs a notice in writing that such copyright subsists, such notice also stating when such copyright will expire ; Prohibited to be imported.

2. And if any goods shall be imported or brought into such settlements and their dependencies, contrary to any of the prohibitions or restrictions mentioned in such table in respect of such goods, the same shall be forfeited ; and if the ship or vessel in which such goods shall be imported be of less burthen than sixty tons, such ship or vessel shall be forfeited.

3. And whereas it is expedient to extend certain of the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act, of the 8th and 9th years of the reign of Her present Majesty to the said settlements and their dependencies, now therefore Her Majesty with the advice of Her Privy Council and in further pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in Her as aforesaid, by the said Act of Parliament, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods be exported from the said settlements and their dependencies, by sea, from or to any place other than the United Kingdom or some other British possession, except into or from the port of Bathurst, or such other port or ports within the said settlements and their dependencies, as may be hereafter declared by Her Majesty in Council to be fit for such importation and exportation ; and if any goods shall be imported into the said settlements and their dependencies, contrary hereto, such goods shall be forfeited.

4. And it is hereby further ordered that goods of any sort, or the produce of any place, not otherwise prohibited than by the Law of Navigation, may be imported into the said port of Bathurst, from any place in a British ship, and from any place, not being a British possession in a foreign ship of any country and however navigated, to be warehoused for exportation only, under the provisions of this order, or of any law in force, for the time being, made for the warehousing of goods; provided always, and it is hereby ordered that it shall be declared upon the entry of such goods that they are entered for exportation only.

5. And it is hereby further ordered, that the master of every ship arriving in any of Her Majesty's settlements on the river Gambia and their dependencies, whether laden or in ballast, shall come directly, and before bulk be broken, to the Custom House at the port of Bathurst, and there make a report, in writing, to the collector or other proper officer, of the arrival and voyage of such ship, stating her name, country, and tonnage, and, if British, the port of registry, the name and country of the master, the country of the owners, the number of the crew, and how many are of the country of such ship, and whether she be laden or in ballast, and if laden, the marks, numbers, and contents of every package and parcel of goods on board, and where the same was laden, and where and to whom consigned, and where any and what goods, if any, had been unladen during the voyage as far as any such particulars can be known to him; and the master shall further answer all such questions concerning the ship and cargo and the crew and the voyage, as shall be demanded of him by such officer; and if any goods be unladen from any ship before such report be made, or if the master fail to make such report, or make an untrue report, or do not truly answer the questions demanded of him, he shall forfeit the sum of one hundred pounds, and if any goods be not reported such goods shall be forfeited.

6. And it is hereby further ordered, that no goods shall be laden, or water-borne to be laden, on board any ship, or unladen from any ship in the said settlements and their dependencies, until due entry shall have been made of such goods and warrant granted for the lading or unlading of the same, and the person entering any such goods shall deliver to the Collector of the Customs or other proper officer, a Bill of the entry thereof fairly written in words at length, containing the name of the exporter or importer, and of the ship and of the master and of the place to or from which bound, and of the place within the port where the goods are to be laden or unladen, and the particulars of the quality and quantity of the goods, and the packages containing the same, and the marks and numbers on the packages, and setting forth whether such goods be the produce of the British possessions or not, and shall also deliver at the same time one or more duplicates of such Bill, in which all sums and numbers may be expressed in figures, and the particulars to be contained in such Bill of entry shall be written and arranged in such form and manner, and the number of such duplicates shall be such as the collector or other principal officer shall require.

7. And it is hereby further ordered, that the master of every ship bound from such settlements and their dependencies shall, before any goods be laden therein, deliver to the collector or comptroller, or other proper officer of customs, an entry outwards, under his hand, of the destination of such ship, stating her name, country, and tonnage, and, if British, the port of registry, the name and country of the master, the country of the owners, the number of the crew, and how many are of the country of such ship; and if any goods be laden on board any ship before such entry be made, the master of such ship shall forfeit the sum of fifty pounds; and before such ship depart, the master shall bring and deliver to the collector and comptroller, or of her proper officer, a content in writing, under his hand, of the goods laden, and the names of the respective shippers and consignees of the goods, with the marks and numbers of the packages or parcels of the same, and shall make and subscribe a declaration to the truth of such content, as far as any such particulars can be known to him; and the master of every such ship, whether in ballast or laden, shall, before departure, come before the collector or comptroller, or other proper officer, and answer all such questions concerning the ship and cargo, if any, and the crew, and the voyage, as shall be demanded of him by such officer; and thereupon the collector, or other proper officer, if such ship be laden, shall make out and give to the master a certificate of the clearance of such ship for her intended voyage, containing an account of the total quantities of the several sorts of goods laden therein, or a certificate of her clearance in ballast, as the case may be; and if the ship shall depart without such clearance, or if the master shall deliver a false content, or shall not truly answer the questions demanded of him, he shall forfeit the sum of one hundred pounds.

8. And it is hereby further ordered, that no entry, nor any warrant for the landing of any goods, or for the taking of any goods out of any warehouse, shall be deemed valid, unless the particulars of the goods and packages in such entry shall correspond with the particulars of the goods and packages purporting to be the same in the report of the ship, nor unless the goods shall have been properly described in such entry, by the denominations and with the characters and circumstances according to which such goods may be imported; and any such goods taken or delivered out of any ship, or out of any warehouse, by virtue of any entry or warrant not corresponding or agreeing in all respects, or not properly describing the same, shall be deemed to be goods landed or taken without due entry thereof, and shall be forfeited.

9. And whereas it is expedient to constitute and appoint the port of Bathurst to be a free warehousing port for all such goods as may be legally imported under this order, it is therefore hereby ordered that the port of Bathurst shall be a free warehousing port for all the purposes mentioned in this order.

10. And whereas it is necessary to make regulations for the appointing proper warehouses at the port of Bathurst, and for the lodging and securing therein of such goods as may be imported under this Order, it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be lawful for the Collector of Customs at the said port, with the assent of the Governor by notice in writing under his hand to appoint from time to time such warehouses at that port as shall be approved of, for the free warehousing and securing of goods therein for the purposes of this Order, and also in such notice to declare what sorts of goods may be so warehoused, and also by like notice to revoke or alter any such appointment or declaration.

Provided always, that every such notice shall be transmitted to the Governor or Lieutenant-Governor of the said settlements and their dependencies, and shall be published in such manner as he shall direct.

11. And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be lawful for the importer of any such goods as aforesaid into the port of Bathurst, to warehouse the same in the warehouses so appointed, subject nevertheless to the rules, regulations, and conditions hereinafter contained.

12. And it is hereby further ordered, that all goods so warehoused, shall be stowed in such parts or divisions of the warehouse, and in such manner as the collector shall direct, and that the warehouses shall be locked and secured in such manner and shall be opened and visited only at such times, and in the presence of such officers, and under such rules and regulations as the collector shall direct; and that all such goods shall, after being landed upon importation, be carried to the warehouse, or shall, after being taken out of the warehouse for exportation, be carried to be shipped, under such rules and regulations as the collector shall direct.

13. And it is hereby further ordered, that if any goods which have been entered to be warehoused under the provisions of this Order shall not be duly carried into and deposited in the warehouse, or shall afterwards be taken out of the warehouse without due entry and clearance, or having been entered and cleared for exportation from the warehouse, shall not be duly carried and shipped, or shall afterwards be relanded, except with the permission of the proper Officer of the Customs, such goods shall be forfeited.

14. And it is hereby further ordered, that upon the entry and landing of any goods to be warehoused under the provisions of this Order, the proper Officer of the Customs shall take a particular account of the same, and shall mark the contents on each package, and shall enter the same in a book to be kept for that purpose; and no goods which have been so warehoused shall be taken or delivered from the warehouse, except upon due entry and under the care of the proper officers.

15. And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be lawful for the collector, under such regulations as he shall see fit, to permit moderate samples to be taken of any goods so warehoused.

16. And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be lawful for the collector, under such regulations as he shall see fit, to permit the proprietor or other person having control over the goods so warehoused to sort, separate, pack, and repack any such goods, and to make such lawful alterations therein, or arrangements and assortments thereof, as may be necessary for the preservation of such goods, or in order to the sale, shipment, or legal disposal of the same; and also to permit any parts of such goods so separated to be destroyed.

17. And it is hereby further ordered, that all goods which have been so warehoused or rewarehoused under the provisions of this Order shall be duly cleared for exportation, or otherwise accounted for within two years from the day of first entry for the warehousing thereof; and if any such goods be not so cleared or accounted for, it shall be lawful for the collector to cause the same to be sold, and the produce shall be applied, first, to the payment of warehouse rent and other charges, and the overplus (if any) shall be paid to the proprietor.

Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the collector to grant further time for any such goods to remain warehoused if he shall see fit so to do.

18. And it is hereby further ordered, that upon the entry outwards of any goods to be exported from the warehouse under the provisions of this Order, the person entering the same shall give security by bond, in double the value of such goods, with two sufficient sureties, to be approved of by the collector, that the same shall be landed at the place for which they be entered outwards, or be otherwise accounted for to the satisfaction of the collector.

19. And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be lawful to reimport into the port of Bathurst any goods which shall have been legally exported therefrom to any place on the western coast of Africa, and to enter the same by bill of store, referring to the entry outwards and exportation thereof, provided the property in such goods continue in the person by whom or on whose account the same have been exported, and that such reimportation take place within two years from the date of the exportation.

20. And it is hereby further ordered, that the person in whose name any goods so reimported were entered for exportation, shall deliver to the collector or other proper officer of the customs, an exact account signed by him of the particulars of such goods, referring to the entry and clearance outwards and to the return inwards of the same, with the marks and numbers of the packages both inwards and outwards, and thereupon the said officer finding that such goods had been legally exported, shall grant a bill of store for the same; and if the person in whose name such goods were entered for exportation was not the proprietor thereof but his agent, he shall declare on such bill of store the name of the person by whom he was employed as such agent; and if the person to whom such return goods are consigned shall not be such proprietor and exporter, he shall make and subscribe a declaration on such bill of store, of the name of the person for whose use such goods have been consigned to him, and the real proprietor ascertained to be such shall make and subscribe a declaration upon such bill of store to the identity of the goods so exported and so returned, and that he was at the time of exportation and of re-importation, the proprietor of such goods, and that the same had not during such time been sold or disposed of to any other person, and such declaration shall be made before the collector or other proper officer at the port of Bathurst, and thereupon the said officer shall admit such goods to entry by bill of store.

Provided always, that where the real proprietor of any such goods shall be absent from such settlements and their dependencies at the time of such re-importation, such goods if legally entitled to be entered by bill of store, shall be permitted to be so entered upon production of a declaration subscribed by the original consignee, or by the authorised agent of such real proprietor, setting forth the identity of the goods so exported and so returned, and that [name the real proprietor] was at the time of exportation from such settlements and their dependencies, and will be at the time of re-importation thereinto the proprietor of such goods, and that the same have not during such time been sold or disposed of to any other person, such declaration to be made before the collector or other proper officer of the customs, and upon such further proof of the identity of the goods as the collector of customs shall require, and upon compliance with all the other regulations required by law on the entry of goods by bill of store.

21. And it is hereby further ordered, that all vessels, boats, carriages, implements, and cattle, made use of in the removal of any goods liable to forfeiture under this Order or under any Act or Order relating to the customs, or to trade, or navigation, shall be forfeited ; and every person who shall assist or be otherwise concerned in the unshipping, landing, or removal, or in the harbouring of such goods, or to whose hands or possession the same shall knowingly come, shall forfeit the treble value thereof or the penalty of one hundred pounds, at the election of the officers of the customs, and the averment in any information or libel to be exhibited for the recovery of such penalty that the officer proceeding has elected to sue for, the sum mentioned in the information or libel shall be deemed sufficient proof of such election without any other or further evidence of such fact.

22. And it is hereby further ordered, that all goods and all ships, vessels and boats, and all carriages, and all cattle, liable to forfeiture under this order, or any order or Act relating to the customs or to trade or to navigation, shall and may be seized and secured by any officer of the customs or navy, or by any person employed for that purpose, by or with the concurrence of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, and every person who shall in any way hinder, oppose, molest, or obstruct any officer of the customs or navy, or any person so employed as aforesaid in the exercise of his office, or any person acting in his aid or assistance, shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of two hundred pounds.

23. And it is hereby further ordered, that if any officer of the customs, or any person duly employed for the prevention of smuggling, shall make any collusive seizure or deliver up or make any agreement to deliver up or not to seize any vessel, boat, or goods liable to forfeiture under this order, or any Order or Act relating to the customs, or to trade or navigation, or shall take any bribe, recompence, gratuity or reward, for the neglect or non-performance of his duty, every such officer or other person shall forfeit for every such offence the sum of five hundred pounds, and be rendered incapable of serving Her Majesty in any office whatever, and every person who shall give or offer or promise to give or procure to be given any bribe, recompence, or reward to, or shall make any collusive agreement with, any such officer or person as aforesaid, in the said settlements and their dependencies, to induce him in any way to neglect his duty, or to do, or conceal, or connive at anything whereby the provisions of this Order or any such Order or Act may be evaded, shall forfeit the sum of two hundred pounds.

24. And it is hereby further ordered, that all vessels, boats, goods, and other things, which shall have been, or shall hereafter be, seized as forfeited in the said settlements and their dependencies, under this Order or any Order or Act relating to the customs, or to trade or navigation, shall be deemed and taken to be condemned, and may be dealt with in the manner directed by law in respect to vessels, boats, goods, and other things seized and condemned for breach of any such Order or Act, unless the person from whom such vessel, boat, goods, and other things shall have been seized, or the owner of them or some person authorized by him shall, within one calendar month from the day of seizing the same, give Notice in writing to the person or persons seizing the same, or to the collector or other chief officer of the customs, at the port within the said settlements and their dependencies where the same shall have been seized, that he claims the vessel, boat, goods, or other things, or intends to claim them.

a peace officer, to enter any building or other place in the day-time, and to search for and seize and secure any goods liable to forfeiture under this Order, or any Order or Act relating to the customs or to trade or navigation, and in case of necessity to break open any doors and any chests or other packages for that purpose, and such writ of assistance when issued shall be deemed to be in force during the whole of the reign in which the same shall have been granted, and for twelve months from the conclusion of such reign.

26. And it is hereby further ordered, that all things which shall be seized as being liable to forfeiture under this order, or any order or act relating to the customs, or to trade or navigation, shall be taken forthwith, and delivered into the custody of the collector of the customs at the port of Bathurst, and after condemnation, he shall cause the same to be sold by public auction to the best bidder.

27. And it is hereby further ordered, that all penalties and forfeitures which may have been heretofore, or may be hereafter incurred under this Order, or any Order or Act relating to the customs, or to trade or navigation, shall and may be prosecuted, sued for and recovered, in any court of record or of vice-admiralty having jurisdiction in such settlements and their dependencies.

28. And it is hereby further ordered, that if any goods or any ship or vessel shall be seized as forfeited, under this Order, or any order or Act relating to the customs, or to trade or navigation, and detained, it shall be lawful for the judge or judges of any Court having jurisdiction, to try and determine such seizures, to order the delivery thereof on security by bond, with two sufficient sureties to be first approved of by the collector of customs, to answer double the value of the same in case of condemnation, and such bond shall be taken to the use of Her Majesty, in the name of the collector or officer of the customs in whose custody the goods or the ship or vessel may be lodged, and such bond shall be delivered into and kept in the custody of such collector or officer, and in case the goods or the ship or vessel shall be condemned, the value thereof shall be paid into the hands of such collector or officer, who shall thereupon cancel such bond.

29. And it is hereby further ordered, that no suit shall be commenced in the said settlements and their dependencies, for the recovery of any penalty or forfeiture under this Order, or any Order or Act relating to the customs, or to trade or navigation, except in the name of some superior officer of the customs, or of some officer of the navy, or of Her Majesty's Advocate or Attorney-General for the said settlements; and if a question shall arise whether any person is an officer of the customs or of the navy, vivâ voce evidence may be given of such fact, and shall be deemed legal and sufficient evidence.

30. And it is hereby ordered, that if any goods shall be seized for any cause of forfeiture under this order, and any dispute shall arise whether the same have been lawfully imported, or lawfully laden or exported, the proof thereof shall lie on the owner or claimer of such goods, and not on the officer who shall seize or stop the same.

31. And it is hereby further ordered, that no claim to anything seized under this Order, or any Order or Act relating to the customs, or to trade or navigation, and returned into any of Her Majesty's courts for adjudication, shall be admitted, unless such claim be entered in the name of the owner, with his residence and occupation, nor unless oath to the property in such thing be made, by the owner, or by his attorney or agent, by whom such claim shall be entered to the best of his knowledge and belief, and every person making a false oath thereto shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to the pains and penalties to which persons are liable for a misdemeanor.

32. And it is hereby further ordered, that no person shall be admitted to enter a claim to anything seized, in pursuance of this Order, or any Act or Order relating to the Customs, or to trade or navigation, and prosecuted in the said settlements and their dependencies, until sufficient security shall have been given in the court where such seizure is prosecuted, in a penalty not exceeding sixty pounds to answer and pay the costs occasioned by such claim, and in default of giving such security such things shall be adjudged to be forfeited, and shall be condemned.

33. And it is hereby further ordered, that, if upon any trial a question shall arise whether any person is an officer of the customs or navy, evidence of his having acted as such shall be deemed sufficient, and such person shall not be required to produce his commission or deputation unless sufficient proof shall be given to the contrary, and every such officer and every person acting in his aid or assistance shall be deemed a competent witness upon the trial of any suit or information on account of any seizure or penalty as aforesaid, notwithstanding such officer or other person may be entitled to the whole or any part of such seizure or penalty upon the conviction of the party charged in such suit or information.

34. And it is hereby further ordered, that no writ shall be sued out against nor a copy of any process served upon any officer of the customs or navy, or other person as aforesaid, for any thing done by him in pursuance of this Order or any Order or Act relating to the Customs or to trade or navigation or otherwise in the exercise of his office, until one calendar month after notice in writing shall have been delivered to him or left at his usual place of abode by the attorney or agent of the party who intends to sue out such writ or process, in which notice shall be clearly and explicitly contained the cause of action, the name and place of abode of the person who is to bring such action, and the name and place of abode of the attorney or agent; and no evidence of any cause of action shall be produced except such as shall be stated in such notice; and in case the plaintiff shall not prove on the trial that such notice was given, the jury shall find for the defendant.

35. And it is hereby further ordered, that every such action shall be brought within three calendar months after the accrual of the causes of action, and the defendant may plead the general issue, and under it give the special matter in evidence; and whenever, in any such action, the plaintiff shall become nonsuited or shall discontinue the action, or if a verdict shall be found or judgment shall be given for the defendant, he shall be entitled to full costs of suit, and have such remedy for the same as any defendant can have in other cases where costs are given by law.

36. And it is hereby further ordered, that in case any information or suit shall be brought to trial, on account of any seizure made under this Order, or any Order or Act relating to the Customs, or to trade or to navigation, and a verdict shall be found for the claimant thereof, and the Judge or Court before whom the cause shall have been tried, shall certify that there was probable cause of seizure, the claimant shall not be entitled to any costs of suit, nor shall the person who made such seizure be liable to any action, indictment, or other suit, or prosecution on account of such seizure; and if any action, indictment, or other suit or prosecution shall be brought to trial against any person, on account of such seizure, wherein a verdict shall be given against the defendant, the plaintiff shall not be entitled to recover, nor shall the defendant be liable for any fine, damages, or thing, beyond the things seized, or the value thereof.

37. And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be lawful for such officer or other person as aforesaid, within one calendar month after such notice, to tender amends to the plaintiff or his agent, and to plead such tender in bar with or without other pleas, and if the jury shall find the amends tendered sufficient, they shall find for the defendant, and he shall be entitled to full costs of suit, in the same manner as if he had pleaded the general issue only, and a verdict had been found for him thereon.

Provided always, that it shall be lawful for such defendant, by leave of the Court wherein such action shall be brought, at any time before issue joined to pay money into Court as in other actions.

38. And it is hereby further ordered, that in any such action, if the Judge or Court before whom such action shall be tried, shall certify that the defendant or defendants in such action acted upon probable cause, then the plaintiff in such action shall not be entitled to more than twopence damages, nor to any costs of suit.

39. And it is hereby further ordered, that all penalties and forfeitures recovered in the said settlements and their dependencies under this Order, or any Order or Act relating to the customs, or to trade, or navigation, other than colonial ordinances, shall be paid into the hands of the collector of Port Bagners, and shall be divided, paid, and applied as follows (that is to say): after deducting the charges of prosecution from the produce thereof, one third part of the net produce shall be paid into the hands of the collector of Her Majesty's customs at the port of Bathurst for the use of Her Majesty, one-third part to the governor or lieutenant-governor of the said settlements and their dependencies, and the other third part to the person who shall seize, inform, and sue for the same, excepting in the case of seizures made at sea by the commanders or officers of Her Majesty's ships of war duly authorized to make seizures, one moiety of which last-mentioned seizures, and of the penalties and forfeitures recovered thereon, first deducting the charges of prosecution from the gross proceeds thereof, shall be paid as aforesaid to the collector of Her Majesty's customs, to and for the use of Her Majesty, and the other moiety to him or them who shall seize, inform, and sue for the same, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding, subject nevertheless to such distribution of the produce of the seizures so made at sea, as well with regard to the moiety hereinbefore granted to Her Majesty, as with regard to the other moiety given to the seizer or prosecutor as Her Majesty shall think fit to order and direct by any Order or Orders in Council, or by any Proclamation or Proclamations to be made for that purpose.

40. And it is hereby further ordered, that all actions or suits for the recovery of any of the penalties or forfeitures imposed by this Order, or any Order or Act relating to the customs, or to trade, or navigation, may be commenced or prosecuted at any time within three years after the offence committed, by reason whereof such penalty or forfeiture shall be incurred, any law, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

41. And it is hereby further ordered, that no appeal shall be prosecuted from any decree or sentence of any of Her Majesty's courts in the said settlements and their dependencies touching any penalty or forfeiture imposed by this Order or any Order or Act relating to the customs, or to trade or navigation, unless the inhibition shall be applied for and decreed within twelve months from the time when such decree or sentence was pronounced.

42. And it is hereby ordered, that all persons authorized to make seizures under an Act passed in the fifth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend "and consolidate the laws relating to the abolition "of the Slave Trade," shall, in making and prosecuting any such seizures have the benefit of all the provisions granted to persons authorized to make seizures under this Order. Provided nevertheless, that all penalties and forfeitures created by the said Act passed in the fifth year of His Majesty King George the Fourth, whether pecuniary or specific, shall (except in cases specially provided for by the said Act) go and belong to such persons as are authorized by that Act to make seizures, in such shares, and shall and may be sued for and prosecuted, tried, recovered, distributed, and applied in such and the like manner and by the same ways and means, and subject to the same rules and directions as any penalties and forfeitures incurred in Great Britain and in the British possessions in America respectively now go and belong to and may be sued for, prosecuted, tried, recovered, and distributed respectively in Great Britain, or in the said settlements and their dependencies, under and by virtue of this Order.

43. And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall not be lawful for any person to re-export from the said settlements and their dependencies to any foreign place, in any foreign ship, any coals, the produce of the United Kingdom, except upon payment of the duty to which such coals would be liable upon exportation from the United Kingdom to such foreign place, and that no coals shall be so shipped at any port or place in the said settlements and their dependencies to be exported to any British place, until the exporter, or the master of the exporting vessel, shall have given bond, with one sufficient surety in double the value of the coals, that such coals shall not be landed at any foreign port.

44. And it is hereby further ordered, that no import or other duty of customs whatever shall be charged or payable in the said settlements or their dependencies upon provisions or stores of any description, imported or supplied on account of Her Majesty's Government and at the public expense, for the use of Her Majesty's land or sea forces.

45. And it is hereby further ordered, that all laws, bye-laws, usages, or customs, at this time or which hereafter shall be in force or practice or endeavoured or pretended to be in force or practice in the said settlements and their dependencies, which are in anywise repugnant to this Order, or to any Act of Parliament made or hereafter to be made in the United Kingdom, so far as such Act shall relate to the said settlements and their dependencies, are and shall be null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

46. And it is hereby further ordered, that if any person shall, in the said settlements and their dependencies, counterfeit or falsify, or wilfully use when counterfeited or falsified, any entry, warrant, cocket, transire, or other document for the unlading, lading, entering, reporting, or clearing any ship or vessel, or for the landing, shipping, or removing of any goods, stores, baggage, or article whatever, or shall by any false statement procure any writing or document to be made for any such purposes, or shall falsely make any oath or affirmation required by this Order, or shall forge or counterfeit a certificate of the said oath or affirmation, or shall publish such certificate, knowing the same to be so forged or counterfeited, every person so offending shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of two hundred pounds, and such penalty shall and may be prosecuted, sued for, and recovered, in like manner and by such ways and means as any penalty may be prosecuted, sued for, and recovered, under the provisions and directions of this Order.

47. And it is hereby further ordered, that the Governor, or officer for the time being administering the governments of the said settlements and their dependencies, shall promulgate this present Order within one calendar month next after the receipt thereof by him, and this Order shall take effect from and after the date of such promulgation thereof as aforesaid, and not before.

MEMORANDUM.

The Christian names of Ensign Craigie-Halkett, of 45th Foot, are John Cornelius.

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE EXTRAORDINARY
 of MARCH 3, 1849.

India Board, March 3, 1849.

DISPATCHES, from which the following are extracts, have been this day received at the East India House :

From the Governor-General of India to the Secret Committee of the East India Company, dated Camp, Mukkoo, January 22, 1849.

(Extract.)

“ The Commander-in-Chief being informed on the 10th instant of the fall of Attock, and the advance of Sirdar Chuttur Sing to join the main body of the enemy under Shere Sing, determined to attack the latter, and accordingly moved with the British Army from Loah Tibbali, at daylight of the 12th, to Dingee, a distance of about 12 miles; from Dingee, he advanced, on the morning of the 13th, towards Chillianwallah. He approached this place about noon, having driven back the enemy's picquet, which was posted on a mound, took up a position in rear of the village; the enemy opened a fire from some Horse Artillery, on the skirmishers in front of the village, and a general action ensued which lasted till after night-fall, terminating in the defeat of Shere Sing's force and the capture of 12 of his guns. For particulars of the action and of the loss sustained by the British troops, which I deeply regret to say has been very great, I refer you to the dispatch of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, dated the 16th instant, and to its inclosed list.

“ On intelligence of this victory reaching me, I ordered a salute of 21 guns to be fired at all the stations of the Army.”

NOTIFICATION.

Camp, Mukhoo, January 17, 1849.

1. The Governor-General has much satisfaction in intimating to the President in Council, and notifying for public information, that he has this day received a demi-official letter from his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, in which his Excellency announces to the Governor-General, that on the afternoon of the 13th instant the Troops under his command attacked and entirely defeated the Sikh Army under Rajah Shere Sing, in its position near the river Jhelum.

2. The action was obstinately and severely contested. The enemy was in great force, and occupied very strong positions. They were driven back at every point, with the loss of many of their guns, and had, by the latest intelligence, relinquished all the positions in which they had been entrenched.

3. The details of these operations have not yet reached the Governor-General: as soon as they are received they will be published for general information.

4. The Governor-General directs that a salute of 21 guns be fired at every principal station of the Army, as soon as this notification shall be received.

By order of the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India.

H. M. ELLIOT, Secretary to the Government of India, with the Governor-General.

His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief to the Governor-General of India.

Camp, Chillianwallah, January 16, 1849.

MY LORD,—Major Mackeson, your Lordship's Political Agent with my camp, officially communicated to me on the 10th instant the fall of Attock, and the advance of Sirdar Chuttur Sing, in order to concentrate his force with the army in my front under Shere Sing, already amounting to from 30,000 to 40,000 men, with sixty-two guns, concluding his letter thus:—"I would urge, in the event of your Lordship's finding yourself strong enough, with the army under your command, to strike an effectual blow at the enemy in our front, that the blow should be struck with the least possible delay."

Concurring entirely with Major Mackeson, and feeling that I was perfectly competent effectually to overthrow Shere Sing's army, I moved from Loah Tibbah at daylight on the 12th to Dingee, about twelve miles. Having learnt from my spies, and from other sources of information, that Shere Sing still held with his right the villages of Lakhneewalla and Futteh Shah-Ke-Chuck, having the great body of his force at the village of Lollanwalla, with his left at Russool on the Jhelum, strongly occupying the southern extremity of a low range of difficult hills, intersected by ravines, which extend nearly to that village, I made my arrangements accordingly that evening, and communicated them to the commanders of the several divisions; but, to insure correct information as to the nature of the country which I believed to be excessively difficult, and ill adapted to the advance of a regular army, I determined upon moving on this village with a view to reconnoitre.

On the morning of the 13th the force advanced. I made a considerable détour to my right, partly in order to distract the enemy's attention, but principally to get as clear as I could of the jungle on which it would appear that the enemy mainly relied.

We approached this village about twelve o'clock, and I found on a mound close to it a strong picquet of the enemy's cavalry and infantry, which we at once dispersed, obtaining from the mound a very extended view of the country before us, and the enemy drawn out in battle array, he having either during the night or that morning moved out of his several positions, and occupied the ground in our front, which though not a dense, was still a difficult jungle, his right in advance of Futtch Shah-Ke-Chuck, and his left on the furrowed hills before described.

The day being so far advanced, I decided upon taking up a position in rear of the village, in order to reconnoitre my front, finding that I could not turn the enemy's flanks, which rested upon a dense jungle extending nearly to Hailah, which I had previously occupied for some time, and the neighbourhood of which I knew, and upon the raviney hills near Russool, without detaching a force to a distance ; this I considered both inexpedient and dangerous.

The engineer department had been ordered to examine the country before us, and the Quartermaster General was in the act of taking up ground for the encampment, when the enemy advanced some horse artillery, and opened a fire on the skirmishers in front of the village. I immediately ordered them to be silenced by a few rounds from our heavy guns, which advanced to an open space in front of the village. Their fire was instantly returned by that of nearly the whole of the enemy's field artillery, thus exposing the position of his guns, which the jungle had hitherto concealed.

It was now evident that the enemy intended to fight, and would probably advance his guns so as to reach the encampment during the night.

I therefore drew up in order of battle; Sir Walter Gilbert's division on the right, flanked by Brigadier Pope's brigade of cavalry, which I strengthened by the 14th Light Dragoons, well aware that the enemy was strong in cavalry upon his left. To this were attached three troops of Horse Artillery, under Lieutenant-Colonel Grant. The heavy guns were in the centre.

Brigadier-General Campbell's division formed the left, flanked by Brigadier White's brigade of Cavalry, and three troops of Horse Artillery, under Lieutenant-Colonel Brind.

The field batteries were with the infantry divisions. Thus formed, the troops were ordered to lie down, whilst the heavy guns, under Major Horsford, ably seconded by Brevet-Majors Ludlow and Sir Richmond Shakespear, opened a well-directed and powerful fire upon the enemy's centre, where his guns appeared principally to be placed; and this fire was ably supported on the flanks by the field batteries of the infantry divisions.

After about an hour's fire, that of the enemy appeared to be, if not silenced, sufficiently disabled to justify an advance upon his position and guns.

I then ordered my left division to advance, which had to move over a greater extent of ground, and in front of which the enemy seemed not to have many guns. Soon after, I directed Sir Walter Gilbert to advance, and sent orders to Brigadier Pope to protect the flank and support the movement. Brigadier Penny's brigade was held in reserve, while the Irregular Cavalry, under Brigadier Hearsey, with the 20th Native Infantry, was ordered to protect the enormous amount of provision and baggage that so hampers the movement of an Indian army.

Some time after the advance, I found that Brigadier Pennycuick's brigade had failed in maintaining the position it had carried, and immediately ordered Brigadier Penny's reserve to its support ; but Brigadier-General Campbell, with that steady coolness and military decision for which he is so remarkable, having pushed on his left brigade and formed line to his right, carried every thing before him, and soon overthrew that portion of the enemy which had obtained a temporary advantage over his right brigade.

This last brigade, I am informed, mistook for the signal to move in double time, the action of their brave leaders, Brigadier Pennycuick and Lieutenant-Colonel Brookes (two officers not surpassed for sound judgment and military daring in this or any other army), who waved their swords over their heads as they cheered on their gallant comrades. This unhappy mistake led to the Europeans outstripping the Native corps, which could not keep pace, and arriving completely blown at a belt of thicker jungle, where they got into some confusion, and Lieutenant-Colonel Brookes, leading the 24th, was killed between the enemy's guns. At this moment a large body of infantry which supported their guns, opened upon them so destructive a fire that the brigade was forced to retire, having lost their gallant and lamented leader, Brigadier Pennycuick, and the three other field officers of the 24th, and nearly half the regiment, before it gave way ; the Native regiment, when it came up, also suffering severely. In justice to this brigade, I must be allowed to state that they behaved heroically, and but for their too hasty, and consequently disorderly advance, would have emulated the conduct of their left brigade, which,

Major-General Sir J. Thackwell, on the extreme left and rear, charged the enemy's cavalry wherever they showed themselves.

The right attack of infantry, under that able officer, Major-General Sir Walter Gilbert, was most praiseworthy and successful. The left brigade, under Brigadier Mountain, advanced under a heavy fire upon the enemy's guns, in a manner that did credit to the Brigadier and his gallant brigade, which came first into action, and suffered severely. The right brigade, under Brigadier Godby, ably supported the advance.

This division nobly maintained the character of the Indian Army, taking and spiking the whole of the enemy's guns in their front, and dispersing the Sikhs wherever they were seen.

The Major General reports most favourably of the fire of his field battery.

The right brigade of cavalry, under Brigadier Pope, was not, I regret to say, so successful. Either by some order, or misapprehension of an order, they got into much confusion, hampered the fine brigade of Horse Artillery, which, while getting into action against a body of the enemy's cavalry that was coming down upon them, had their horses separated from their guns by the false movements of our cavalry, and, notwithstanding the heroic conduct of the gunners, four of those guns were disabled to an extent which rendered their withdrawal at the moment impossible. The moment the artillery was extricated, and the cavalry re-formed, a few rounds put to flight the enemy that had occasioned this confusion.

With this exception, the conduct of the troops generally was most exemplary. Some corps, both European and Native, acted under most trying circumstances, (from the temporary failure in our left centre and right, and the cover which the jungle afforded to the enemy's movements,) and with a gallantry worthy of the highest admiration.

Although the enemy, who defended not only his guns but his position with desperation, was driven in much confusion, and with heavy loss, from every part of it, and the greater part of his field artillery was actually captured, the march of brigades to their flanks to repel parties that had rallied, and the want of numbers and consequent support to our right flank, aided by the cover of the jungle and the close of the day, enabled him, upon our further advance in pursuit, to return and carry off, unobserved, the greater portion of the guns we had thus gallantly carried at the point of the bayonet.

I remained with Brigadier General Campbell's division, which had been reinforced by Brigadier Mountain's brigade, until near 8 o'clock, in order to effect the bringing in of the captured ordnance, and of the wounded, and I hoped to bring in the rest of the guns next morning. But I did not feel justified in remaining longer out. The night was very dark. I knew not how far I had advanced. There were no wells nearer than the line of this village. The troops had been arduously employed all day, and there was every appearance of a wet night; rain did fall before morning.

I should have felt great satisfaction if I were enabled to state that my expectations in regard to the guns had been realized; but although a brigade of cavalry under Brigadier White, with a troop of Horse Artillery, were on the ground soon after daylight, we found that the enemy, assisted by the neighbouring villagers, had carried off their guns, excepting twelve which we had brought in the night before. Most of the captured waggons I had caused to be blown up before leaving the ground.

The victory was complete as to the total overthrow of the enemy; and his sense of utter discomfiture and defeat, will, I trust, soon be made apparent, unless, indeed, the rumours prevalent this day of his having been joined by Chuttur Sing prove correct.

I am informed that the loss of the Sikhs has been very great, and chiefly amongst their old and tried soldiers. In no action do I remember seeing so many of an enemy's slain upon the same space: Sobraon perhaps only excepted.

I have now, my Lord, stated the general movements of this army, previous to and during the action of Chillianwallah; and as that action was characterized by peculiar features, which rendered it impossible for the Commander-in-Chief to witness all the operations of the force, I shall beg leave to bring prominently to your Lordship's notice the names of the several officers and corps particularly mentioned by the divisional commanders.

I have already stated the obligations I am under to Major General Sir Joseph Thackwell, and Sir Walter Gilbert, and to Brigadier General Campbell, for their most valuable services. I warmly concur with them in the thanks which they have expressed to the several Brigadiers, and officers commanding corps, and to the troops generally.

Sir Joseph Thackwell names, with much satisfaction, Brigadier White's conduct of his brigade, Major Yerbury commanding 3d Light Dragoons, the gallant charge of Captain Unett in command of a squadron of that corps, Major Mackenzie commanding the 8th, and Captain Wheatley commanding the 5th Light Cavalry, and the conduct of Captain Moore of the 8th, with a squadron detached in support of the artillery. He further notices the assistance he derived from the zeal and activity of Captain Pratt, Assistant Adjutant General, and Lieutenant Tucker, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General of his division, of Captain Cautley, Major of Brigade, of his Aide-de-Camp Lieutenant Thackwell, and of Lieutenant Simpson, Sub-Assistant Commissary General.

Brigadier General Campbell speaks in terms of admiration of the 5th Brigade, led on by that distinguished officer, Brigadier Pennycuik, and particularly of the gallant exertions of H. M.'s 24th Foot, under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Brookes, and the good and steady advance of the 25th and 45th Native Infantry, under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Corbett and Major Williams. He particularizes the undaunted example set to his brigade by Brigadier Hoggan, the continued steadiness and gallantry of H. M.'s 61st Regiment, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel M'Leod, under the most trying circumstances, the distinguished conduct of Major Flemyng and the officers of the 36th N. I. and of the 46th N. I., under Major Tudor, as also the able and zealous exertions of the Brigade Major, Captain Keiller. The Brigadier General also brings to notice his obligations to Major Tucker, Assistant Adjutant General of the Army, and to Captain Goldie and Lieutenant Irwin of the Engineers, who were sent to his assistance, and the cordial and able support which he received from Major Ponsonby, his Assistant, Adjutant General; and he particularly mentioned the conduct of Ensign Garden, his Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, and of Captain Haythorne, his Aide-de-Camp, further naming Lieutenant Grant, of H. M.'s 24th Regiment, Lieutenant Powys, of H. M.'s 61st, who attended him as orderly officers, and of Lieutenant and Adjutant Shadwell, of H. M.'s 98th, who was with him as a volunteer.

Sir Walter Gilbert speaks warmly of the charge led by Brigadier Mountain against a large battery of the enemy, and followed up on his right by Brigadier Godby, and of the subsequent conduct of these officers; as also of the conduct of Major Chester, Assistant Adjutant-General, and Lieutenant Galloway, Deputy Assistant Quartermaster-General of the division, of Lieutenant Colt, his Aide-de-camp, of Captain Sherwill and Lieutenant Macdonnell, Majors of Brigade, and of Captain Glasford, and Lieutenant W. E. Morton of the Engineers.

The Major-General further mentions the undaunted bravery on this occasion of Her Majesty's 29th Regiment, under Lieutenant-Colonel Congreve; the distinguished conduct of the 2d European Regiment under Major Steel; and the manner in which Majors Smith and Way of the 29th, and Major Talbot of the 2d Europeans, seconded their able commanders. He also expresses his thanks to Lieutenant-Colonel Jack, commanding the 30th Native Infantry, Major Bamfield, commanding the 56th Native Infantry, who was mortally wounded, Major Corfield, commanding the 31st Native Infantry, and Major McCausland, commanding the 70th Native Infantry, for the manner in which they led their regiments into action, naming likewise Captain Nembhard of the 56th, who succeeded to the command of that corps, Captain Dawes, commanding the field-battery of the division, and Captain Robbins of the 15th, who acted as his Aide-de-camp.

The reserve, consisting of the 15th Native Infantry, and eight companies of the 69th Native Infantry, was ably handled by Brigadier Penny, well seconded by Lieutenant Colonels Sibbald and Mercer, commanding the corps. The Brigadier particularly mentions the steady conduct of the rifle company of the 69th, under Captain Sissmore, and acknowledges the services of Captain Macpherson, his Major of Brigade, and Brevet Captain Morris of the 20th Native Infantry who attended him as orderly officer.

Brigadier General Tennant, Commanding the Artillery Division, rendered me every aid, and presided over the noble arm of which he is the head, most creditably to himself, and most beneficially to the service. The Brigadier General particularly mentions Brigadier G. Brooke, who commanded the whole of the Horse Artillery, Brigadier Huthwaite, commanding the Foot Artillery, Lieutenant Colonels C. Grant, and F. Brind, Major R. Horsford and Major Mowatt, all of whom were in important commands. He further brings to notice Captain J. Abercrombie, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General, Lieutenant Tombs, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, his Aide-de-camp, Lieutenant Olpherts, Captain Hogge, Commissary of Ordnance, and Lieutenant de Teissier who attended him as orderly officer.

I have in the beginning of this despatch noticed the services of Brevet Major Sir Richmond Shakespear, and Brevet Major Ludlow, in command of the heavy batteries, under the general superintendence of Major Horsford; and it only remains for me to add, that the conduct of Major Fordyce, Captains Warner and Duncan, Lieutenants Robinson and Walker, commanding troops and field batteries, as well as the officers and men of the Artillery generally, have been named in terms of praise by the divisional commander.

Lieutenants C. V. Cox and E. Kaye, Brigade-Majors of this arm, have been also named by their respective Brigadiers.

From the Engineer Department under Major

Tremenheere, I received active assistance, ably aided by Captain Durand, Lieutenants R. Baird, Smith, and Goodwyn.

To the General Staff I am greatly indebted. Lieutenant-Colonel Gough, C.B., Quartermaster-General, and Major Lugard, Acting Adjutant-General, and Captain C. Otter, Acting Assistant Adjutant-General of Her Majesty's Forces, Lieutenant-Colonel P. Grant, C.B., Adjutant-General of the Army, Major C. Ekins, (killed) a valued and much regretted officer, Deputy Adjutant-General, and Major Tucker, Assistant Adjutant-General of the Army, Lieutenant-Colonel W. Garden, C.B., Quartermaster-General of the Army, Lieutenant W. F. Tytler, Assistant Quartermaster-General, and Lieutenant Paton, Deputy Assistant Quartermaster General of the Army, Lieutenant Colonel Birch, Judge Advocate General, and Lieutenant G. B. Johnson, Deputy Judge Advocate General, Major G. Thomson, Assistant Commissary General, Lieutenant-Colonel J. G. W. Curtis, Assistant Commissary General, Captain C. Campbell, Paymaster to the Army, Captain J. Lang, Postmaster, and H. Franklin, Esquire, Inspector General of Her Majesty's Hospitals.

To my personal Staff I am also much indebted. Captain F. P. Haines, Military Secretary ; Major H. Bates, Aide-de-camp ; Lieutenant A. Bagot, Aide-de-camp ; Lieutenant S. J. Hire, Aide-de-camp ; Captain Gabbett, Aide-de-camp ; Lieut. G. N. Hardinge, Aide-de-camp ; and Lieut. W. G. Prendergast, Persian Interpreter.

The unwearied exertions of Dr. Renny, Superintending Surgeon, and of Dr. Mac Rae, the Field Surgeon, in the care of the wounded, have been beyond all praise.

The Earl of Gifford kindly accompanied me throughout the operations, and was most useful in conveying my orders to the several divisions and brigades. I had also the advantage through the day of the active services of Lieutenant-Colonel Sir H. M. Lawrence, Major Mackeson, Mr. Cocks, C. S., Captain Nicholson, and Lieutenant Robinson, as well as of Major Anstruther of the Madras Artillery, and Lieutenant H. O. Mayne, of the 6th Madras Light Cavalry.

Captain Ramsay, Joint Deputy Commissary-General, with the several officers of that Department, has been most indefatigable, and has hitherto kept the Army well supplied.

I have, &c.

GOUGH, General,
Commander-in-Chief.

FROM THE SUPPLEMENT
 1849.

India Board, March 7, 1848.

THE following Dispatches, relating to military operations which have taken place, at various dates, in the Punjaub, have been, from time to time, received at the East India-house, and are now made public:

Major-General W. S. Whish, C.B., commanding Mooltan Field Force, to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp, Mooltan, September 9, 1848.

SIR,—I have the honour to report, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, that our working parties yesterday made good progress, and that at the village of Ramteerut, which was taken possession of on the 7th, we have now batteries of two 8-inch howitzers, and of three 8-inch mortars, and, at a few hundred yards from its left, a battery of four 18-pounders; added to which, on the right of the heavy howitzer battery, I hope this evening to open a rocket battery.

The enemy were troublesome at day-break yesterday, and midnight, and particularly at 4 A.M. this morning, on which latter occasion their attack on the trench was more decided. Lieutenant Drew, of the 8th Native Infantry, was slightly wounded; and the other casualties are of the 52nd Regiment Native Infantry, viz., 1 havildar, very severely, and 1 naick and 2 sepoy's slightly wounded.

Major-General Whish to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp, Mooltan, September 10, 1848.

Captain Abercrombie, of the Engineers, having called upon me yesterday evening, on the part of the Chief Engineer, to request my sanction to dislodge the enemy from a position apparently similar to the one near it, that they were easily driven from on the 8th instant, I acceded to it, with the view to prevent the party about to be employed in an advanced trench towards it, from molestation. The field officer of the trenches, Lieutenant-Colonel Pattoun, H. M.'s 32nd Regiment, accordingly proceeded with detachments of H. M.'s 10th Foot and 49th and 72nd regiments of Native Infantry, subsequently joined by two guns of General Cortland's artillery, that were near at hand, and attacked the enemy's position with great gallantry and perseverance; but it was so much stronger than the one above adverted to in its vicinity, having a strong loop-holed building within it, that after encountering great loss (which by the intelligence received this morning from the city was equally experienced by the enemy), the detachment was withdrawn, and our casualty list, which had up to yesterday evening been so small, had, I regret to say, on this occasion, an addition of—

Killed.

- 3 privates, H. M.'s 10th Foot.
- 1 Native officer, 6 rank and file, 72nd Native Infantry.
- 1 serjeant, 1 havildar, 4 rank and file, 49th Native Infantry.

Wounded.

- 1 subaltern, 2 serjeants, 34 rank and file, 10th Foot (1 since dead).
- 1 rank and file, 32nd Foot.
- 2 subalterns, 1 havildar, 22 rank and file, 49th Native Infantry.
- 1 native officer, 7 rank and file, 72nd Native Infantry.

Missing.

- 3 privates, H. M.'s 10th Foot, 1 sepoy, 72nd Native Infantry.

Wounded Officers.

- Lieutenant Hollinsworth, 10th Foot, severely.
- Lieutenant and Adjutant Richardson, 49th Native Infantry, ditto.
- Lieutenant Irwin, 49th Native Infantry, dangerously.

The Chief Engineer thinking it now preferable to turn their position, instead of taking it immediately, I early this morning directed four 5½-inch mortars to be brought to bear upon it, in addition to the three 8-inch mortars at 600 yards from it, on the left of Ramteerut, which will, I trust, secure the object with the least possible further risk. I regret to add that Brigadier Markham passed me in the trenches, at 6 A.M., wounded by a ball through the thigh, but which having been extracted, I trust I may safely calculate upon his early recovery.

I have not yet received Colonel Pattoun's official report, and do not like to wait for it, the above being from what he stated viva voce to me, and from the returns since received of casualties from corps.

Camp, Mooltan, September 12, 1848.

Referring you to my letter of the 10th instant I have the honour to report, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, that, thinking the bombardment of the enemy's position must have been effectual, I directed, at noon yesterday, that a shell should only be thrown into it once hourly; having, from my observations at an early hour, satisfied myself that it must be taken without delay. At noon yesterday the Chief Engineer and Commanding Officer of Artillery waited upon me, when the former apprized me of his having ascertained that the enemy were in great force in its vicinity; but the wind was so boisterous and the dust so troublesome, the weather seemed adverse to our moving then, and it was put off. At 2 A.M. to-day, Major Napier again called, with a confirmation of his former information, at which hour we had a promise of a repetition of yesterday's dust storm; but at 4 A.M., finding it was clearing up, I issued the Division Order of which I enclose a copy; and being pressed for time, I can only add that my sanguine expectations were more than realized, of which I hope to give the particulars to-morrow. The total of the casualty list will not, I trust, prove heavy; but I have heard with unfeigned regret of the death of Colonel Pattoun and Quartermaster Taylor, of H. M.'s 32nd Regiment, Major Montizambert, of H. M.'s 10th Regiment, and Ensign Lloyd, of the 8th Native Infantry.

Extract, Division Orders.

Camp, Mooltan,4 a.m., Tuesday, September 12, 1848.

The Major-General proposes to take the enemy's position in front, and near the advanced picquet of the trenches, at 9 o'clock, a.m.; for which purpose, as he hopes, this arrangement will bring on a somewhat general action. The following force will be ready, under the command of Brigadier Hervey, to advance from the trenches a quarter of an hour before the above mentioned hour, and will, in great measure, be formed from the relieving and about to be relieved troops of the trenches.

One troop of Horse Artillery.

A complete squadron of Cavalry from each of the three regiments; viz., 11th Light, and 7th and 11th Irregular Cavalry.

6 companies of H. M.'s 10th.

6 companies of H. M.'s 32nd.

1 regiment of Native Infantry from 1st Brigade (the 8th).

2 regiments of Native Infantry from the 2nd Brigade (49th).

The right column, under Lieutenant-Colonel Pattoun, will be composed of 5 companies of H. M.'s 32nd and 8th Regiment Native Infantry.

The left column, under Lieutenant-Colonel Franks, C.B., will consist of 5 companies of H. M.'s 10th and 49th Regiments Native Infantry.

The Cavalry will be under the command of Major Wheler, who will attach one troop to the Horse Artillery.

The reserve under the field officer of the trenches will consist of a company from each of H. M.'s Regiments 10th and 32nd, and the 51st Regiment of Native Infantry, with two guns of Horse Artillery. Of the details of the force remaining in camp, Brigadier Salter will make such disposition as may be expedient, keeping the whole on the alert. The Commanding Officer of Artillery will, in concert with the Chief Engineer, arrange, if possible, for the advance of the heavy howitzers, now in Ramteerut, a few hundred yards, and Lieutenant Edwardes will be requested to co-operate from the left of the advanced picquet of the trenches, with an efficient detail from the force under his command ; and the Major-General calculates upon the most complete success from the zealous and energetic exertions of all concerned, if the enemy should prove to be as numerous and as strongly positioned as they are supposed to be.

Major-General Whish to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp, Mooltan, September 13, 1848.

In continuation of my letter of yesterday's date I have the honour to report, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, that the columns, formed agreeably to the Division Orders, of which a copy was forwarded yesterday, advanced to the attack at 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ a.m., part of Lieutenant Edwardes' force being previously engaged with the enemy on our left. The position was a strong one, and stoutly defended ; the conflict terminating only in a series of hand-to-hand encounters. A troop of Horse Artillery, under Captain Mackenzie, was brought up at an opportune moment, and prevented an accession of numbers to the enemy, who were repulsed with severe loss in about an hour and a half. I have the honour to inclose a list of casualties on this occasion, and on the night of the 9th instant, in the previous attack on this post, wherein Captain Christopher, of the Indian Navy, was severely wounded.

The late Colonel Pattoun, who commanded the attack on that occasion, reports, that Captain Christopher rendered him valuable assistance in bringing up supports from the rear intrenchment.

The wounded, I am happy to say, are progressing very favourably, by the Field Surgeon's report.

General Casualty Return of Mooltan Field Force in the operations on the Enemy's intrenched Position on the 9th and 12th September, 1848.

Mooltan, September 13th, 1848.

4th Troop 1st Brigade, Horse Artillery—1 rank and file, 4 horses, killed; 1 European officer, 7 rank and file, 5 horses, wounded.

Major-General Whish to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp, Mooltan, November 7th, 1848.

(Extract.)

I intimated yesterday that I should most probably consider it my duty to attack the enemy's position this morning.

At 4 P.M. I issued the Division Order, of which I beg to forward a copy, and at the same time explained to the Brigadiers and Officers in command the mode of attack I proposed adopting, viz., 1st. the British force to be drawn up at 6 A.M. precisely on the eastern side of the Grand Canal that flanks Lieutenant Edwardes's Camp at Sooraj Khoond. The Infantry columns to make a detour to the right, to take the enemy's position in flank, and the Cavalry and Horse Artillery to make a corresponding movement, and on nearing the enemy to act according to circumstances.

2nd. The Allies to move forward when directed by Lieutenant Edwardes up the western side of the canal, taking especial care that none of them cross to the eastern side, while the British force is engaged with the enemy.

At 2 A.M., to-day, I learnt with much surprise and regret that several hundred of one of the three regular regiments of the Sikh service that was occupying for the night our advanced position (our siege guns having first been withdrawn from it), had gone over to the enemy, and that the 800 Rohillas with Lieutenant Bunny's two Horse

Artillery guns remaining, might prove inadequate, which led to my immediately sending on our picquets to their aid. At about 3 A.M. Lieutenant Edwardes came to me, as did other officers. The former, after what had taken place, could not be answerable for his troops performing the duty assigned to them yesterday, but said that a victory would have a most salutary effect upon them. I then modified my plan as regarded the west side of the canal, and agreed that measures there should only be defensive, unless the Allies should show a readiness to give effect to the whole of it, and which I am happy to say they did, after gallantly repulsing at 8 A.M. a severe attack made on them by the enemy with all his disposable force.

At 10 A.M. our Infantry reached their destination in echelon of Brigades, right in front, and were duly supported by the Horse Artillery and Cavalry in carrying the enemy's position and capturing the greater part of his guns, which was effected within an hour with the small loss of two or three killed, and twelve or fourteen wounded, no officer being among the casualties.

The defection of one of the Sikh regiments made me think it most desirable that I should not leave camp, and as our Cavalry here were to be for the day increased by 1000 of the horse of our Allies, I requested Brigadier Salter to remain also. On several accounts I was averse to delay the attack, and I trust that independent of its complete success it will meet with his Lordship's approval.

Major-General Whish to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp, Mooltan, November 9, 1848.

Referring you to my letter of the 7th instant, I have now the satisfaction of forwarding for submission to the Commander-in-Chief, Brigadier Markham's letter of yesterday, detailing the particulars of the gallant and successful attack made on the strong position of the enemy (on the eastern side of the Grand Canal) by the troops placed under his command, on the morning of the 7th instant, to which I have attached the documents noted in the margin.* The enemy was in strong force on the west side of the canal, but had no guns there, and I never considered the number of them at his main position (on the eastern bank) to exceed six; one of which they began to draw off on first seeing our force, but apparently primarily for the purpose of enfilading our Infantry as they drew near, in which they were disappointed by the rapid advance of our Cavalry and Horse Artillery, under Major Wheler and Captain Anderson, which led to the gun on the right being hurried towards the town, and to the capture of the remainder, which was ensured by the steady advance and brilliant bayonet charge on the enemy's batteries, in which the Native Infantry most nobly vied with their European comrades.

From my letter of the 7th instant to your address, his Lordship will learn that I remained in camp: when I decided on so doing, it was quite impossible for me to conjecture to what extent the force of the Allies might prove faithless, and Lieutenant Edwardes could not at that time give me any encouragement to indulge in auspicious forebodings, but providentially everything of an untoward aspect or character was overruled for good, and a day that commenced in gloom, ended most joyfully. I regret having to notice that our casualty list annexed to Brigadier Markham's report was increased on his force coming back, several men having been wounded by a few of the enemy having so far recovered their spirits as to fire their matchlocks and jingalls from behind the walls and trees at a considerable distance off. The wounds, in general, his Lordship will rejoice to learn, are slight.

In the vicinity of Camp, on the 7th instant, there was not much to do. Foujdar Khan, with 1000 Horse from Lieutenant Edwardes' camp, joined the Cavalry under Brigadier Salter, and advanced near the Shesh Mahal, as a body of the enemy's cavalry were in that neighbourhood. This gave Lieutenant Graham (who had two guns of the 4th Troop 1st Brigade Horse Artillery) an opportunity of firing a few rounds of shrapnells amongst them, which induced them to retire till they were under the fire of the fort, when Brigadier Salter recalled our party.

It would be unjust to conclude without particularly bringing to the notice of the Right Honourable the Commander-in-Chief the steady and soldier like conduct of Lieutenant Bunny, of the Horse Artillery, and Lieutenant Pollock (49th Regiment Native Infantry), Assistant Resident, on the 7th instant. The former had his two guns at our advanced post in battery, and the latter commanded the detachment of the troops of the allies there, of which a large portion went over to the enemy at 2 A.M. increasing his strength probably to 1200, and in intrenchment not three hundred yards off.

The Cavalry detail, under Captain Mulcaster, that was attached to the guns (but at some distance, to be out of the range of those of the enemy) was soon with them; but it took the picquets a considerable time to join, and the enemy, fully aware of their position and circumstances, might have made a serious attack on the post with great promise of success; but the above officers remained firm and gave confidence to the small details with them to continue a similar course.

Major-General Whish.*

I have the honour to report for your information, that, according to the arrangements made on the morning of the 7th instant, I proceeded with the force under my command, as per margin*, across the bridges over the Nullah, on the right of the Allied Camp in the Sooraj Khoond, in open column, flanking the enemy's position, brought our shoulders forward to the left, proceeding directly across their rear. When we had advanced sufficiently far to insure overlapping the most distant part of their position, we wheeled into line, three guns on the right, three on the left, the whole of the Cavalry (with the exception of a small party with the guns) on our right flank, between the line and Sultan Sudoola Gardens. The reserve, in quarter distance column, in rear of the centre of the right brigade, advanced steadily in echelon of brigade, at fifty paces distant from the right under a smart fire of grape and round shot. At this moment I ordered the Cavalry to attack a large body of the enemy who were moving to our right, and to prevent their removing their guns.

Major Wheler, in command of the Cavalry, advanced in the most brilliant manner, charged the enemy, cutting up numbers of them, taking a standard, and preventing the removal of the guns, swept the whole of our front, and re-forming speedily, and in good order, on our left, moved off to cover the right. As the Cavalry cleared our front the Horse Artillery opened their fire; the line charged, and took the position, with the whole of the guns, on the bank of the Nullah, driving the enemy across and up it, with considerable loss. Our own loss in the whole affair, (which lasted from the time we wheeled into line till the enemy were completely routed, about an hour,) being, as you will perceive by the accompanying returns, comparatively small. We then destroyed their batteries, and returned to camp.

The conduct of every body, officers and men, was beyond all praise. To all I have to return my most sincere thanks for the manner in which my orders were carried out. To Lieutenant-Colonel Franks and Lieutenant-Colonel Brooke, in command of Brigades, for their cordial support. To Lieutenant-Colonel Young, Major Farquharson, Major Finnis, Major Inglis, Major Lloyd, and Captain Jamieson, for the steady manner in which they led their regiments into action. To Major Wheler, in command of the Cavalry, and to Captain Anderson, in command of the Horse Artillery, my warmest thanks are due. To Major Napier, Chief Engineer, who accompanied me throughout the day, I am indebted more than I can express. Captain Abercrombie, who attended me personally, and to the Engineer Officers who were attached to Officers in Command of Brigades, and to the Officers in charge of Sappers and Pioneers, I have to thank for the ready assistance which they afforded. To Major Becher, Assistant Quartermaster General, my thanks are also due. To Captain Kennedy, Aide-de-Camp to the Major-General, who accompanied me in that capacity during the whole affair, I beg to convey my fullest sense of the service he rendered.

Brevet Major T. Wheeler, Commanding the Cavalry and Horse-Artillery, in the Column of Attack, to Captain A. S. Balfour, Major of Brigade.

Camp, Mooltan, Nov. 7, 1848.

For the information of Brigadier Markham, I have the honour to report the operations of the Cavalry and the Horse Artillery, (detail as per margin*), commanded by me, and placed under his orders for the attack on the enemy this morning.

After the Brigadier had detached two guns and a squadron of Cavalry to the left, and placed the remainder of the guns on the right of the Infantry, I drew up the Cavalry on the right of all.

*4th Troop 3rd Brigade Horse Artillery.

11th Light Cavalry, 160 sabres.

11th Irregular Cavalry, 220 sabres.

Shortly after we had advanced, I received a message delivered by Captain Kennedy, Aide-de-camp, from the Brigadier, suggesting the possibility of the Cavalry cutting off some horsemen who were gradually retiring from our front, and the front of the Infantry. At this moment we were getting clear of the jungle on to an open piece of ground; and besides the horsemen above alluded to, I saw to our right front a body of the enemy with a standard, a mass of his cavalry in and around some small villages, a little further retired, on tolerably good ground, and his batteries in the distance. I at once made up my mind to charge the whole, and well the officers and men responded to the call. With a cheer they charged with the utmost precision and rapidity, carrying all before them; but rapid and good as the charge was in itself it was by great good fortune so timed as to be of essential service, for some of the squadrons charged immediately in the rear of the enemy's guns, preventing the line of infantry from being enfiladed. More than this, the enemy's mass of Cavalry, not being apparently aware of our proximity, were staggered by the sudden advance, and never made a stand in a body, though parties of them showed a good front till we were in amongst them. Some squadrons charged repeatedly, while others only charged once, but effectually preventing the guns from being carried off, though the attempt was made. Lieutenant Vibart, 11th Light Cavalry, captured a standard.

Where all behaved nobly it were invidious to make distinctions. I shall therefore satisfy myself with bringing to the Brigadier's notice how much I am indebted to Captain I. Inglis, commanding 11th Light Cavalry; Captain Master, commanding 11th Irregular Cavalry; and Lieutenant Graham, commanding Detail 7th Irregular Cavalry. To Captain J. Anderson, commanding 4th Troop 3rd Brigade Horse Artillery, Brigadier Markham will understand how much we owe, and how difficult it must be for me to describe his movements after he advanced with his four guns, simultaneously with the Cavalry, but to me it seemed that whether in the attack, or in dispersing parties of the enemy which attempted to re-form, or in the eventual retirement, his guns were always judiciously placed, and well served.

Lieutenant Taylor, of the Engineers, was kind enough to act as my staff on this occasion, and charged by my side.

The Brigadier will be happy to learn from the accompanying casualty roll, that our loss in men is absolutely nothing, although the enemy, turning their guns, fired rounds of grape into us as we advanced, or rather as we closed on them—fortunately hitting only the horses.

R. NAPIER, Major,
Chief Engineer, Mooltan Field Force.

Camp, Mooltan, November 12, 1848.

(Extract.)

Within these two days I have received from Lieutenants Edwardes and Lake documents which, in justice to the parties concerned, I think it right to forward to you, for submission to the Commander-in-Chief.

His Lordship will observe that, from the 31st ultimo, when the enemy first made their appearance in the vicinity of the camp of the allies, until the 6th instant inclusive, their loss was 37 killed and 144 wounded; and in the action of Sooraj Khoond, on the 7th instant, it was—killed, 39 men, 10 horses; wounded, 172 men.

When I wrote my letter of the 9th instant, I was not aware that Second Lieutenant Paton, of Engineers, was on duty at our advanced post, after the defection of the Sikh Regular Regiment there. He was one of several individuals who reported the circumstance to me (at about 2 A. M.), but I am glad to be enabled to associate the above officer with Lieutenants Bunny and Pollock, as highly deserving of being brought to his Excellency's notice.

Major H. B. Edwardes, C.B., to Major-General Whish.

Camp, Sooraj Khoond, November 8, 1848.

I have the honour to report, for your information, such details of the action of 7th November as concerned the Irregular Auxiliary Force under command of myself and Lieutenant Lake.

2. You will remember that it was decided at the meeting of staff officers in your tent, between 4 and 6 A. M. on 7th November, that as about half of one of General Courtlandt's regular regiments had deserted to the enemy during the night from the battery in front of your camp, it was not advisable to risk entrusting to the Irregular Force that part of the British attack for which they had been told off over night, while at the same time an immediate victory was deemed so indispensable as to require a single attack by the British column, which was finally arranged to come off at 10 A. M.

3. I left your tent at about half-past six, and had scarcely reached my own before a sharp musketry fire opened at our advanced battery on the nullah, and growing hotter and hotter, soon proved to be an open attack upon that post by the rebels, in such force as at one time to drive completely back the 500 Pathans who held it, and turn the inner flank of the 8-gun battery at the well, 400 yards in front of our camp. The conduct of the gunners at this trying moment deserves mention. They drew back their guns from the embrasures, and bringing them to bear on the enemy issuing from the nullah, discharged grape so rapidly among them 'as to check the attack. It was only transferred, however, to the bed and banks of the nullah; and though I poured reinforcements on the point, the enemy also received such accessions of numbers that I deemed it right to let you know that the issue was doubtful, and an immediate diversion necessary.

4. Scarcely, however, had Doctor Cole taken you this message, when General Courtlandt called on his other two regular regiments to prove themselves free from the treachery of the Kuttar Mookhee Pultan, a call readily answered by several companies leaping over their intrenchments. Mr. Quin, my writer, as usual led them on, and received a spent round shot in his chest as he mounted the nullah; but one rib only was slightly injured. A close hand-to-hand conflict ensued in the nullah; but a large body of Daood-pootras belonging to the army of Nawab Bahawul Khan at this moment gave such timely assistance that the tide was turned, and after a sharp fight of about half an hour, the rebels were expelled from the nullah, and in full retreat upon their own entrenchments, up to which they were chased by the victors.

5. This successful repulse completely counter-balanced the effect of the defection of the Kuttar Mookhee; and when (in a shorter time than we could have expected) your column came down to the rescue, I was able to promise Brigadier Markham, that when he had made his detour and closed with the enemy's left flank on the east of the nullah, our force should assist him by taking that share of the attack which was assigned it over night. Accordingly when, after a lengthened flank movement, through the broken ground most beautifully executed by the British troops, and watched from the high banks of the canal by all our Irregulars with enthusiasm and admiration, the brigades deployed upon the rebel flank, we waited to give only one hearty cheer to the cavalry, as they charged Moolraj's Ghoorchurrahs, and then ourselves formed into line and advanced up the west side of the nullah to the right of the enemy's intrenchment, in itself a most difficult position, but carried with feeble resistance, in consequence of the rebels being disheartened by one repulse already, and distracted by the British attack upon their left, which they had formerly deemed impregnable.

6. I regret to say that the head of the British line reached the east side of the nullah, as our Irregulars arrived at the passage in the canal, which connected the intrenchments on the east and west, and a party of Sheikh Emamooddeen's Rohillas, disregarding in the heat of the action the orders they had received to keep on their own side of the nullah, crossed over, and had captured a gun on the eastern bank, when they were mistaken by the Sepoys for Mulraj's troops, and two were shot down before the error could be explained.

7. I deem it my duty to bring to your notice the noble conduct of a private of H. M.'s 32nd Foot, who at this juncture, perceiving what was going on, leaped down the canal, and putting himself in front of my Pathans, faced the British troops and waved his chacko on the end of his bayonet as the signal to cease firing. Thus many friendly lives were saved. The name of this brave man is Howell.

8. It is only justice for me to mention that Lieutenant Lake, in command of the Daooodpootras, and Lieutenant Pollock and Mr. Hugo James, at the head of the Regular Regiments, led their men over, and into, the enemy's works before General Courtlandt could extricate the artillery from the water cuts in our front, so that the position was carried without a round shot being fired.

9. Dewan Chirkunder Mull in civil charge of the Nawab's army, was present throughout the fight. Sheikh Emamooden behaved very well with his men, as did also Dewan Jowahir Mull.

10. The whole of my cavalry was along with your reserve troop of Horse Artillery on the right rear of the enemy, and I trust gave you satisfaction.

11. Our loss on this day was I regret to say severe, (39 killed, and 172 wounded,) and during the cannonade from the rebel entrenchment from the 1st to the 6th November, 37 killed, and 144 wounded. The patient fortitude with which this annoying fire day and night was endured, until the fitting moment for action arrived, was very creditable to an irregular force.

12. I cannot close this report without acknowledging the indefatigable services of Mr. Assistant Surgeon Cole, who has since July last, had upwards of 400 wounded men of this force under his hands, and won gratitude and admiration for European medical skill in many a mountain home on the banks of the Indus. His humanity however was perhaps never more conspicuous than yesterday when he saved the lives of many wounded Sikhs upon the field.

Return of Killed and Wounded in the Irregular Force, from the 1st to the 6th November, 1848.

Sheikh Emamooddeen, 10 men and 4 horses killed; 37 men wounded. Foujdar Khan, Futteh Sher Khan, and Kulloo Khan's Infantry, 9 men killed; 43 men wounded. Foujdar Khan, Futteh Sher Khan, and Kulloo Khan's Cavalry, 1 man wounded. Genearl Courtlandt's three regiments and artillery, 8 men killed; 26 wounded. Dewan Jowahir Mull Dutt, 5 men and 1 horse killed; 14 men and 1 horse wounded. Misr Sahib Dyal's Camp of Rohillaha, 3 men killed; 8 men wounded. Nawab Bahawul Khan's Force, 2 men and 1 horse killed; 15 men wounded. Total, 37 men and 6 horses killed; 144 men and 1 horse wounded.

Return of Killed and Wounded on November 7th, 1848, in the action of Sooraj Khoond.

Sheikh Emamooddeen's, 5 men and 4 horses killed; 30 men wounded. Foujdar Khan, Futteh Sher Khan, and Kulloo Khan's Infantry, 11 men killed; 41 wounded. Foudjar Khan, Futteh Sher Khan, and Kulloo Khan's Cavalry, 4 men and 1 horse killed; 10 men wounded. General Courtland's three Regiments and Artillery, 12 men killed; 49 wounded. Dewan Jowahir Mull Dutt, 2 men and 5 horses killed; 3 men wounded. Misr Sahib Dyal's Camp of Rohillahs, 1 man wounded. Nawab Bahawul Khan's Force, 5 men killed; 38 wounded. Total 39 men and 10 horses killed; 172 men wounded.

Lieutenant E. J. Lake; commanding the Troops of the Nawab of Bahawulpore to Major-General Whish.

Camp, Sooraj Khoond, November 9, 1848.

As by the plan of attack determined upon by you against Moolraj's entrenched position, the duty of protecting the British advanced post during the night of the 6th, devolved upon the irregular force, I proceeded at 9 p.m. to that post to make arrangements for its occupation. The party told off for this duty were five hundred of Lieutenant Edwardes' Irregulars, the Kuttar Mookhee Regiment, and one thousand of the Bahawulpore troops all under the command of Lieutenant Pollock. It was midnight before this party was properly posted, and as the enemy were then perfectly quiet, I returned to Camp in order that I might be present with the main body of my troops during the contemplated attack of the 7th. For an account of what occurred after my departure, I must refer you to Lieutenant Pollock. I must, however, express my satisfaction at the conduct of the Bahawulpore detachment, who, when they found themselves deserted by large numbers of the Kuttar Mookhee, not only showed no inclination to abandon their post but repelled an attack made upon them by the Sikhs. This I attribute to Lieutenant Pollock's gallant conduct, who was with them on this trying occasion, and by his example restored confidence to all parties.

2. The defection of the Kuttar Mookhee soldiers became generally known, by daylight on the 7th, and produced a very disheartening effect upon the whole of the Nawab's Army. Some of his officers counselled an immediate retreat and separation from the rest of the irregular force. At this juncture Moolraj's troops made an attack upon our advanced post; our own men gave way; the reinforcements I ordered to their support did not move with alacrity; our main position seemed to be in imminent danger; when some of General Courtlandt's guns opened grape upon the enemy's advancing column, upon whom at the same time a flanking fire was brought from a party of Daood-pootras I sent across the nullah. The enemy who had hitherto advanced, now halted, when a simultaneous rush made by some Rohillahs, and some companies of General Courtlandt's Regiments, decided the struggle, and the rebels fled in confusion to their own trenches.

3. When at a later hour the British troops had crossed the nullah in front of our Camp and advanced to the attack, the Bahawulpore Army also moved down with the remainder of the irregular force and occupied the trenches of the enemy directly in their front. They met with little or no resistance.

4. During the day the Bahawulpore Army suffered a loss of five killed and thirty-eight wounded; of these the greater number of casualties occurred during the attack on our own camp.

5. On this occasion, as on every other, I derived the greatest assistance from Peer Ibrahim Khan, the native Agent. I feel I cannot speak too highly of his exertions, not only on the 7th but for six days preceding.

6. It would be out of place to bring to your notice the conduct of those of the Nawab's officers who distinguished themselves on this occasion, I cannot, however, omit mentioning that during the attack on our Camp, Dewan Chabunda Mull, the Nawab's Chief-Officer, behaved with the greatest courage and presence of mind.

*Major-General Whish to the Adjutant-General
of the Army.*

Camp, Mooltan, December 27, 1848.

My letters of late will, in great measure, have prepared the Commander-in-Chief for my resuming operations on being joined by the Bombay column, in the mode specified in the accompanying copy of my field force order of yesterday. Three columns on the left, that is, towards the Sedee loll-ke-bed, left and right sides of the Munde Awa, were to be only of demonstration, unless the resistance of the enemy, simultaneously assailed in various parts of their strong entrenchments, encouraged their becoming (as I confidently hoped they would be) real attacks; which otherwise was only to be characteristic of the 4th (or right) column; which half-an-hour later was to carry the brick-kilns, village of Wuxerabad, and if possible, the Amkbass, all of which was effected without loss.

Providence has been pleased to crown the efforts of this gallant force with complete success, and with but few casualties on our side, as far as my observation went. His Lordship will judge of the satisfaction I felt on visiting at 2 P.M. the Munde Awa, where one of the light field batteries of the Bombay Force was located, and which before day-break will be substituted by heavy guns and mortars, and ensure us the city in a little time.

I shall, after despatching this letter, return to the scene of operation, before leaving which, Brigadier Dundas making a lodgment in the Sedee loll-ke-bed for his heavy guns, which he had close at hand.

(Extract.)

Division Orders issued to the Mooltan Field Force.

Camp, Mooltan, December 26th, 1848.

The Major-General congratulates the Bengal Field Force on resuming their old position, after three and a half months' absence, under the auspicious circumstance of being efficiently reinforced by the Bombay Column under the command of Brigadier the Honourable H. Dundas C.B. which will join early this afternoon; within 24 hours after which, the Major-General hopes to have carried the enemy's posts that are a requisite preliminary to the commencement of a regular attack upon the citadel, to effect which the following arrangements are ordered for to-morrow.

A wing of Her Majesty's 10th Regiment, and a Regiment of N. I. from the 1st Brigade, will proceed at a quarter of an hour P.M. precisely, to take possession of the Brick Kilns to the north-west of Camp. Brigadier Cheape will be pleased to attach an Engineer Officer to the party, and a Company or two of Pioneers.

A squadron of Cavalry and four Horse Artillery guns will accompany this party to act according to circumstances. The name of the Senior Infantry Officer proceeding with this party to be sent to the Assistant-Adjutant-General without delay.

Three Companies of Her Majesty's 32nd Regiment and six Companies N. I. from the 2nd Brigade to parade at the advanced picquet of that Brigade a quarter of an hour before noon, to accompany heavy ordnance to the front.

The name of the Senior Infantry Officer proceeding with this party to be sent to the Assistant-Adjutant-General as soon as practicable.

The portion of the force not ordered on other duties, will be ready to stand to their arms from noon till dismissed. The Regiment in rear of Camp (leaving guards for the protection of their lines) will pile arms in front of the Artillery park at the same hour.

The officer commanding the Bombay Division is requested to have prepared two Columns, of a wing of European and a Regiment of Native Infantry each, accompanied by a Squadron of Cavalry, and Light Field Battery (or four guns as he may consider expedient) to each at 11 a.m. The Batteries to open on the enemy's positions at Mundee Awa and Seedee loll-ke-bed, precisely at noon, and to be followed up by the Infantry and Artillery according to the effect produced on the enemy, to the taking of those two positions if facilities offer, for which purpose a Company of Sappers should be attached to each Column, with entrenching tools to secure the posts if taken.

Brigadier Cheape has been requested to attach an Engineer Officer acquainted with the ground, to Brigadier the Honourable H. Dundas, C.B., for the day's operations.

The column acting on the left of the Bombay Division should be warned, that Major Edwardes' force co-operates with this attack on the west of the Canal (or large nullah), to whose troops a few of the Bengal Cavalry, Regular and Irregular, will be attached, to facilitate their being recognized as allies.

Major-General Whish to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp, Mooltan, December 28, 1848.

In furtherance of the letter I had the gratification of forwarding to you yesterday, by express, I beg to report, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that the force employed performed the duty assigned to it in the best spirit and style.

The portion on the extreme left was under the immediate command of Brigadier the Honourable H. Dundas, C.B., who appointed Brigadier Capon to the charge of the second column of the Bombay Division, next to which was a detail under Lieutenant-Colonel Nash, C.B., 72d N. I. ; and on the extreme right (to reach its destination three-quarters of an hour later) was a detachment under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel Young, H. M.'s 10th Foot.

The latter was under any circumstances to make a real attack upon the enemy's position, as stated in my letter of yesterday; and in the margin* I have specified separately the troops employed under the gallant leaders above named, to whom as well as to the troops respectively under their immediate command, who so steadily effected the duty assigned to them, I feel much indebted.

It was intended that a portion of the Irregular Force under Major Edwardes, C.B. and Lieutenant Lake, should make a demonstration to the west of the town and grand canal at noon. A little delay however ensued ; but, however, detrimental to the object in view, and I propose to-morrow availing myself of the services of those officers and their troops, to relieve the details of the Bombay Division in charge of the Seedee loll-ke-bed, which has been with their usual zeal tendered simultaneously with a requisition I had made in a private note to Major Edwardes.

The course pursued by the two centre columns came more particularly under my observation, but the gratifying result of all was the acquisition, with but little loss, of the very strong positions designated "Seedee loll-ke-bed," "Mundee Awa," the suburbs east of it, and to the north-east angle of the citadel, the "Amkhass," "Sawun Mull's Tomb," the "Brick Kilns," with strong entrenchments, the "Shumstobreeze," or Blue Mosque, the village (or rather Fort) of Wuzeerabad, all of which the enemy had evidently determined to

Brigadier the Hon. H. Dundas, commanding Bombay column of Mooltan Field Force, to Major-General Whish.

Camp, Mooltan, December 28, 1848.

I have the honour to inform you that, agreeably to the instructions received from the Assistant Adjutant-General, Bengal Division, I moved from camp yesterday, about 11 o'clock, in two columns*, the right being under the command of Brigadier Capon, the left under my own orders, Brigadier Stalker having the remainder of the division, ready to move in support, as might be required. On leaving camp, the right column proceeded nearly direct to the front, towards the Mundee Awa, guided by Captain Abercrombie, of the Bengal Engineers. On approaching a building, named the Ramteerut, Brigadier Capon directed Major Dennis, commanding 60th Rifles, to extend two companies, and take possession of the building which was speedily effected, the battery under Captain Bailey opening on the enemy from this point. Having formed line, the 3rd Regiment N. I. under the command of Major Hallett, having also thrown out its skirmishers, the advance was made, and the troops advancing with a cheer, which was distinctly heard by the left column, drove the enemy from their entrenchments; and on mounting the Mundee Awa, found it vacated, and, following down on the other side, and on each flank, drove the enemy through the suburbs into the city. The object having been obtained, in thus driving the enemy within the city walls, the guns were speedily placed in position on the mound, keeping up a continued fire on the enemy.

* Right Column—No. 5 Light Field Battery, 1 squadron 1st Lancers, 5 Companies 60th Royal Rifles, 3rd Regiment Native Infantry, 1 company Sappers and Miners.

I regret to state that, almost immediately on mounting the summit of the mound, Lieutenant Hill, of the Engineers, was most severely wounded by the bursting of a shrapnell shell, which was thrown from the town, the same shot killing Lieutenant Younghusband, 9th Regiment Native Infantry, and two Artillerymen. Captain Bailey also had his arm carried off by a cannon shot; and I have to regret the fall of Major Gordon, of the 60th Royal Rifles, who was killed in command of a party clearing the suburbs. For further details of the movements of the right column, I beg to refer to the report of Brigadier Capon, herewith inclosed, the operations of the left column, which was under my orders, having been so far separated as to preclude me from observing the movements on the right.

Brigadier Capon reports most favourably of the gallantry and good conduct of all under his command, and of the assistance he received from the staff officers attached to him. Captain Tapp, Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General, Captain Stiles, Major of Brigade, Lieutenant Pollexfen, Deputy Assistant Quartermaster-General, and Lieutenant Gordon, 60th Royal Rifles, who acted in the capacity of Aide-de-Camp.

The ground it had to pass over was very much broken and intersected with deep nullahs. From the advance of the 4th Regiment Native Infantry, Rifles, having crossed the first nullah too much to the left of where a practicable road had been cut, sometime was lost in getting across, and the enemy's advanced picquets, being distinctly seen, I ordered the advanced guard to extend, and as soon as the 4th Rifles had got disentangled from the nullahs, I ordered the skirmishers to advance and drive in the enemy, which was speedily effected. The column moved on to the left, till the head had passed the left of the old entrenchments, when I halted the 1st Bombay Fusiliers, under the command of Major Mignan, forming in the parallel, and the 4th Native Infantry (Rifles) lying down under a bank in front of a white building or mosque. The battery, under the command of Captain Turnbull and personal superintendence of Major Leeson, was placed in position opposite a mound which I understand was the "Seedee-lol-ke-bed," on which it opened, the enemy immediately retiring. A few rounds were then fired at the mosque, which was occupied by the enemy, and I directed Major Honner, commanding the 4th Native Infantry (Rifles) to advance against it, throwing forward his left, and thus take it in reverse. Nothing could exceed the steadiness and good conduct of the 4th Native Infantry (Rifles), who, moving in extended order, rapidly drove the enemy from the mosque, and also from another large one, with adjoining buildings, where the enemy had two guns, but which, in retiring, they succeeded in carrying off with them. A general advance then took place, the 1st Bombay Fusiliers passing the mound to the right, and the 4th Native Infantry to the left. The guns were moved, as speedily as the nature of the ground would admit, to the top of the mound, for which I had been led to believe a view of the city could be had, but on arriving there I found another mound in front, and a third again beyond that. The troops kept gradually advancing over very difficult and strong ground, driving the enemy from every point at which he attempted to make a stand, the 1st Fusiliers pursuing them through a deserted village into the suburbs, and the 4th Rifles following them and driving them out of a large enclosure called the Beegee Bagh and quite into the suburbs. The guns were by a very great exertion, and the active assistance of the Sappers and Miners, under Lieutenant Kendall, placed in position in the Seedee-lol-ke-bed, from which however the city wall was scarcely perceptible, and the distance too great for the fire of the artillery to produce any great effect. While the guns were being brought up to the hill, a retrograde movement was made by the troops, which had been occasioned by the 4th Rifles having imprudently advanced too far, and having expended their ammunition.

It was at this time that the greatest number of casualties occurred in that regiment, but the Fusiliers, falling back gradually, and keeping up a steady fire, checked the advance of the enemy and covered the retreat of the 4th Rifles.

Both regiments having formed under the hill, the ammunition was replenished, when I directed the Fusiliers to move to the right, and drive the enemy from the deserted village, which was speedily done, the regiment forming under cover of the buildings, the front being covered by their skirmishers. The 4th Rifles re-occupied the Beegee Bagh; and the object of the attack having been attained, in serving to distract the enemy, I did not consider any good could arise from a further advance. The troops maintained this position until dark, a constant cannonade being kept up from the battery.

Captain Woosnam joined in the afternoon with the heavy guns, and two 18-pounders were placed in position on the right of the field battery. All the ammunition of the field battery having been expended, and there being no more of that calibre (9-pounder) in the park, I ordered the battery to return to camp, their place being supplied by the troop of Horse Artillery under Major Blood. A reinforcement of one wing of the 19th Native Infantry under Major Mant, and two companies of the Fusiliers, which I had sent for, arriving in the afternoon, I directed the former to relieve the 4th Rifles in the "Beegee Bagh," the latter regiment being then formed in the rear and right of that enclosure, and the two companies of Fusiliers under cover of an adjoining building. The Beegee Bagh being very extensive, and thickly studded with trees, I deemed it advisable to retire from it at dark, the Sappers having taken the precaution to make several large openings in the wall, to facilitate the re-occupation of it if necessary. I then took up a position to the rear, the left being thrown back, and resting on the large mosque, and the right extending to the right of the "Seedee-lol-ke-bed." The enemy kept up a fire of matchlocks during the greater part of the night, but without doing any mischief.

I have great pleasure in expressing the satisfaction I experienced at the conduct of the troops. The conduct of the 19th Bombay Fusiliers was most excellent, frequently charging the enemy with the bayonet, and drawing him within the city walls. The steadiness and good order in which the 4th Rifles moved over very difficult ground, deserves every commendation. The conduct of the 19th regiment, in maintaining its position in the Beegee Bagh, against all attempts of the enemy to get possession of it, was everything I could wish. The Sinde Horse, under Lieutenant Merewether, were always at hand, ready to support, but the ground was most unfavourable for the movements of cavalry; and whenever a few shewed themselves, the enemy immediately retired.

I had every reason to be satisfied with the assistance I received from the officers of the staff. Major Green, the Assistant Adjutant-General, Captain Ramsay, the Assistant Quartermaster-General, Captain Skinner, the Deputy Judge-Advocate-General, Captain Tresshie, the Assistant Commissary-General, Captain Morse, Superintendent of Brigades. Major Jackson, in command of the Artillery, was indefatigable in his exertions, and conduct of all ranks of that arm, was most exemplary. Major Scott, the commanding Engineer, also afforded me very valuable assistance, particularly in superintending the work of the sappers. Lieutenant Ward, my Aide-de-camp, and Captain Auchmuty, Lieutenant Henry, 19th Regiment Native Infantry, and Lieutenant Loch of the 1st Lancers (Junior), who also accompanied me, rendered every assistance. I beg to enclose a return of killed and wounded, which I regret to say is rather large, but am happy to add, that no officer was hurt with the left column.

Brigadier D. Capon, commanding 1st Infantry Brigade of Bombay Column, Mooltan Field Force, to Major Green, Assistant-Adjutant General.

Camp, Mooltan, December 28th, 1848.

SIR,—Having received orders to proceed as near as possible to a high mound, about two miles in front of the Camp, and there continue a cannonade for some time from a light Field Battery as a feint, taking advantage of any opportunity to rush on, and seize the mound, known by the name of "Mundee Awa," I marched at 11 A.M. on the 27th instant in the following order, Captain Abercrombie, Bengal Engineers, conducting the column.

5 companies of the 60th Royal Rifles in quarter distance column of companies, strength as per margin,* Major Dennis commanding.

No. 5 Light Field Battery complete in column of divisions, commanded by Captain Bailey, and attended by a company of Sappers and Miners under Lieutenant Walker.

The 3rd Regiment Native Infantry, Major Hallett commanding, in quarter distance column, while a squadron of Lancers, under the personal command of Brigadier Poole, covered both flanks, and kept up a communication with the Camp in rear.

Having proceeded about a mile, as nearly as the ground would admit, in the above order, I caused two companies of the 60th Rifles to extend and cover the front, and so advanced about a quarter of a mile, when the enemy's round shot beginning to pass through the extended ranks, I directed that a large building, then about 600 yards in front, should be taken possession of by the advanced skirmishers, which was done under a discharge of round shot and shrapnell from the town, fortunately with no other loss than one private of the 60th Rifles killed, and one wounded; at the same time the 3rd Regiment Native Infantry was ordered to open out to wheeling distance. The excellent fire of the Riflemen, in and about the building, soon subdued that of the enemy's skirmishers, and I then ordered the battery to take ground to itself and open its fire on the mound "Mundee Awa," and the intermediate space about 700 yards, thus carrying into effect the orders I had received to make a feint. Having fired about 20 minutes, the enemy's fire was continued only from some old intrenchments. I then decided on a general advance under cover of skirmishers both from the 60th Royal Rifles and 3rd Regiment Native Infantry, the battery following in the rear, and the Cavalry disposing of itself as it best might, under the unfavourable nature of the ground. A general rush forward to the mound, with a cheer, now took place, the two Infantry Regiments being nearly in the same line. The enemy fled towards the suburbs over and to the left of the mound, which, on being taken was found evacuated. The greater part of the 60th Rifles followed the enemy over the mound into the suburbs, I remaining on it with my staff and a small party of that Regiment. At this time the 3rd Regiment was actively engaged to the left of the mound, pursuing the enemy, which had taken shelter in a mosque, and under hedges and walls. Here they charged the enemy and drove them into the city. I then sent orders for its recall, lest the main object, the possession of "Mundee Awa," should be hazarded.

I also recalled from the suburbs the 60th Royal Rifles, and directed the light field battery to be brought into position on the mound, which was done as soon as a road could be cut by the Sappers and Miners. I also detached Lieutenant Forbes, of the 1st Cavalry (Lancers) to camp for re-inforcements. In the mean time, observing the approach of part of the Bengal column, on my right I agreed to the suggestion of Captain Abercrombie, that the suburbs should be held in front, and on both flanks of the mound, as far as possible.

A re-occupation of the suburbs was made without much resistance, by the 60th Royal Rifles and part of the 3rd regiment of Native Infantry, in conjunction with a portion of the Bengal column, consisting of three companies of H.M.'s 32nd regiment, under the command of Major Inglis, and part of the 51st Bengal Native Infantry, under the command of Major Finnis. About this time a shrapnell shell from the town burst over one of the nine-pounder guns which had commenced to answer the fire from the town, killing Lieutenant Younghusband, 9th Regiment Native Infantry, my acting Aide-de-camp, and two artillerymen, and wounding severely Lieutenant Hill, field engineer to the Bombay column, who had accompanied the attack. The nine-pounder guns soon succeeded in silencing the enemy's howitzer or mortar, and only round shot were subsequently fired at the mound, with little effect, save in one instance, when Captain Bailey, commanding the Artillery, had his arm carried off, and an artilleryman, since dead, was severely wounded. I regret to add, that previous to this, Major Gordon, of the 60th Royal Rifles, when in command of a party clearing the suburbs, in front of the mound, fell mortally wounded by a matchlock ball fired from one of the houses, when crossing an open space; no other casualty of the sort occurring, owing to the steadiness and skill of the men in taking advantage of every cover during the advance. Having examined the position taken up, I found, on my return, that a reinforcement, consisting of a wing of the 9th Regiment Native Infantry, had arrived from camp. A chain of posts was then established in the suburbs, and a sharp fire was kept up by the enemy during the night, happily without doing any injury. The following officers were directed by Brigadier the Honourable H. Dundas, C.B. to accompany me as my staff, in addition to my personal staff:—Captain Stiles, Major of Brigade, and Lieutenant Gordon, 60th Royal Rifles, permitted to act as my Aide-de-camp whenever required with the brigade:—Captain Tapp, Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General, Lieutenant Pollexfen, Deputy Assistant Quartermaster-General, Lieutenant Younghusband, 9th Regiment Native Infantry, who volunteered his services as Aide-de-camp on the occasion. The whole of the above were most zealous and efficient in effecting the arrangements required.

In conclusion, I beg to add, that nothing could exceed the gallantry and discipline of the 60th Royal Rifles, and the alacrity in moving forward of the 3rd Regiment Native Infantry. The exertions of the Artillerymen on the battery were unremitting. The re-inforcement, composed of a wing of the 9th Regiment Native Infantry, under Major Bellasis, was chiefly employed in guarding the battery, and in working parties, during the night, in which their zeal was conspicuous.

Brigadier Poole's arrangements were most judicious; but the nature of the ground did not admit of cavalry being actively employed.

Major-General Whish to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp, Mooltan, December 30, 1848.

I was in hopes yesterday of being able to forward a complete casualty list in reference to our attacks of the 27th instant, and trust nothing will prevent my doing so to-morrow.

I have the gratification now of reporting to you, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that, by a shell from one of the mortars of the battery mentioned in my letter of 28th instant (led on the occasion by Lieutenant Newall, Bengal Artillery), the enemy's principal magazine in the citadel was blown up at 9 A. M., and the grand Musjid so appropriated completely destroyed, with many houses and other buildings in its vicinity. The sight was awfully and, and precisely similar to that at the siege of trass on 1st March, 1817; I hope the consequence may be the same, in which case the enemy would abandon the fort to-night; otherwise I contemplate assaulting the city to-morrow.

Our batteries are as follows :—

8-inch mortars,	. . .	opened on 28th.
three 10-inch ditto	. . .	„	ditto.
our 5½-inch ditto	. . .	„	ditto.
18-pounders, on the Khooni Boorj			29th.
8-inch howitzers,	{ with the mortars }
10-inch ditto,	{ in the }		29th.
24-pounders,	{ first line, } and five 8-inch mortars are now being laid down near the three 10-inch mortars.

*Major-General Whish to the Adjutant-General of

Camp, Mooltan, December 31, 1848.

I have the honour to report, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, that the fire from the citadel was quite subdued yesterday. This morning a small gun has been occasionally used, but the enemy appear to have gone into the city, where a few of them keep up a smart matchlock fire on our breaching batteries. We have no accounts that can be depended upon, as the gates of the city and citadel are closed, and neither in-ingress nor egress permitted. On looking just now at the progress of the breaches, more battering appeared necessary.

Not having yet been able to get the return of casualties on 27th instant, from the Bombay division, I inclose that of the Bengal troops employed on the occasion, and am glad to state that many of the wounded men are very slight.

*Return of Casualties,—Bengal Division,

*Major-General Whish to the Adjutant-General
of the Army.*

Camp, Mooltan, January 2, 1849.

The army I have had under my command, since the junction of the Bombay reinforcements, has effected in a week the reduction of the fortified city of Mooltan, and made the interior of the citadel a wreck. The former was taken by assault this afternoon, after the most obstinate resistance, and at half-past three P. M. I had the satisfaction of seeing the British standard wave on its walls, having been planted there by the 1st Fusiliers that formed the advance of the left column. In making this report to you, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, I beg to say that 'I shall take the earliest opportunity of entering into particulars, and in the meantime would offer his Lordship my best congratulations on the success Divine Providence has been pleased to grant to our arms, and, as I have at present every reason to believe, with comparatively but little loss.

Extract Field Force Orders issued by Major-General Whish.

Camp, Mooltan, January 2, 1849.

It being the Major-General's intention to assault the city to-day, it will be effected by two columns, constituted as follows:

From the Bengal Division—

Her Majesty's 32d Regiment; 49th Regiment, N. I.; 72d Regiment, N. I.; right column, under the command of Brigadier Markham.

From the Bombay Division—

1st Bombay Fusiliers; 4th Bombay N. I. (Rifles); 19th Regiment Bombay N. I.; left column, under the command of Brigadier Stalker, C.B.

Each column to be conducted by an officer of Engineers, and to be accompanied by a serjeant and twelve artillerymen, furnished with gun spikes, and to have a complete company of sappers and pioneers in attendance.

The columns will leave their respective lines at noon precisely, and halt in the vicinity of the Munde Awa.

The troops now on duty there, and in the suburbs between it (the Amkhass inclusive), augmented on either flank by two guns of Horse Artillery and a squadron of cavalry (the Bombay division providing for the left, and the Bengal division for the right), will form the reserve under the command of Brigadier Hervey.

Brigadier the Honourable H. Dundas is requested to send the Scinde Horse to Bukurabad, at noon, with two guns of Horse Artillery; and Brigadier Salter will detach a regiment of irregular cavalry towards the north west angle of the fort, Major Garbett placing two Horse Artillery guns at his disposal to accompany the same. One rissalah to be told off to the guns, with orders not to quit them on any account.

Officers commanding columns will be furnished with particular instructions for their guidance, and outline plans of the city.

Officers commanding companies to be impressed with the necessity of preventing their men separating in search of plunder, or on any other pretext.

The camps will be under charge of Brigadiers Capon and Salter respectively, who will order the troops in them to stand to their arms from one P.M.

Brigadier the Honourable H. Dundas to the Adjutant-General of the Bombay Army.

January 3, 1849.

I have the honour to report, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-chief, that the town of Mooltan was taken by storm yesterday afternoon; the Bombay attacking column, comded by Brigadier Stalker, C.B. consisting of first European Regiment (Fusiliers), the fourth ve Infantry (Rifles), and the 19th Native ntry, being the first to enter the breach at the rnee Booj.

he Bengal column which was intended to enter breach at the Delhi gate, failed, in consequence having been found to be totally impracticable, e being in fact no breach, and access to the quite impossible, owing to an outwork, and eep ditch, which was entire. This column took ground to the left, and entered the ch which the Bombay column had carried, and nately no repulse took place in consequence of wo breaches not being carried simultaneously. am happy to inform his Excellency that the uct of the 2nd brigade was highly distin- ed, and I am glad to say that no officers were d, though several have been severely wounded, ng them Captains Tapp and Leith, the latter ng had his left arm amputated. Lieutenant y, of the Fusiliers, also lost his right arm. tanants Dansey and Law, and Lieutenant den of the 4th Rifles, were also wounded. ral accidents also occurred from explosions, particulars of which shall be duly communi- l as soon as possible after the receipt of the al reports and returns.

strong cannonade is now being kept up nt the north-east face of the fort, the interior hich was nearly destroyed by the explosion of the cipal magazine on the morning of the 30th ultimo.

or-General Whish to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp, Mookan, January 22, 1849.

have the satisfaction of reporting to you, for nformation of the Commander-in-Chief, that ccordance with the expectation I expressed in my letter of yesterday, Dewan Moolraj came into my camp this morning, in charge of Major Becher, Assistant Quartermaster-General; the garrison at the same time, between 3,000 and 4,000 surrendering, and laying down their arms to the columns under Brigadiers Hervey and Capon that had been in orders for the assault of the citadel. This peaceful and successful termination to our siege operations after the laborious and gallant exertions of the troops since the 26th ultimo, will I have no doubt be very gratifying to his Lordship and to the Government, and I am grateful to Divine Providence for having permitted in this way the accomplishment of such an important result.

On the 1st instant, with my letter* (No. 860) I had the satisfaction of forwarding Brigadier the Honourable H. Dundas's report of the conduct of the troops of his Division engaged in the attack on the suburbs on the 27th ultimo, of the left column of which he took personal command, particularising many officers in command of Corps or Departments, and on the Staff, whose services had been valuable also on the 7th instant. With my letter* (No. 876) I transmitted similar reports of the proceedings of the two columns under Brigadiers Stalker and Markham that had taken the city by assault on the 2nd instant, and which will, I trust, meet with the favourable consideration of his Lordship; but not having hitherto availed myself of any occasion to notice in just terms of commendation various officers of the Bengal Division, who have been with me the last six months, I beg permission to do so now.

To Brigadier Cheape, C.B. Chief-Engineer of the Army of the Punjaub, and Major Napier, Chief-Engineer of the Bengal Division; to Cap-

ns Abercrombie, Western, and Siddons; to Lieutenant Garforth, Brigade-Major of Engineers, dangerously wounded on the 2nd inst.; and to all officers of the Engineer Department, and of the Corps of Sappers and Pioneers, I am much indebted for their zealous, scientific, and persevering exertions; as also to Major Scott, Chief-engineer of the Bombay Division, and to the officers under him.

The practice of the Artillery was the theme of admiration with all. My thanks are particularly due to Majors Garbett and Leeson, respectively commanding the Artillery of the Bengal and Bombay Divisions; and to the officers under them, Lieut-Major Blood, and Captains Turnbull, Daniell, Anderson, Master and Mackenzie. Lieutenant Mill, Brigade-Major of the Artillery of the Bengal Division since July, has been particularly brought to my notice by Major Garbett for his useful services, and as contributing essentially to the advance of our operations. I must particularly commend those of Captain Hicks, Bombay Artillery, and Lieutenant P. Christie, Bengal Artillery, Commissaries of Ordnance, who are unremitting in their attention to their important duties. The services of Brigadiers Hervey and Markham, commanding Infantry brigades, and of Brigadier Salter, commanding the Cavalry, as also of their Brigade-Majors Captains Higgins and Balfour, and Lieutenant Warner, have been very valuable; and it will be in the collection of his Lordship that Brigadier Markham had the good fortune, on the 7th November inst, and on the 2nd instant, to command columns in attack that were eminently successful.

In my letter* of the 7th instant, No. 876, I noted the gallant proposition of Lieutenant-Colonel Banks, C.B., commanding H.M.'s 10th Regiment, for a party being given him to escalate the citadel on the 2nd instant ; and I am much indebted to that officer on other accounts.

It is also proper for me to notice in terms of commendation the other officers commanding corps in the Bengal Division and under canvass the last six months, namely,—Lieutenant-Colonel Brooke, H. M.'s 32nd Regiment; Major Farquharson, commanding 8th Native Infantry; Major Lloyd, commanding 49th Regiment; Major Finnis, commanding 51st Native Infantry; Captain Jamieson, commanding 52nd Native Infantry; Captain Lloyd, commanding 72nd Native Infantry (relieved on 30th November by Lieutenant-Colonel Nash, C.B. who was severely wounded in the attack of the 27th ultimo); Captain Inglis, commanding 11th Regiment Light Cavalry; Major Wheler, commanding 7th Irregular Cavalry; Captain Master, commanding the 11th Irregular Cavalry; and Lieutenant Roberts, commanding squadron of the 14th Irregular Cavalry, who relieved from that charge, on 30th November, Lieutenant Plowden, of the 50th Native Infantry.

Lieutenant-Colonel Drummond, C.B., Deputy Quartermaster-General, and Major Becher, Assistant Quartermaster-General, have uniformly given me the most efficient aid, and with a willingness that much enhanced it ; and the Assistant Adjutant-General, Brevet-Captain Whish, has performed his laborious duties with a promptness, intelligence, and zeal, that much lessened mine.

Captain Lloyd, in charge of the Commissariat department (assisted by Captains Cooper and Turner, Lieutenants Tombs, Robertson, and Willes), has uniformly made such excellent arrangements that the troops have never been inconvenienced for want of supplies; and that department has in every respect been conducted most satisfactorily.

he Superintending Surgeon, Dempster, has firmly and successfully applied his talents and industry to the promotion of the health and comfort of our sick and wounded, and been ably supported by the medical officers of every corps and department.

The officers of my personal staff, Captain Clark Kennedy, H.M.'s 18th Regiment, and Lieutenant H. H.M.'s 14th Light Dragoons, Aides-de-camp, have been so unremitting in their exertions to promote the service, that I cannot convey a correct idea of the grateful feeling their conduct has impressed on me. They both merit my warmest commendations and thanks.

I have written this despatch in much haste, and I have omitted the names of some to whom I am much indebted, in which case I shall not fail to repair the omission.

It is very satisfactory to me to add in conclusion, that I have always experienced from Brigadier General Honourable H. Dundas, C.B., commanding the Bombay Division, and from the brigadiers and officers in command under him, the most willing co-operation.

The services of Commander Powell, of the Indian Navy, with the steamers under his orders, have been of much value to the objects of the expedition; and a detail of seamen from the vessels have afforded material relief at the batteries on several occasions.

I have had the greatest satisfaction in directing a royal salute to be fired from the citadel at noon, in honour of his Lordship's victory over the Sikhs on the 13th instant; and I shall order another to be fired at sunset, for the happy termination of the military operations in this quarter.

The Adjutant-General of the Army to the Secretary of the Government of India.

Simla, October 4, 1848.

I have the honour, by direction of the Commander-in-Chief, to transmit, for the information of the Governor-General of India in Council, a copy of a despatch, of the 25th ultimo, from Brigadier C. Campbell, C.B., commanding the Punjab Division, forwarding a letter from Brevet Major S. Fisher, commanding a detachment of troops, in which he reports having dispersed, near Noorpoor, a band of marauders, under a leader of the name of Ram Sing.

A casualty return of the detachment is inclosed; and I am directed to state that Major Fisher has been informed that his Excellency considers the conduct of the troops employed to have been highly creditable.

I have the honour to report, for the information of Brigadier Wheeler, C.B. the dispersion, with slaughter, of Ram Sing and his followers from the position they had occupied.

the burnt; Ram Sing and his followers were taken from their different positions and dispersed in a slaughter. The tents and drums were destroyed; and the character of Ram Sing as a successful soldier is, I trust, totally annihilated in the eyes of the predatory soldiery who have hitherto relied on his support. I am happy to add that this has been effected with but the slight loss of one man killed and nine wounded. The casualty list is duly inclosed.

The loss of the enemy it is impossible to ascertain with any certainty. Some 75 dead bodies have been discovered; but the denseness of the jungle—which also aided Ram Sing's escape—rendered it impossible to give any accurate statement of the actual loss sustained by the enemy; it must however be great.

Nothing could be more deserving of praise than the conduct of both officers and men of all arms

(Extract.) Camp, Kalka, October 22, 1848.

I have the honour by direction of the Commander-in-Chief to transmit to you for the information of the Governor-General of India, a copy of a despatch of the 15th inst. from Brigadier H. M. Wheeler, C.B. commanding in the Jullundur Doab, recounting the manner in which he effected the reduction of the fort of Rungur Nuggul.

The Commander-in-Chief has had much satisfaction in causing to be conveyed to Brigadier Wheeler, and to the troops employed on this occasion, an expression of his warmest approval of their conduct; and his Excellency has moreover had pleasure in congratulating the Brigadier in having effected the reduction of this strong place without any expenditure of life; which is entirely to be ascribed, in the opinion of Lord Gough, to the soldierlike and judicious arrangements that were made.

A return of casualties is inclosed.

Brigadier Wheeler to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp at Rungur Nuggul,

(Extract.)

October 15, 1848.

My last was from the right bank of the Beas on the 12th instant. I have now the honour to state, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, that I marched on the 13th to Mehta, $13\frac{1}{4}$ miles, and encamped about three miles to the south of the fort. On the 14th moved the camp to a good position, just clear of the enemy's fire, to the south-east of the fort; and immediately after the whole had arrived, proceeded with the artillery to drive the enemy from the village, having previously sent the cavalry round to the northern and western faces, to take up distant positions, and watch any attempt that might be made at escape.

No sooner did the party in the village observe these movements, than it hastily abandoned it, took to the fort, well pressed by a party of the de Corps, under Lieutenant W. S. Hodson.

I now turned my attention to the fort, and opened a fire of shell from the two 24-pound howitzers, and one 12, with an occasional round shot from a battery of 9's. The practice was beautiful. The occupation of the village enabled me to place the wall and two high pukka houses with Lieutenant Hodson's Rifles, and a company of 3rd Regiment Native Infantry, whose fire effectually kept down that of the garrison. I drew off at 4 A.M. leaving two companies of the 3rd Native Infantry in the village, aided by a party of the Gipsies of Guides.

Finding that the western face of the town commanded the gate of the fort, I caused two embrasures to be made through the wall, and at 10 A.M. opened a most destructive fire on the gate and its defences, from three nines, one being placed in the gateway of the village, the 24-pound and 12-pound howitzers being in battery more to the southward, throwing in line of shells, the practice, as in the morning, most effective. I drew off at sunset, leaving two companies of H. M.'s 61st Regiment, and a company of 3rd Native Infantry, in the village.

I have now the pleasure to state that a little after midnight the fort was evacuated, and the gateway taken possession of by a party of the Gipsies of Guides, and held by them until I went there this morning early.

The fort, though small, is of great strength, having a double fausse-braie, with a wide and deep ditch, the whole in excellent repair; for it has lately been carefully strengthened.

I enclose a casualty roll, and am proud to say that it could scarcely have been less; indeed, it is wonderfully small, for the enemy was both bold and vigilant. The one death was caused by one of our own 9-pounder shot passing clear over the fort, and striking a sowar in the 2nd Irregular Cavalry; Captain Jackson, in his zeal, having taken up too close a position.

What the loss of the enemy may have been I have no means of judging, but they were burning their killed during the whole day.

Nothing could be finer than the practice of the artillery; and Major Swinley, commanding that arm, Captain Sissmore, commanding four guns of No. 15 Light Field Battery, and Captain Burnett, commanding No. 19 Light Field Battery, and all the officers and men, greatly distinguished themselves.

The troops, European and Native, were eager for a storm, but I was as determined to avoid one, except as a last resort, and it was fortunate, as it would not, if taken at all by assault, which I doubt, have been done without a great sacrifice of life.

I have had the most cordial and valuable assistance from Major H. Palmer, Major of Brigade, Lieutenant J. S. Paton, Deputy Assistant Quartermaster-General, and Captain Davidson, 16th Irregular Cavalry, who volunteered his services as my Aide-de-Camp; and I cannot allow the mention of Lieutenant Paton's name without acknowledging the obligations which I owe to him for the extraordinary efficiency to which he has brought the Intelligence department, as well for its extent as its wonderful correctness; more especially when the very limited means at his disposal are considered.

Lieutenant W. S. Hodson, with his detachment of the Corps of Guides, has done most excellent service, and by his daring boldness, and that of his men, gained the admiration of all.

It affords me the greatest gratification to forward, for your Lordship's information, a copy of despatch of the 23rd instant, addressed to the Adjutant-General of the Army, by Brigadier-General H. M. Wheeler, C.B. commanding the Muzaffargarh Division, reporting the reduction of Mulla-walla.

I have directed the Adjutant-General to convey Brigadier-General Wheeler my hearty congratulations and thanks for the important services he, and the brave troops under his command, have rendered on this occasion.

Brigadier-General H. M. Wheeler, C.B., commanding Jullundur Field Force, to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp, Kullalwalla, November 23, 1848.

In continuation of my letter* of yesterday's date, I have much satisfaction in reporting for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that the strong fort of Kullalwalla is in my possession.

A close reconnoissance having been made after the action of the morning by Captain Oldfield of the Engineers, accompanied by Lieutenant-Colonel A. Wilson, of the Artillery, I decided on the positions for three batteries.

One of eight 9-pounders was in a garden, the mud wall of which furnished excellent cover, and through which embrasures were cut. It was about 160 yards from the gate, on which it fired.

One of two 24-pounders and one 12-pounder howitzer, about 450 yards from the fort; and one of five 6-pounders at nearly 300 yards.

The guns were moved into position well covered with Cavalry and Infantry, the latter lining the garden wall, and keeping down the enemy's fire, and occupying every vantage ground, at a little before 4 P.M., and poured shot and shell with admirable effect on the gateway and into the works. I drew off to my camp at sunset, throwing a strong detachment of the 3rd Regiment Native Infantry into the village, under Captain Wallace, and occupying a position which watched and commanded the gateway.

The village had been held by a large body of the enemy, from which they were dislodged by the detachment of the corps of Guides in good style, killing several. I had closely invested the whole, both fort and village, with my Cavalry, and the investment continued through the night.

* Not received.

The only drawbacks were the darkness of the night, and the close proximity to the fort of large tracts of sugar-cane cultivation.

About 1 a.m. to-day the enemy attempted to abandon the fort, and succeeded, after losing several men by the fire of the detachment under Captain Wallace, losing many more by the Cavalry through which they had to pass; and I believe that I am under the number in stating that at least 300 of the enemy have been killed. Of the wounded, excepting a very few who have been taken to our hospitals, I can give no idea.

I am proud to say, that this success has been achieved with the loss of but one man killed, and five wounded.

Captain Oldfield of the Engineers, has been most active, intelligent, and useful. I have already mentioned Major Swinley; he and Captains Sissore and Burnett, each commanding batteries, and all of that arm, gave me great satisfaction, and indeed have the officers and men of every branch.

I also brought to the favourable notice of Lord Dufferin the officers acting as my Staff in the operations of the morning, and have great pleasure in stating that their services were as zealous and effective as in those of the evening.

I have the honour to enclose a return* of casualties.

General Lord Gough, G.C.B., Commander-in-Chief, to the Governor-General of India.

Ramnuggur, November 23, 1848.

Deeming it necessary to drive the rebel force this side the river across, and to capture any guns they might have had on the left bank; I directed Brigadier-General Campbell, with an infantry brigade of the troops under his command accompanied by the cavalry division, and three troops of horse artillery, under Brigadier-General Cureton, to proceed, during the night of the 21st from Saharun, four miles in front of my camp at Nonwulla, to effect this object. I joined the Brigadier at three in the morning to witness the operation.

I hope to be able to enclose Brigadier-General Campbell's report, with a return of the killed and wounded, which I regret to say is much greater than I could have anticipated, in a great measure from the officers leading being unacquainted with the difficult nature of the ground in the vicinity of the river, and of which no native information ever gives you a just knowledge, and in some measure to the impetuosity of the artillery and cavalry, who, notwithstanding these difficulties, charged to the bank of the river, thereby exposing themselves to the fire of about twenty-eight guns. I deeply regret to say a gun was left behind, but spiked, having actually, in the impetuosity of the advance, plunged down a bank close under the fire of the enemy's guns. It was reported to me it would occasion a fearful loss of life to bring it away, which alone could be effected by manual labour, and scarping the banks under the fire of even the matchlockmen on the opposite bank: I could not, therefore, consent to such a sacrifice. Though blameable as it may appear to have taken the guns into such close proximity to the enemy's guns in position, which could not, from the river intervening, be captured, it is impossible not to admire the daring gallantry exhibited by the troops both of cavalry and artillery.

I witnessed with intense anxiety, but equally intense admiration, a charge made by Lieutenant-

Colonel Havelock at the head of the 14th Light Dragoons, who I fear misconceived the orders he received from the officer commanding the cavalry division; or, from the inequalities of the ground, and the fearful dust occasioned by such a rapid movement, mistook the body he was instructed to charge, and moved upon and overwhelmed another much closer to the river, which exposed him to a cross fire from the enemy's guns. I never witnessed so brilliant a charge, but I regret to say the loss was considerable, were it only in that of Brigadier-General Cureton, than whom a better or a braver soldier never fell in his country's service. The brave leader of the 14th, Lieutenant-Colonel Havelock, is missing; he charged into a gale of the enemy, and has not since been seen, regretted by every soldier who witnessed his noble daring.

The enemy suffered severely; numbers were precipitated into the river, and drowned, and a standard was captured.

The Goorchurras were more daring than I have before seen them, but the brilliant charges both of the 3rd and 14th Light Dragoons will have taught them a lesson they will not readily forget. This was a cavalry affair alone; the infantry never was, nor could have been brought into play without an unnecessary exposure of life; but the cavalry and artillery, engaged under Brigadier-General Campbell, whose judicious arrangements were most creditable to him, nobly supported the well-earned fame of the Indian army, and is but a prelude to, I have no doubt, the honourable fulfilment of what their country expects of them.

Brigadier White conducted the movements of the force, of which the 3rd formed a part, and as usual acted with gallantry and judgment; and Lieutenant-Colonel Grant commanded the artillery arm with much credit. I regret to say that gallant old soldier, Lieutenant-Colonel Alexander, has lost an arm, but I am thankful that all are doing well.

Lord Gough to the Governor-General.

Camp before Ramnuggur, Nov. 27, 1848.

In continuation of my letter to your lordship of the 23rd instant, I now do myself the honour to forward the report of Brigadier-General C. Campbell, C. B. commanding the troops on the morning of the 22nd instant, of the operations of that day.

I also beg to enclose a copy of a General Order, which I have caused to be issued to the Army of the Punjab on the occasion.

Brigadier-General C. Campbell, C.B., Commanding 4th Division, to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp near Ramnuggur, Nov. 24, 1848.

I have the honour to report to you, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, that, in obedience to his Lordship's instructions, the troops in advance under my orders moved, at 3 o'clock a.m., on the morning of the 22nd instant, from their encampment near to Saharun, with a view to attack a considerable portion of the enemy's regular troops, who were, with several guns, stated to be on this bank of the Chenab, in the vicinity of Ramnuggur. On reaching the high ground to the right of the town, it was ascertained that these troops, with their guns, had crossed to the encampment of the enemy on the opposite bank, where his whole force was in position ; at the same time, however, several small parties of the enemy were observed to be retiring from the town of Ramnug-

in the direction of the ford in front of the enemy's encampment, when Captain Warner and Lieutenant-Colonel Lane's troops of Horse Artillery were ordered by Brigadier Cureton, in command of that arm and of the cavalry of the army, to pursue these parties, and to open fire on them while crossing at the ford. These troops of Horse Artillery, in their eagerness to overtake the enemy, rushed forward through the deep and heavy sand which extends for a long distance on this side to the very margin of the river, and through which the guns could only be moved with great difficulty. Their fire inflicted considerable loss on the enemy while crossing.

In withdrawing from this position, which was effected under the fire of the whole of the enemy's artillery, amounting to 28 guns, posted on the high ground which immediately overhangs the river on the opposite bank, I regret to say that one gun and two ammunition-waggon belonging to Colonel Lane's troop, got so imbedded in the heavy sand behind a deep bank, that they could not be recovered.

The enemy, upon observing the difficulty in which this gun was placed, immediately crossed with great confidence the whole of his cavalry, in numbers between three and four thousand. They rushed to the banks of the river, and kept constantly under cover of the fire of their artillery on the opposite bank.

This cavalry was charged on separate occasions by H. M.'s 3rd and 14th Light Dragoons, and 5th and 8th Regiments of Light Cavalry. His Lordship the Commander-in-Chief was an eye-witness of the brilliant conduct of these several corps, and of the intrepid manner they were led by their officers. The enemy were overthrown upon every occasion, and fled for shelter to the river side, to be under the cover and protection of their artillery ; but I lament to say that these several defeats of the enemy's cavalry were not effected without loss.

Brigadier-General Cureton, commanding the cavalry of the army, was killed while leading a squadron of H. M.'s 14th Light Dragoons to the support of the 5th Light Cavalry. In this officer, who had the honour of enjoying his Lordship's entire confidence and warmest regard, the service has lost one of its most distinguished officers, and one who was beloved by the whole army.

I regret also to have to report that Lieutenant-Colonel Havelock, commanding H. M.'s 14th Light Dragoons, is reported to be missing. He was last seen charging the enemy at the head of his noble regiment, and has not since been heard of.

I am sorry to have further to report that Lieutenant-Colonel Alexander, commanding the 5th Regiment Light Cavalry, has been severely wounded, and lost his arm. Some other officers and men have also been wounded, whose names are mentioned in the enclosed return of casualties.

General Orders to the Army of the Punjaub.

*Camp, Ramnuggur,
November 27, 1848.*

The Commander-in-Chief has now received a report from Brigadier-General C. Campbell, C.B. detailing the particulars of the affair of the 22nd instant.

The Brigadier-General expresses his cordial approbation of the conduct of all the troops engaged on the occasion, and dwells in terms of high admiration on the brilliant charges of the enemy's Cavalry, in number between 3000 and 4000, of Her Majesty's 3rd and 14th Light Dragoons and the 5th and 8th Regiments of Light Cavalry. In one of those charges a handsome silk standard was captured, and the standard-bearer slain, by Trooper Aluf Khan (1st) 1st Troop, 5th Light Cavalry.

The claim of this brave young soldier to admission to the Order of Merit will be investigated by a duly constituted committee, which the Officer commanding the Cavalry Division will be so good as to cause to be assembled.

The Commander-in-Chief was himself an eyewitness of the brilliant conduct of these several corps, and of the intrepid manner in which they led by their officers. The enemy were signally overthrown on every occasion, and only saved utter annihilation by their flight to the cover of their guns on the opposite bank of the river.

At the death of Brigadier-General C. R. Cureton, C. B. commanding the Cavalry Division, and Lieutenant-Colonel W. Havelock, K.H. commanding the 14th Light Dragoons, and Captain J. Fitzgerald, of the same noble regiment, the British force has sustained a loss which the Commander-in-Chief is sure that the whole Army will unite in lamenting.

The officers and men wounded on this occasion are doing well, the Commander-in-Chief is happy to think; and though the very severe injuries sustained by Brevet Lieutenant-Colonel W. Alexander, commanding the 5th Light Cavalry; Brevet Captain J. S. G. Ryley of the same corps; Captain R. H. Gall and Lieutenant W. Mc Mahon, of the 14th Dragoons; Lieutenant J. G. Holmes, commanding the 12th Irregular Cavalry; and Captain G. N. Hardinge, extra Aide-de-Camp to the Commander-in-Chief, must for a long time render those gallant officers unfit for duty, his Excellency trusts that eventually they will be restored to the service, whose honour and character they have so nobly upheld.

Lord Gough to the Governor-General.

Flying Camp, Hillah, December 5, 1848.

I have pleased Almighty God to vouchsafe to the British arms the most successful issue to the various combinations rendered necessary for the purpose of effecting the passage of the Chenab, the defeat and dispersions of the Sikh force under the insurgent, Rajah Shere Singh, and the numerous Sikh Sirdars who had the temerity to defy and defiance the British power. This force, from all my information, amounted to from 30,000 to 40,000 men, with 28 guns, and were strongly entrenched on the right bank of the Chenab, at the principal ford, about two miles from the town of Ramnuggur.

My despatch of the 23rd November will have made your Lordship acquainted with the motives which induced me to penetrate thus far into the Punjaub, and the occurrences of the previous day, when the enemy was ejected from the left bank of the Chenab. My daily private communications will have placed your Lordship in possession of the difficulties I had to encounter in a country so little known, and in the passage of a river the fords of which were most strictly watched by a numerous and vigilant enemy, and presenting more difficulties than most rivers, whilst I was surrounded by a hostile peasantry.

Finding that to force the passage at the ford in my front must have been attended with considerable loss from the very strong entrenchments and well selected batteries which protected the passage, I instructed the Field Engineer, Major Tremenhare, in co-operation with the Quartermaster General's Department, to ascertain (under the difficulties before noticed) the practicability of the several fords reported to exist on both my flanks, while I had batteries erected, and made demonstrations so as to draw the attention of the enemy to the main ford in my front, and with the view, if my batteries could silence their guns, to act simultaneously with the force I proposed to detach under an officer of much experience in India, Major-General Sir Joseph Thackwell.

On the night of the 30th November this officer, in command of the following force, and more particularly detailed in the accompanying memorandum,

	Eur.	Native.	Total.
Three Troops Horse Artillery ...	3	0	3
Two Light Field Batteries	2	0	2
One Brigade of Cavalry	1	4	5
Three Ditto of Infantry	2	6	8

Two 13-pounders with elephant draft and detail artillery, pontoon train, with two companies sappers, moved up the river in light marching order, without tents, and with three days' provisions, upon a ford which I had every reason to consider very practicable, (and which I have since ascertained was so), but which the Major-General deemed so difficult and dangerous that he proceeded (as he was instructed, should such turn out to be the case) to Wuzeerabad, a town twenty-two miles up the river, where Lieutenant Nicholson, a most energetic assistant to the resident at Lahore, had secured sixteen boats, with the aid of which this force effected the passage, on the evening of the 1st, and morning of the 2nd instant.

Upon learning, by an Aide-de-Camp sent for the purpose, that the Major-General's force had crossed, and was in movement, I directed a heavy cannonade to commence upon the enemy's batteries and encampment at Ramnuggur, which was returned by only a few guns, which guarded effectually the ford, but were so buried that, although the practice of our artillery was admirable, under Major Mowatt and Captain Sir Richmond Shakespear, we could not, from the width of the river, silence them. This cannonade, however, inflicted very severe loss to the enemy in their camp and batteries, and forced him to fall back with his camp about two miles, which enabled me, without the loss of a man, to push my batteries and breastworks, on the night of the 2nd, to the bank of the river, the principal ford of which I then commanded. By this time I was enabled to detach another Brigade of Infantry under Brigadier Godby at daylight on the 3rd, which effected the passage with the aid of the pontoon train six miles up the river, and got into communication with Major-General Sir Joseph Thackwell.

The cannonade and demonstration to cross at Ramnuggur was kept up on the 2nd and 3rd, so as to fix a large portion of the enemy there to defend that point. Having communicated to Sir Joseph my views and intentions, and, although giving discretionary powers to attack any portion of the Sikh force sent to oppose him, I expressed a wish that when he covered the crossing of Brigadier Godby's Brigade, he should await their junction, except the enemy attempted to retreat; this induced him to halt within about three or four miles of the left of their position. About 2 o'clock on the 3rd, the principal part of the enemy's force, encouraged by the halt, moved to attack the detached column, when a smart cannonade on the part of the enemy took place; and an attempt to turn both Major-General Sir Joseph Thackwell's flanks by numerous bodies of cavalry was made. After about one hour's distant cannonade on the part of the Sikhs, the British artillery never returned a shot, the enemy took courage and advanced, when our artillery, commanded by that excellent officer Lieutenant-Colonel C. Grant, poured in upon them a most destructive fire, which soon silenced all their guns, and frustrated all their operations, with very severe loss upon their side; but the exhausted state both of man and horse induced the Major-General to postpone the attack, upon their flank and rear, as he was directed, until the following morning, the day having nearly closed when the cannonade ceased.

I regret to say that during the night of the 3rd the whole of the Sikh Force precipitately fled, concealing or carrying with them their artillery and exploding their magazines. I immediately pushed across the river the 9th Lancers and 14th Light Dragoons in pursuit, under the most energetic officer Major-General Sir Walter Gilbert. The Sikhs, it appears, retreated in the greatest disorder, leaving in the villages numerous wounded men. They have subdivided into three divisions, which have become more a flight than a retreat, and I understand a great portion of those not belonging to the revolted Khalsa army have dispersed and returned to their homes, thus, I trust, effectually frustrating the views of the rebel Shere Sing, and his rebel associates.

I have not received Major-General Sir Joseph Thackwell's report, nor the Returns of his loss; but I am most thankful to say that our whole loss subsequent to the 22nd November does not much exceed forty men. No officers have been killed, and but three wounded. Captain Austen, of the Artillery, only appears severely so.

I have to congratulate your Lordship upon events so fraught with importance, and which will, I have no doubt, with God's blessing, tend to most momentous results. It is as I anticipated, most gratifying to me to assure your Lordship that the noble army under my command has, in these operations, upheld the well-established fame of the arms of India, both European and Native, each vying who should best perform his duty: every officer, from the General of Division to the youngest subaltern, well supported their Commander-in-Chief, and cheerfully carried out his views, which at a future period, and when we shall have effected the views of the Government, I shall feel proud in bringing to your Lordship's notice.

1st December, 1848, instead of at one o'clock as I had ordered, some of the troops having lost their way among the intricacies of the rear of the encampment, and proceeded to the vicinity of the ford on the Chenab, at Runnee Khan-ke-Putton, distant thirteen miles from Ramnuggur, which, owing to the broken ground, narrow roads where any existed, for the first four miles, I did not reach before eleven o'clock. The enemy had infantry at this ford, which report afterwards magnified to 4000 men, but the villagers said it was much deeper than the one at Allee Shere-ke Chuck, a mile higher up the river. I am much indebted to Lieutenant Paton, Deputy Assistant Quartermaster-General, for his anxious exertions in examining this ford, and from his report I came to the conclusion that this ford of Allee Shere-ke Chuck could not have Artillery on the left bank of the river, to cover the passage of the troops, from the insecure bottom of the first ford, neither could the pontoon train be of much use for the same reason, and the deep sands which lay between the fords. The pontoon train might have been laid over the main stream, under cover of a battery near the enemy's Infantry, but beyond the river the sands seemed wet and insecure, and a branch of the river beyond them was said to be deep, with a muddy bottom. Under all these disadvantages I came to the decision, that it was more advisable to try the passage of the river near Wuzeerabad, where Captain Nicholson, Assistant to the Resident at Lahore, informed me that at the ferry were seventeen boats, and a ford not more than 3 feet 10 inches deep, with a good bottom, than to run the risk of a severe loss by passing the river near the enemy. This survey of the ford occupied three hours, and at two o'clock I put the column in movement to the ford and ferry at Wuzeerabad, which was in the possession of Lieutenant Nicholson's Pathans, where the leading Infantry arrived about five o'clock in the afternoon, having made a march of about twenty-five miles. The 6th Brigade of Infantry and some of the guns were passed over the Chenab immediately, and I am indebted to Brigadier General Campbell, Lieutenant-Colonel Grant, H.A., and Captain Smith, of the Engineers, for their great exertions in forwarding this object. Brigadier Eckford I hoped would have crossed the river by the three fords that evening, but as it became too dark and hazy for such an operation, he halted for the night on the dry sands near the last branch of the river. Major Tait, 3rd Irregular Cavalry, was enabled to pass over three of his Rissalahs, in doing which I am sorry to say three sowars and one horse were drowned. On the morrow, the Infantry, Cavalry, and all the troops were soon over the river by ferry and ford, and all the baggage and Commissariat animals passed the same by 12 o'clock, without any further loss.

At 2 p.m., after the troops had dined, I marched in order of battle, three Brigade columns of Companies at half distance, left in front at deploying interval. The 1st Brigade of Cavalry in the same order on the right, with strong flanking parties and rear guard, and the 3rd Irregular Cavalry on the left, with orders to patrol to the river and clear the right bank, aided by Infantry if necessary: in this order I arrived at Doorawul at dusk, about 12 miles from the ferry, and halted for the night. On Sunday, December 3rd, at daylight, the troops proceeded in the same order towards the Sikh position, and I intended to have reconnoitred and commenced an attack upon it by 11 o'clock: hearing, however, when within about four miles of it or less, that reinforcements were expected to pass over the Chenab, at the ford near Ghurree-ke-

Puttun, it became necessary to secure that post, and which had been found without an enemy an hour before, but to which it now seemed that a body of about 600 hundred of the enemy were seen approaching, and I detached a wing of the 56th Native Infantry, and two Rissalahs of the 3rd Irregular Cavalry, under Major Tait, who secured the post, and frustrated the attempt of the enemy. This caused so much delay that enough of daylight would not be left for the advance and attack on the left and rear of the enemy's position. About 2 p.m. some of the enemy's guns opened on a patrol of the 5th Light Cavalry, and he was seen advancing in large bodies of Cavalry and Infantry; and the picquets, which occupied three villages with large plantations of sugarcane being too much in advance to be supported, fell back without any loss, and the enemy occupied these villages with Cavalry on the right, guns, and bodies of Infantry; and the main body of their Cavalry with Horse Artillery were on their left. When the enemy's guns opened, I ordered Brigadier-General Campbell to deploy the Infantry into line, in front of the village of Sadoolapoor; Brigadier Eckford and part of Brigadier Hoggan's brigade being extended, in order not to be outflanked. It was not until the enemy came well within range of our guns, that I caused them to open their fire, which they then did with great effect. The enemy tried to turn both our flanks, which having foreseen I had caused Captain Warner to move his troop of Artillery to the left of the Infantry, and had sent the 5th Light Cavalry to the left to support these guns, and to act in conjunction with the two Rissalahs of the 3rd Irregular Cavalry under Captain Biddulph who were posted on open ground, and these soon drove the enemy back. The attempt to turn our right was met by extending the 8th Light Cavalry and r Majesty's 3rd Light Dragoons, supported by jor Christie's troop of Artillery. As the Cary of the right advanced, the enemy's sowars e way, and they fell back on their Infantry, ing lost some men by the skirmishers of the Light Dragoons. After a cannonade of about hours the fire of the enemy slackened, and I t Lieutenant Paton to desire the Cavalry on right to charge, and take the enemy's guns if sible, intending to support them by moving the gades in echelon, from the right at intervals, ording to circumstances; but as no opportunity red for the Cavalry to charge, and so little of light remained, I deemed it safer to remain in position than attempt to drive back an enemy strongly posted on their right and centre, with prospect of having to attack their intrenched ition afterwards. From this position the Sikhs an to retire at about 12 o'clock at night, as was rwards ascertained, and as was conjectured by barking of dogs in their rear. I have every son to believe that Shere Sing attacked with nty guns; and nearly the whole of the Sikh y were employed against my position, which by no means what I could have wished; but fire of our artillery was so effective that he did dare to bring his masses to the front; and my ve, steady, and ardent Infantry, whom I had sed to lie down to avoid the heavy fire, had no nce of firing a shot, except a few Companies the left of the line. The enemy's loss has n severe; ours, comparatively very small. I ret not being able to capture the enemy's guns, with the small force of Cavalry, two regi-ts on the right only, it would have been a ter of difficulty for tired Cavalry to overtake se Artillery, fresh and well mounted. In e operations the conduct of all has merited my most praise; and the patient endurance of the Artillery, Cavalry, European Infantry, and Sepoys, under privations of no ordinary nature, has been most praiseworthy.

To Brigadier-General Campbell I am much indebted for his able assistance during these movements ; and to Lieutenant-Colonel Grant, commanding the Artillery, Major Christie, Captains Huish, Warner, Austin, and Kinleside, and the officers and men under their command, I cannot bestow too much praise for their skill and gallantry in overcoming the fire of a numerous artillery, some of which were of heavy calibre. I am also greatly indebted to Captain Smith, of the Engineers, for his exertions in passing over guns at the Wuzeerabad ferry, and for his assistance in conveying my orders on various occasions. And my thanks are due to Lieutenants Yule and Crommelin, of the same corps ; and to Lieutenant Bacon, of the Sappers ; to Lieutenant Paton, deputy assistant-quartermaster-general, my best thanks are due for his exertions and assistance in the advance of the troops and during the action ; and to Captain Nicholson, assistant to the Resident at Lahore, I beg to offer my best thanks for his endeavours to procure intelligence of the enemy's movements, for his endeavours to procure supplies for the troops, and for his able assistance on all occasions. Captain Pratt, my Deputy assistant-adjutant-general ; Lieutenant Tucker, deputy assistant-quartermaster-general ; Lieutenant Thackwell, aide-de-camp ; and Volunteer Mr. John Angelo, my extra aide-de-camp, have been most zealous in performing their respective duties, and have rendered me every assistance ; and I feel assured that if the cavalry and infantry had been brought into close action, I should have had the great satisfaction of thanking brigadiers, commanding officers of corps, and the officers and men, for their gallantry and le bearing in action, as I now do for their readiness and good conduct. To Major Main-ing, Captains Gerrard, Simpson, Faddy, and nes, I am much indebted for their exertions in r respective departments.

I beg further to state that, on the morning of 4th, I put the troops in motion to pursue the my, who had retreated during the preceding ht and encamped about 11 miles from the Che-
, on the road to Jullalpoor, the 9th Lancers ing been pushed to the front, but without ing anything of the enemy, who had retreated the Jelum, Jullalpoor, and Pind Dadun Khan ds; and on the following day I arrived at this ce, and sent two regiments of cavalry on the d to Dingee, one of them the 14th Light Dra-ns; and two regiments of cavalry, and a troop horse artillery, on the road to Jullalpoor: the er party observed two bodies of the enemy of ut 800 and 400 men each, imagined to be a ng rear guard, about 8 miles from this, and ind a thick jungle which reaches to the river;
the former went to Dingee, which place the my had left, and the villagers said had gone r the Jelum. Both parties returned to this p, without, I am sorry to say, having overtaken of the enemy's troops or guns. I beg leave nclose a return of the killed and wounded.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled “An Act for the regulation of the Duties of Postage,” power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage, or Inland postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post of Foreign or Colonial letters, or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to the rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such warrant, and from time to time by warrant, as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and to make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid. And it is provided, that the power thereby given should extend to any increase or reduction, or remission, of postage.

And whereas by a warrant, under the hands of some of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, dated the 22nd day of December, 1848, the said Commissioners did order and direct, that all letters transmitted by the post between the United States and any part of the United Kingdom, or between the United States and any of Her Majesty's Colonies, or any Foreign country through the United Kingdom, (the sea conveyance of all such letters between the United Kingdom and the United States being by the United States' packet-boats,) should, instead of being liable to the rates of British postage then chargeable thereon, be free from all British postage, for the conveyance between the United States and any part of the United Kingdom. And in the said warrant, certain further directions were contained, relative to the conveyance of letters between the United States and the United Kingdom and other places. And the said Commissioners directed, that the said warrant should come into operation on the 29th day of December, 1848.

And whereas, in consequence of a convention entered into between Her Majesty and the Government of the United States, it is considered expedient that the said warrant of the 22nd day of December, 1848, should be repealed, and that such regulations should be made respecting the conveyance of letters between the United Kingdom and the United States, and other places as are hereinafter contained.

Now we, the undersigned, being three of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, in exercise of a power for this purpose, reserved to us in and by the said warrant of the 22nd day of December, 1848, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, by this warrant under our hands, repeal, annul, and make void, the said warrant of the 22nd day of December, 1848, and all the rates thereby fixed or altered, and the regulations therein contained.

And we, the said Commissioners, do, in exercise of the power reserved to us, in and by the said Act, and in and by the said warrant, and of all other powers and authorities, enabling us in this behalf order and direct,—

That on every letter, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by British packet-boats between a port in the United Kingdom and a port in the United States, or between a port in the United Kingdom and a port in British North America, there shall be charged and taken for the sea conveyance thereof, in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such respective letters, an uniform British packet-rate of eightpence.

And that on every letter, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted at the port of departure of the packet conveying the same, or at any other part of the United Kingdom, and transmitted to the United States, or transmitted from the United et conveying the same, or to any other part of United Kingdom, (whether conveyed by ish or United States packet-boats,) and on y letter, not exceeding half an ounce in ht, transmitted direct between the port in the ed Kingdom of the arrival or departure of packet conveying the same, or any other part ne United Kingdom, and any port in British th America, (the sea conveyance being by ish packet-boats,) there shall be charged and n for the conveyance of every such letter in the United Kingdom, in lieu of any rates British postage now payable by law on such ective letters, an inland rate of British postof one-penny-halfpenny, in addition to the esaid British packet-rate of eightpence, on let-transmitted by British packet-boats between the ed Kingdom and the United States, and in tion to any Foreign rate of postage charged, chargeable, on letters transmitted by the United es packet-boats, between the United Kingdom the United States.

nd that on every letter not exceeding half an ce in weight, posted in or addressed to the ed States, transmitted by the post between United States and any of Her Majesty's Colo-, or any Foreign country, through the United gdom, (conveyed by British packet-boats reen the United Kingdom and the United es,) there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of rates of British postage now payable by law uch letters, an uniform British packet rate of tpence for the sea conveyance of every such r between the United States and the United gdom; and on every such letter, whether cond by British or by United States packets, between the United Kingdom and the ed States, there shall be charged and taken, over and above any British or Foreign packet rate of postage, such a further or additional rate of British postage for the conveyance of every such letter between the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet conveying the same between the United Kingdom and the United States, and the Colony or Foreign country to or from which the same shall be forwarded, as shall from time to time be charged and payable for British postage on letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted or delivered at the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet conveying the same between the United Kingdom and the United States, and transmitted between such port and such Colony or Foreign country.

And we direct that on every letter transmitted as is mentioned in this warrant, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, progressive and additional rates of postage, as follows (that is to say):—

On every letter exceeding half an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage.

And on every letter exceeding three ounces, and not exceeding four ounces in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces, there shall be charged and taken two additional rates of postage; and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces shall be charged as one additional ounce. And each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this warrant if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

And we further direct that no British rate of stage shall be charged or chargeable for or in respect of the sea conveyance of any letters between the United Kingdom and the United States by the United States packet-boats.

And we further direct that on every printed British newspaper posted in the United Kingdom and transmitted to the United States either by British or United States packet-boats, there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of British postage of one penny.

And we further direct that on every printed foreign newspaper posted in or addressed to the United States, and transmitted between the United States and any of Her Majesty's Colonies, or any foreign country, through the United Kingdom, and on every printed Colonial newspaper transmitted between any of Her Majesty's Colonies and the United States through the United Kingdom, such respective newspapers being conveyed between the United Kingdom and the United States (by British or United States packet-boats,) there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of British postage of one penny, except in any case in which a lower rate of postage is or shall be provided by any treaty between the United Kingdom and any Foreign country or State.

And we further direct that every printed supplement or additional sheet to any newspaper shall for the purpose of charging the postage under this warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless it is in the same cover, or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

And we further direct that nothing herein contained shall extend to any letters or newspapers passing through the United Kingdom to or from France, or to or from any of Her Majesty's Colonies, or any Foreign country through France, in respect of which certain rates of postage are already fixed by a Treasury warrant bearing date the 9th day of May, 1843.

And we further direct that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to repeal or alter the uniform Colonial rate of twopence, and progressive and additional Colonial rates fixed by a Treasury warrant, bearing date the 11th day of October, 1843, on certain letters transmitted by the post between places in the United Kingdom and places in British North America, or the British West Indies, which rates shall continue chargeable and payable (in addition to the British rates hereby fixed) as if this warrant had not been signed.

And we further direct that printed periodical publications (not of daily publication and not being newspapers) published and posted in the United Kingdom, may be sent by the post from any part of the United Kingdom to the United States; and printed periodical publications (not of daily publication and not being newspapers) published and posted in the United States may be sent by the post from the United States to any part of the United Kingdom, (the conveyance between the United Kingdom and the United States being by British or United States packet-boats,) according to the regulations and rates hereinafter mentioned, (that is to say);—

LIGHT HOUSE ON CAPE OTWAY.

Colonial Secretary's Office, Sydney.
October 20, 1848.

HIS Excellency the Governor directs the publication, for general information, of the subjoined memorandum respecting the Light-house which has recently been erected on Cape Otway, in Bass's Straits.

His Excellency further directs it to be notified, that at the expiration of one calendar month from the 20th day of October 1848, the dues towards the maintenance of the said Light-house will become payable at the several ports in New South Wales, as provided for by the Act of the Governor and Legislative Council, passed in the eleventh year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the payment of dues towards the maintenance of Light-houses at Gabo Island and Cape Otway respectively."

By His Excellency's Command,
E. Deas Thomson.

The Light-house on Cape Otway, Bass's Straits, latitude 38 degrees 51 minutes south, longitude 143 degrees 29 minutes east, having been completed and lighted on the 29th August 1848, a light is burning, and will continue from sunset until sunrise.

The reef off Cape Otway is one-half to three quarters of a mile distant, bearing south-east to south south-west, and extends $1\frac{1}{4}$ miles westward.

The Light-house is erected on a cliff 251 feet 6 inches above highwater mark ; the supporting column is 45 feet high, and the lantern 7 feet high.

From highwater mark to the centre of the light is 300 feet.

The light is a revolving catoptric of three groups of lamps, each group containing 7 lamps; the entire revolves round once in 2 minutes 39 seconds, shewing a flash of light of 3 seconds duration, and 50 seconds of darkness.

It is estimated that the light will be seen 8 leagues.

FROM THE
LONDON GAZETTE of MARCH 23, 1849.

India Board, March 21, 1849.

THE following Dispatches, relating to military operations in the Punjaub, have been received at the East India House :

the Adjutant-General of the Army to the Secretary with the Governor-General.

Camp, Chillianwalla, January 23, 1849.

I have the honour, by direction of His Excellency the Right Honourable the Commander-in-Chief, to transmit for the information of the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India a copy of a despatch of the 7th instant, from Major-General W. S. Whish, C.B. commanding the Mooltan field force, and of the detailed reports which accompanied it, of the assault upon that city on the 2nd instant; and I am to add, that his Excellency has instructed me to communicate to the Major-General his cordial approval of the arrangements ordered for the attack, which appears to have been made with a spirit and gallantry highly creditable to the officers and troops of every regiment employed.

Major-General W. S. Whish, C.B. commanding Mooltan Field Force, to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp, Mooltan, January 7, 1849.

Having now received the report of the Bombay Column, during the assault of the city, on the 2nd instant, I have the honour of forwarding that received from Brigadier Markham on the 3rd instant, and associating with it the letter of this date received from Brigadier the Honourable H. Andas, C.B. commanding the Bombay division of the field force, both of which I shall be obliged to your submitting to the Right Honourable the Commander-in-Chief.

The steady advance of both columns under their respective commanders, Brigadier Stalker, C.B.

and Brigadier Markham (which, as regarded that under the latter, was but temporarily checked from the necessity of entering the city by the left breach) ensured the early realization of what each had been directed to aim at, and by sunset the city was in complete possession of our gallant troops, whose conduct throughout was remarkable for humanity to the unarmed inhabitants they occasionally met, and not less so for the severity with which the opposition of the enemy was overcome from street to street, many of which were narrow and intricate, and several barricaded.

In the letters accompanying, the gallantry and good services of various officers are particularized, and, on the fall of the citadel, it will be my pleasing duty to take up that strain regarding many. It will, however, be better timed now to mention the spirited proposition on the 1st instant of Lieutenant-Colonel Franks, C.B. to escalate the citadel during the assault of the city, provided I placed 500 of each regiment of the 1st brigade under his command. After due consideration of this suggestion, I deemed it most eligible to forego it, as I had not time to examine into the difficulties that might have attended it; nor would the hour fixed for the assault have been auspicious, unless I had deferred it till dawn of the 3rd.

Brigadier Stalker has brought to Brigadier Dundas's notice the conduct of Colour-Serjeant J. Bennett, 1st Fusiliers, on the 2nd instant, and I cannot forbear my testimony to the joyful feelings which it excited in myself, and officers of the staff around me, when noticing his planting the British standard in the crest of the breach, and maintaining it there, in the midst of the musketry fire of the enemy, until the troops had passed.

The troops of the Bombay column suffered much from an explosion, during the night, of a magazine in the city.

I beg to enclose casualty lists of which the total each column is as follows:—

Bengal Division—3 European rank and file, and 1 native rank and file, killed; 3 European officers, 1 serjeant, 17 rank and file, and 6 native rank and file, wounded.

Bombay Division—4 European rank and file, and 22 native rank and file, killed; 8 European officers, 4 serjeants, 51 rank and file, and 2 native officers, 5 havildars, 121 rank and file, wounded; 1 native rank and file missing.

Total—7 European rank and file, and 23 native rank and file, killed; 11 European officers, 5 serjeants, 78 European rank and file, and 2 native officers, 5 havildars, and 127 native rank and file, wounded; 1 native rank and file missing.

Grand Total—Killed 30, wounded 218, missing 1. Total 249.

Brigadier F. Markham, Commanding 2nd Brigade of Infantry, Mooltan Field Force, to Major General W. S. Whish, C.B., Commanding the Mooltan Field Force.

Camp, Mooltan, January 3, 1849.

I have the honour to report, for your information, that, according to division orders, at one o'clock on the 2nd, I proceeded with the brigade under my command to the Munde Awa, the point of rendezvous with the left column. At two o'clock we received orders to move to the Delhi gate, from whence the assault was to be made. At a quarter past three o'clock, a salvo being fired from the Delhi gate battery (the signal agreed upon for the assault), the leading companies of Her Majesty's 32nd regiment under Captain Smyth, commanding the grenadier company, moved on to storm the breach. Upon passing the broken ground and ruined out-works of the gate under a heavy fire of match-locks, they descended a deep hollow, and found, to their surprise, the city wall in front, about 30 feet in height, unbreached, and totally impracticable, being fairly concealed from view, from the nature of the ground, until directly upon it.

Captain Smyth immediately, and with great judgment and promptitude, decided upon retiring, and rejoined the column, with the loss of several men, which loss, however, would have been very seriously increased, both to the leading companies and the column, had there been any hesitation on his part.

I proceeded at once to the breach at the Khoonee Boorj, which I found had already been entered by the left column, and made our way down the ramparts and streets on our right to the Delhi gate, and from thence to that part of the city close the Dowlut gate, and directly in front of the fort.

The enemy offered considerable opposition in the narrow streets, and on the ramparts, which were strongly barricaded; but the troops carried all before them, and before dark, that part of the city was in our possession, and we connected our posts with those thrown out from the left column.

To Colonel Brooke, Major Lloyd, and Captain Lloyd, in command of regiments, and to all under my command, both officers and men, I have to return my thanks for their steadiness, and prompt obedience throughout to my orders.

To Major Napier, of the engineers, who accompanied me, I am deeply indebted for the very valuable services he rendered me throughout the afternoon.

Return of Casualties, &c. in 2nd Infantry Brigade (Bengal division), on the 2nd January, 1849.

Camp, Mooltan, January 3, 1849.

Her Majesty's 32nd Regiment—3 rank and file, killed; 2 European officers, 1 serjeant, 1 drummer, 16 rank and file wounded.

9th Native Infantry—1 rank and file, wounded.

2nd Native Infantry—1 rank and file, killed; 5 rank and file wounded.

Captains J. D. Smyth and C. T. King, Her Majesty's 32nd Regiment, wounded.

Brevet-Major H. B. Edwardes, C.B., to Major-General W. S. Whish, C.B., Commanding Mooltan Field Force.

Beegee Bagh, January 3, 1849.

I have the honour to report that, in conformity with your instructions to create a diversion on the south and west of the city, preparatory to the storm of the breaches by the regular force, Lieutenant Lake threw out a large skirmishing party directly in his front, and close up to the Pak-gate, General Cortlandt another on the left of the Daoodpootras, and I a third on the left of General Cortlandt's, thus opening a smart fire nearly down to the Bohur-gate, and securing the attention of a large portion of the enemy's soldiers on the walls. In front of the village of Darra, I also moved out a large body of cavalry, and a troop of horse artillery, while the remainder and main body of the infantry were in reserve at the Beegee Bagh, and See-dee-loll-ke-Bed.

2. At about half-past one P.M. the Daoodpootras, under direction of Lieutenant Lake, and my own and General Cortlandt's, under direction of Lieutenant Young, of the Engineers, Mr. Hugo James, and Mr. Quin, opened their fire from the most advanced suburbs, and drew a smart return from the ramparts, and the gun on the Mootee bastion. This was kept up until the advance of the British to the breach, and was, I trust, of service in distracting the enemy's attention.

3. When the city was completely in your possession, Lieut. Lake and I withdrew our men to their respective posts ; but subsequently, on being applied to by Major Scott, of the Bombay Engineers, Lieutenant Lake occupied the Pak-gate with Daoodpootras, and a small party from the company of the 3rd Bombay Native Infantry, which was on duty at See-dee-loll. The vigilance of this detachment of Daoodpootras, while in charge of the gate, I was myself a witness to, at night, when I visited the post with Lieutenant Lake, and it did a great credit to irregular troops.

4. After withdrawing our skirmishers, I ordered the cavalry from Darra to make a patrol to the westward, and they succeeded in intercepting a party of the enemy's infantry, who had escaped from the city, twenty of whom they killed, when the rest surrendered, and were disarmed.

5. I cannot conclude this report without bringing to your notice the zeal of Lieutenant Pollock, assistant resident, and Mr. Mc Mahon, a volunteer; the former joined his corps, hearing it was in the storming party at the Delhi-gate breach, and the latter volunteered to accompany Captain Smyth, who led the right assault.

Brigadier the Hon. H. Dundas, C.B., Her Majesty's 60th Rifles, commanding Bombay Column Mooltan Field Force, to Brevet Captain G. P. Whish, Assistant Adjutant General, Bengal Column.

Camp, Mooltan, January 7, 1849.

I have the honour to forward the report of Brigadier Stalker, C. B. commanding the 2nd Brigade Bombay division, which was engaged in storming the city of Mooltan on the afternoon of the 2nd instant.

The brigade, formed in three columns, as directed in the instructions from the Assistant Adjutant General, assembled in rear of the Munlee Awa, and, about 3 P.M. moved down to storm the left trench at the angle of the Khoonee Boorj.

The storming party, headed by Captain Leith of the 1st Bombay Fusiliers, speedily mounted the breach, but, on arriving at the summit, found some difficulty in descending, the enemy having retrenched the breach, and dug deep ditches, into which several of the leading men and officers fell. The obstacles to the advance of the party having been overcome, the column, having succeeded in passing the trench, pushed on to the ramparts and streets of the town through a very narrow passage, by the aid of some scaling ladders placed against a house by a party of Bengal sappers; under Lieutenant Oliphant. I regret to state that, soon after mounting the breach, Captain Leith was severely wounded, and Lieutenant Gray, taking command of a party, moved to the right towards the Delhi Gate, to clear away obstacles between the breach and that point at which it was intended the Bengal column should enter.

Major Mignan, with the 1st column, moved to the left, clearing the ramparts, while the columns under Major Mant and Major Honner, pushing for the centre of the town, established themselves in the grain market.

The narrowness of the streets rendering the preservation of regular formation impossible, the enemy was followed up by the troops in the best mode in which they could move, and without giving him time to halt, until the town was completely carried, and the several columns established; the left having succeeded in reaching the Lahore gate.

Brigadier Stalker speaks most highly of the conduct of the troops, and nothing can be more honourable to their character than the humanity and kind treatment shewn by them towards the unoffending inhabitants.

I have great pleasure in bringing to the notice of the Major-General the conduct of Major Mignan, commanding 1st Fusiliers; Major Mant, commanding 19th Regiment; and Brevet-Major Honner, commanding the 4th N. I. (Rifles). Brigadier Stalker also reports most favourably of the conduct of Major Hobson, 1st Fusiliers, and of the assistance he received from Captain Tapp, Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General, who was unfortunately wounded in capturing a gun; Captain Hart, Major of Brigade, Lieutenant Pollexfen, Deputy Assistant Quartermaster-General, Lieutenant Henry, of the 19th Regiment L. Postmaster to the Division. To the commanding engineer, Major Scott, every praise is due for his untiring exertions during the operation; as well as to the several officers of that corps employed with the Bombay Division. The conduct of Captain Leith, Lieutenants Dansey, Daly, and Mules is particularly noticed by Brigadier Stalker. I am sorry to add that Lieutenant Henry was severely wounded after entering the breach, and lost his right arm. Lieutenants Dansey, Herne and Law are also among the wounded, also Lieutenant Warden, of the 4th Rifles, and Ensign Gordon, of the 19th Regiment N. I. Several acts of gallantry have been brought to my notice, particularly on the part of Colour Sergeant Bennett, of the 1st Fusiliers, which I will take an opportunity of reporting to the War Office.

The suburbs between the Delhi gate and the breach were occupied by pickets from the brigade, under Major Dennis, 60th Rifles—a company of the 60th Rifles, under Captain Douglas, being stationed in the houses opposite the breach, in the "Khoonee Boorj," to cover the advance of the storming party, and two companies, under Captains Young and Sibthorpe, to cover the advance of the Bengal column.

Returns of casualties are herewith inclosed.

Brigadier F. Stalker, C.B., commanding 2nd Infantry Brigade, Bombay Column, to the Assistant Adjutant-General, Bombay Column, Mooltan Field Force.

Camp before Mooltan, January 7, 1849.

I do myself the honour to report, for the information of Brigadier the Honourable H. Dundas, C.B. commanding the Bombay column, Mooltan field force, that on the afternoon of the 2nd of January, the brigade under my command was formed in the order laid down for them under cover, within about two hundred yards of the breach, the approach to which was fully exposed to a fire from musketry and zumbooruka.

The column gained the top of the breach at about $\frac{1}{2}$ past 3 P.M. with much regularity, under a very galling fire, but, when they reached the summit, found themselves in a sort of enclosure, from which there was only one regular exit, by a narrow lane on the right, and over a low house into the "Khoonee Boorj."

The enemy had excavated a trench parallel to the breach, which contracted the space still more; the nature of the ground, therefore, rendered it utterly impossible to preserve any regular formation; and the officers pushed on with the men nearest them, to carry out, as far as possible, the instructions to advance in three columns. The column was detained nearly twenty minutes by the obstacles at the top of the breach. The leading column of three companies of the Fusiliers, having lost their commander, Captain Leith, who was dangerously wounded soon after crossing the breach, pushed down the lane to the right, under Lieutenant Gray, and was in part the cause of the enemy abandoning the "Khoonee Boorj." It fortunately happened that two short ladders were procured and placed by Bengal Sappers, under Lieutenant Oliphant, against the house on the left, just as the enemy found their communication with the town threatened; they were therefore obliged to defend both the lane and the tower, and their resistance was consequently less energetic. As soon as the ladders were placed, the column which had to advance by the ramparts to the south, pushed its way along for some distance, but for-

ately followed the retreating enemy along one of the streets, which eventually led them to the south side of the town, near the Lahore Gate. A company being left at this point, the column turned along the streets nearest the ramparts to the Bohur Gate, where it remained during the night, as it was known that the Pak Gate was in the possession of the Bengal 72nd, and a company of the 60th Rifles was sent back to the Hurun Gate. During the night, one of the enemy's powder magazines, close to the gateway, blew up, burying several of the men in the ruins. It was impossible to guard against such an accident—indeed it is only surprising that it was the only one on the south side; for the enemy's ammunition was lying about in great quantities, and there was nothing to distinguish the powder magazines from the other houses. In the morning Lieutenants Pollard and Maxwell, with a company of Bengal sappers, removed a considerable quantity of powder from another magazine, close to a dwelling house, and threw it over the wall, where it exploded without doing any mischief.

The proceedings of the other column were similar: they all pushed quite through the town, leaving parties in advance posts, and retired to more open ground in the centre of the town.

When the left column, which was intended to clear the ramparts, and leave guards at the gates, struck into the town, an application was made to Colonel Dundas, who sent two companies of Her Majesty's 60th Rifles, to hold the gates.

The other columns had however exceeded their instructions; for a company of the 72nd Bengal Native Infantry had crossed the town and obtained possession of the Pak, and the road to the Hurun-gate, before the 60th Rifles arrived.

The Pak-gate was cleared during the night by a company of Bengal Sappers, the Hurun-gate by the Bombay Sappers, and the Bohur-gate was nearly opened, when the explosion took place, which rendered it impossible to go on. It was opened next morning by the Bengal Sappers.

It is quite impossible to say where the Engineer officers were : the troops were so scattered by the narrow lanes that there were no distinct columns. The only real guide was to follow the retreating enemy, which was done. Not only are the ramparts so incomplete as to render a passage round them by a column of men quite impracticable, but the parts which are complete were, at the time of the assault, crossed by traverses, and cut up by small trenches.

The night closed before the communication between the different bodies could be effected, but by morning the troops were in communication with each other.

It is to be regretted that we had not a couple of hours daylight, as we should then have probably avoided the explosion of the magazine, but the town was as completely cleared of the enemy by dark as it is at the present moment.

The steady and well-directed fire of Her Majesty's 60th Rifles kept down that of the enemy very considerably, while the troops were approaching the breach, and a discharge of grape thrown on the top of the breach by Lieutenant Keir, Bombay Artillery, just over the heads of the Fusiliers, as they advanced, was of the utmost advantage to us ; but when the top was gained, and our men became mingled with the enemy, the fate of the day depended on the steadiness and courage of the Fusiliers, and both men and officers answered nobly to the call.

Where all behaved so well, and the operations were on such an extended scale, it would be impossible for me to particularize each act of gallantry. I would therefore beg to refer the brigadier commanding the division to the report of officers commanding regiments and posts, and merely mention such as came under my notice.

The gallantry of the following officers was conspicuous : Captain Tapp, deputy assistant adjutant general, attached to my staff, who was wounded in capturing a gun on our first entering the town, whereby I was early deprived of his valuable assistance :

Captain Leith, 1st Fusiliers, commanding the storming party, who was very severely wounded ; and Lieutenants Daly and Mules, 1st Fusiliers. I would also bring to special notice the conduct of Colour Sergeant John Bennett, 1st Fusiliers, who volunteered to accompany the storming party, and rushing up the breach, planted the Union Jack on its crest—standing beside it until the whole brigade had passed. The colour and staff are riddled with balls.

I beg to mention the names of Major Mignan, commanding 1st Fusiliers ; Major Mant, commanding 19th Regiment Native Infantry ; Major Honner, commanding 4th Rifles ; and Major Hobson, 1st Fusiliers ; all of whom exerted themselves to the utmost, and were most successful in their different arrangements.

To Major Scott, Commanding Engineer, I am particularly indebted for his able assistance and untiring zeal, throughout the operations.

My best thanks are also due to the following engineer officers, for the zeal and activity they displayed in the different duties on which they were employed :

Captain Abercrombie and Lieutenant Taylor, and other officers of the Bengal Engineers, whose names I am unfortunately unable to give :

Lieutenants Kendall and Berthon, of the Bombay Sappers, and 2nd Lieutenants Playfair and Fuller of the same corps.

To the following officers, temporarily attached to my staff, my best thanks are due :

Lieutenant Pollexfen, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General :

Lieutenant Henry, Postmaster to the force.

I am much indebted to my Major of Brigade, Captain Hart, for the able and zealous assistance he afforded me in his arduous office throughout the operations.

I have the greatest pleasure in bearing testimony to the humanity and forbearance of the troops under my command. Not a single instance of wanton cruelty or ill-treatment of the peaceable inhabitants of the town has been brought to my notice.

Major-General W. S. Whish, C.B., Commanding Mooltan Field Force.

Camp, Mooltan, January 21st, 1849.

In my letter of the 19th inst. I mentioned having had another messenger from Dewan Moolraj, with a note requesting permission to send a confidential agent to me. In reply, I desired his unconditional surrender at 8 a.m. next day ; and when I received the answer from Major Edwardes to sign and send, I took occasion to notice emphatically to the messenger, that I should confine to the guard any men that brought any documents or message from the Dewan, who were not authorized to the above effect. Nothing transpired regarding it yesterday, and I issued the orders for making the assault at both breaches at daylight this morning. The counterscarp on the city side not having, however, been blown in, as was calculated upon, I postponed the attack until 6 a.m. to-morrow. However, at 11 a.m. to-day, just as Major Edwardes had called to speak on matters connected with our march hence, the vakeel who had waited on me on the 9th instant, Dia Bux, came under a guard from our picquets, with a letter from the Dewan to each of us, the purport of which was, that he required assurance of his life, and that the females of his family should not be disgraced. I said in reply that, regarding the former I had only authority to require the Dewan's unconditional submission to the justice of the British government, and that no stipulation was necessary regarding the latter, for women and children, as a matter of course, would not be molested. Dia Bux then said his master would certainly come in, and suggested 9 a.m. to-morrow for the time of his doing so ; but I could not agree to so late an hour. I told him the fire of all my batteries would continue until 5 o'clock to-morrow morning, and that the Dewan must, at latest, present himself and garrison at the Dowlut gate of the city at sunrise where arrangements would be ready to facilitate their surrender, and to afford protection to their families.

I will, in conclusion, venture my opinion, that the Dewan is now sincere in his desire to submit. His followers are leaving him in large numbers, and our cavalry took prisoners about 300, who stole from the citadel last night ; but, if it prove otherwise, I shall have nothing to regret in having attended to a third reference from him for the sake of humanity, and for the welfare of my troops ; and the only difference it will make in my arrangements will be that the assault on the citadel will commence an hour later, and be equally attended, under Providence, with, I trust, complete success.

Major-General Whish, C.B., to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp, Mooltan, January 23, 1849.

Although I have in due course taken leave to bring to the notice of the Right Honourable the Commander-in-Chief from time to time the services rendered by the allied troops under Major Stawards, C.B. Assistant Resident, as I am about to part with that officer, whose willing and valuable aid I have frequently experienced since our first encamping before Mooltan, I will venture on a brief recapitulation of what has been done by the forces under him and Lieutenant Lake, Engineers respectively. The latter officer having had unassisted charge of the contingent of the Awab of Bahawulpore, until he was wounded on the 12th of September last, when he was for a month relieved by Lieutenant Taylor, 11th Light Cavalry, Assistant Resident, who was prevented from continuing during the siege, by the chivalrous expedition he undertook to recover our captives from Peshawur. General van Cortlandt commanded the regular regiments and artillery of the Durbar, and, as far as came under my observation, executed an arduous trust, under occasionally critical circumstances, with much judgment and zeal. Lieutenant Lumsden, Assistant Resident, with a detachment of the side corps, performed useful service for the two months he was in the allied camp. Lieutenant Pollock, 49th Regiment Native Infantry, Assistant Resident, has more than once distinguished himself at the head of a detachment during the siege, and joined his corps for the storming of the city on the 2nd instant. Lieutenant Young, Engineers, had charge of the Irregular Sappers and Miners, and, under the orders of Major Scott, Chief Engineer, Bombay division, was eminently useful on the line of attack on the city side. Dr. Cole has been, as usual, foremost in the cause of humanity; and, after attending to his own sick, a very large hospital of the wounded of the enemy experienced the benefit of his skill and care.

Before I conclude this brief notice of the officers attached to the allied forces that, exclusive of, on various occasions, having been successfully engaged with the enemy, maintained our communication with the Sutlej and Chenab, and furnished escorts for our supplies, &c., I beg to notice two gentlemen, at present non-military, who have done good service, Messrs. Hugo James and Mc Mahon, volunteers; the former having joined Major Edwardes in the hot season, and thence done duty with three companies of infantry, that he had raised and drilled; the latter having joined early last month, and, on the 29th ultimo, distinguished himself when the enemy twice unsuccessfully attacked the troops commanded by Major Edwardes and Lieutenant Lake, by cutting down the leader of the Sikh infantry in single combat, and by joining the storming column of Brigadier Markham, in the assault of the city on the 2nd instant.

As the detachment of Bombay troops under Major Hallett, consisting of 5 troops of Scinde Horse (under Lieutenants Malcolm and Merewether), Captain Turnbull's light field battery, and 3rd regiment native infantry, joined me a fortnight before the main body, and performed during that time most useful service, I beg to knowledge my obligations to Major Hallett for same.

Camp, Mooltan, January 23, 1849.

In the haste of despatching to you my letter of yesterday's date, I had not leisure to examine the copy previous to signature. I find to-day a critical error in the omission of Major Day's (Artillery) name immediately before that ofrevet-Major Blood, in the fifth paragraph thereof, which I shall be obliged by your causing to be corrected, previous to its transmission to higher authority, should such a measure be deemed table.

the Adjutant-General of the Army to the Secretary with the Governor-General.

Camp, Chillianwalla, January 28, 1849.

By direction of the Commander-in-Chief, I have the honour to inclose, for the information of the Governor-General of India, a copy of a despatch of the 22nd* instant from Major-General J. S. Whish, C.B., commanding the Mooltan Field Force, reporting the surrender, on the morning of that day, of the garrison and citadel Mooltan.

I am further to add for communication to his Lordship, that on receipt of this despatch, his Excellency was pleased to issue to the army of the Punjaub an order (a copy of which is herewith transmitted) expressive of his sense of the great services thus brought to a brilliant and successful termination by the Major-General and the admirable troops under his command.

* Supplement to Gazette of March 6th, page 803.

General Orders to the Army of the Punjaub.
Head Quarters, Camp, Chillianwalla,
January 26, 1849.

The officer commanding the artillery will be so good as to direct a royal salute to be immediately fired from the heavy guns in honour of the capture of Mooltan by the British Force, under command of Major-General W. S. Whish, C.B., on the morning of the 22nd instant.

The Right Honourable the Commander-in-Chief most heartily congratulates Major-General W. S. Whish, and the brave officers and troops under his command, on the very important success their intrepidity, valour, and exemplary discipline have thus achieved.

Commander Powell, I.N., commanding the Indus Flotilla, to the Commodore commanding the Indian Navy.

Camp before Mooltan, January 11, 1849.

Since the despatch of my letter, dated the 3rd instant, announcing the fall of the city of Mooltan, I have the honour to report that the siege has been carried on against the fort, and that our batteries are now within one hundred and eighty yards of the ditch : in one of these mounting seven 18-pounders, the officers, and the men of the Indian Navy were employed on the 9th, when unfortunately fascines, of which the lower part of the battery was formed, took fire by the bursting of one of the enemy's shells ; every exertion was made by Lieutenant Berthon, and the officers and men under his command, to extinguish it, but without avail, and it became necessary to move the guns out of the battery into the trench, when the enemy opened a very heavy fire of all arms on them, and I regret to state the men, as per enclosed casualty return, were wounded, and Mr. Elder, Acting Master, had his foot crushed by one of the guns, but he is not seriously hurt.

2. It is also my painful duty to report the death of Alexander Johnstone, Quartermaster, who died yesterday a little after noon, of the wounds he received in the morning: this is the same man who was slightly wounded on the 31st ultimo, and had gallantly returned to duty: the rest of the wounded I am glad to say are doing well.

3. The Comet and Conqueror steamers are still above Mooltan, stopping all water communication. The former vessel will be despatched to Kurrachee in a day or two for Lady Lawrence and her party.

4. The Napier and Meteor are stationed off Raj-Ghaut, protecting the bridge and pontoon boats, also those the siege train came up in; and the Meeanee is towing up commissariat grain boats to the same Ghaut. The Planet also arrived there yesterday, with two 10-inch mortars, 630 shells, and 44 bales of clothing; she is now having a few repairs made good, and will be held ready for service down river.

5. It is not yet decided what portion of this force is to go to the north-east after the fall of the fort, and I am afraid the flotilla will be able to afford it but very little assistance beyond protecting the boats, and that only to the junction of Jhelum, as the water is lower than I have ever seen it.

John Chandlor, A.B. severely wounded, January 9, from musket shot.

Commodore commanding the Indian Navy.*

Mooltan, January 25, 1849.

(Extract.)

I have great pleasure in reporting the occupation of the fort of Mooltan, by the troops under Major-General Whish, C.B. on the morning of the 22nd ; the Dewan Moolraj, during the night of the 21st, when both breaches had been made practicable, having agreed to an unconditional surrender of himself and garrison, who laid down their arms on the glacis, and marched out at 9-30 A.M. on that date.

During the latter part of the siege, the officers and seamen of the Indian Navy were constantly employed in a battery within the city, in two batches, under Senior Lieutenant Berthon, and Mr. Acting Master Davis, and the services of all have been very handsomely acknowledged by Brigadier Leeson, commanding the artillery.

The Meteor and Comet steamers left Raj-Ghaut the 14th and 16th instant, for Sind, the former bringing up treasure from Sukkur, and the latter, with a number of wounded officers, for Kurrachee, where she is to receive on board Lady Lawrence and party, and bring them to Bukree at the junction of the Sutlej and Chenab Rivers.

Since the withdrawal of the Comet, the Conqueror has been employed above Mooltan, stopping communication by the river ; but as this is no longer required by the Assistant-Resident, orders were sent yesterday directing Mr. Mc Laurin to go down to the junction of the Ravee, and assist in making a bridge of boats over that river. The boats in charge of Mr. Acting Second Master Somerville left Raj-Ghaut this morning, accompanied by the Meeanee steamer, with the engineer officers and a company of sappers, who are to make the bridge.

The Planet steamer is still at Raj-Ghaut, where she has been employed with the Napier for some time past in guarding the fleet of boats with government stores on board ; and preventing the enemy crossing the river. The Satellite, Assyria, and Nimrod steamers have been chiefly employed

Lower Sind, under the orders of Senior Lieutenant Drought, who, as well as all the officers in charge of the tenders and their crews, together with the other officers and men of the flotilla, have evinced the greatest zeal in the performance of the arduous duties which have devolved on them, during the recent move of the Bombay division to Mooltan ; and I beg to submit the enclosed copy of a letter from Brigadier the Honourable H. 1849.

Dundas, C.B., conveying his thanks to myself and the officers and men, whose services he did me the honor of accepting, which will be duly communicated to them.

Colonel the Hon. H. Dundas, commanding the Bombay Column of the Mooltan Force, to Captain Powell, I.N., commanding Detachment of Seamen, serving with the Force before Mooltan.

Camp, Mooltan, January 25, 1849.

The operations before Mooltan having been brought to a successful termination, I have the honour to request you will accept for yourself, and convey to the officers and seamen under your command, my thanks for the assistance you so willingly rendered, and the service they gallantly rendered, in serving the batteries, and sharing the fatigues which devolved on the artillery, with the order and intrepidity so truly characteristic of the British sailor.

General Order by the Governor-General of India.

Ferozepore, February 1, 1849.

The Governor-General, having received a despatch reporting the surrender, on the morning of the 22nd instant, of the citadel and garrison of Mooltan, directs that, together with other despatches relating to the operations against the city and fort, it shall be published for the information of the army, and of the people of India.

The capture of this important fortress, which, during a protracted period, has resisted the powerful armament brought against it, and has been defended with gallantry and endurance, is a subject of congratulation to the Government of India, and to the Army.

The Governor-General desires to convey to Major-General Whish, C.B. his warmest thanks for the valuable service which has thus, under his guidance, been rendered to the Government by the united forces which he commands, for the courage, and skilful, and successful prosecution of a campaign, which, at comparatively small loss to our forces, has inflicted most heavy loss upon the enemy, and has utterly destroyed his strongest position.

Brigadier Cheape, C.B. the Chief Engineer of the Army, is entitled to the best thanks of the Governor-General for the zeal and ability with which he has fulfilled the important duty intrusted to him, and in the discharge of which he has been ably supported by Major Napier, Chief Engineer of the Bengal division, and Major Scott, Chief Engineer of the Bombay division of the force.

To Brigadier Markham, whose services have been so conspicuous, to Brigadier Salter, and to Brigadier Hervey, the Governor-General tenders his warm acknowledgments.

To Brigadier the Honourable H. Dundas, C.B. commanding the Bombay division, to Brigadier Peel, and Brigadier Stalker, the best thanks of the Governor-General are due, for the ready and active assistance they have rendered upon all occasions, as well in the attack upon the suburbs of the 27th of December, as in the assault of the city, which their troops were the first to enter, and in all the subsequent operations of the siege.

To Major Garbett and to Major Leeson, commanding the artillery of the Bengal and Bombay Divisions, to Commander Powell, of the Indian Artillery, and to the heads of the various departments, the Governor-General offers his thanks.

And to all the troops of each division, European and Native, to the officers, non-commissioned officers, and men, the Governor-General renders his hearty thanks for the gallantry, perseverance, skill, and discipline, which they have displayed throughout the service on which they have been employed.

With equal cordiality the Governor-General offers his best thanks to Major Edwardes, C.B. with the irregular force under his orders, and to Lieutenant Lake, who has commanded the forces of our Ally, the Nawab of Bahawulpore. The Governor-General congratulates these officers on their having been enabled, with their native troops, to witness, in the capture of Mooltan, the complete vindication of the supremacy of British power, which, during the past summer, their own gallantry and enterprize so materially contributed to sustain.

The Governor-General will have the utmost satisfaction in bringing the services of the force at Mooltan, under the favourable consideration of Her Majesty's Government and the Honourable East India Company.

A salute of 21 guns has been ordered to be fired at every principal station of the army in India.

The Adjutant-General of the Army to the Secretary with the Governor-General.

Camp, Chillianwalla, January 30, 1849.

By direction of the Commander-in-Chief, I have the honour to enclose, for the information of the Governor-General of India, a copy of a despatch of the 21st instant, from Brigadier-General H. M. Wheeler, C.B. commanding the Punjaub division and Jullundur field force, reporting the success of his operations against the rebel Ram Sing.

Adjutant-General H. M. Wheeler, C.B., Commanding Jullundur Field Force, to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

(Extract.)

Camp, Puttankote, January 21, 1849.

On the 8th instant, I marched from Puttankote with my whole force, excepting the 4th Regiment of Infantry, and a resallah of irregulars, which I sent under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel D. Downing, up the bed of the Ravee river, to take post at the opposite end of Dulla mountain, where I had ascertained that the ascent was more facile than near Shahpore. At Shahpore I found that a range of hills was to be crossed to reach Dulla-hill, and I hoped to be able to take the troops up the bed of the Ravee, thus avoid it: on examination it was found that the roads were too deep, with a violent stream, and I was compelled to turn my attention to a gorge which crossed the intervening hill.

This presented great difficulties for guns, but in a few days a practicable road was made under the skill and indefatigable exertions of Captain J. R. Meldrum, Field Engineer, admirably aided by Lieutenant M. J. Turnbull, 7th Light Cavalry, and the Quartermaster, and I had the extreme pleasure of seeing the whole of the artillery pass it descend into the valley, under the mountain Dulla.

I take this opportunity of expressing my high opinion of both these officers, to whom I am greatly indebted for aiding me in my reconnoissances, and for furnishing information.

On reaching the valley, the positions of the troops were found to be admirably chosen, and I perceived that a direct attack was out of the question, more particularly as they showed in great strength.

The 12th, 13th, and 14th, were passed in reconnoitring and obtaining information, and I must acknowledge my obligations to Mr. J. Lawrence, Mr. P. S. Melvill, Lieutenants Lumsden and Hodson, who aided me most cordially.

On the evening of the 14th, I made the following arrangements:—

Lieutenant Hodson, (Lieutenant Lumsden having sprained his ankle), with his corps of guides, to move at noon on the 15th, up the right bank of the Ravee, recross the river and move up to a high peak of the mountain, visible from my camp; with him, went 400 rank and file, 3rd Regiment Native Infantry. I at the same time wrote to Lieutenant-Colonel Downing, that my arrangements were definitively settled, and that the sound of my heavy guns was to be the signal for him to co-operate and attack the enemy's position; but that, as it was possible (owing to the intervening hills), he might not hear them, he was not to delay his ascent beyond 8 o'clock A.M. of the 16th.

Another column was formed of the Head Quarters, 3rd Regiment Native Infantry, and a party of the 2nd Irregular Cavalry, (Captain Jackson having volunteered the services of his corps, dismounted,) under Lieutenant Swinton, second in command, the whole under Major Butler, commanding 3rd Regiment Native Infantry.

Mr. Lawrence, on joining me, brought with him a party of the 16th Irregular Cavalry and 1st Sikh Local Infantry, the former the Head-quarters and sixty sowars, the latter under Lieutenant J. Peel, second in command, one hundred and fifty-two; the whole under the command of Captain W. W. Davidson, of the former, who volunteered for his sowars to act on foot.

These were formed into another column to join that under Major Butler, when he passed that point of the hill where it ascended. Lieutenant Hodson quitted camp at 12 noon on the 15th, and at 2 P.M. rain began to fall, slightly at first, but it increased and poured all night, and fell more or less until past 1 P.M. of the next day. This so greatly interfered with his progress, the road being a most difficult path over cliffs, and the Ravee having swollen, he was unable to reach his post until noon on the 16th, instead of 6 P.M. on the 15th as reckoned on. Of this he could give me no intimation in consequence of the weather preventing any one from coming round, and the occupation of the mountain by the enemy equally preventing any one from coming across.

All were ready in my camp at 8 A.M., and, although it poured, moved off in capital spirits to be ready to ascend at the signal.

Lieutenant-Colonel Wilson has written so modestly of the artillery, that it is my duty to state, that his own exertions, and that of all under him, were most zealous and successful. Captains Sissmore and Burnett, deserve the greatest credit for getting up 24-pound howitzers and mortars, on steep shoulders of the hill, and bringing them to act on the positions of the enemy: these officers have, on every occasion, elicited my praise, and I beg most strongly to recommend them to the favourable consideration of Lord Gough.

The column under Major Butler carried out my wishes with great coolness and courage, and I am indebted to that officer for the judgment which he evinced, and which was crowned with complete success.

The enemy has lost severely; thirty-five bodies were counted, and many more must have fallen on different parts of the hill, which have not been seen. Of their wounded, I know nothing.

Major Fisher and Captain Jackson, with the mounted portions of their corps, followed me up the mountain, where, I'll venture to say, cavalry never were before, in the hope of being able to pursue the enemy when beaten, but did not reach in time.

I have had, on this, as indeed on every other occasion, the most hearty and cheerful aid from the staff of all grades, the whole of whom accompanied me.

I received the most cordial aid in all points from Mr. Lawrence and Mr. Melvill, and am most grateful to those gentlemen.

I am, in a word, pleased with all, and of all ranks, who were under my personal command.

Ram Sing's party is utterly broken up for the present, and he has recrossed the Ravee with two followers.

Return of Killed and Wounded in the Force commanded by Brigadier-General H. M. Wheeler, C.B., in the Assault and Capture of the Heights of Dulla, on January 16, 1849.

3rd Regiment N. I.—1 sepoy slightly wounded.

2nd Regiment Irregular Cavalry—1 sowar killed ; 1 sowar severely, and 1 slightly wounded.

16th Regiment Irregular Cavalry—Captain Commanding, Captain W. W. Davidson, severely wounded, bullet in the right hand ; 1 native officer, severely wounded ; 1 sowar severely, and 2 slightly wounded.

1st Regiment Sikh Local Infantry—Lieutenant Second in Command, Lieutenant J. Peel, dangerously wounded, since dead ; 1 Jemadar, 2 sepoys, killed ; 1 havildar, 4 sepoys slightly, 1 naick, 3 sepoys severely, 2 sepoys dangerously, wounded.

Total—4 killed ; 20 wounded.

N.B.—Cornet Christie, 7th Light Cavalry, killed.

General Order by the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India.

Camp, Mukkoo, January 24, 1849.

The Governor-General having received from the Commander-in-Chief in India a despatch, dated the 16th instant, directs that it shall be published for the information of the Army and of the People of India.

In this despatch, His Excellency reports the successful operation of the troops under his immediate command on the afternoon of the 13th instant, when they attacked and defeated the Sikh Army under the command of Rajah Shere Sing.

Notwithstanding great superiority in numbers, and the formidable position which he occupied, the enemy, after a severe and obstinate resistance, was driven back, and retreated from every part of his position in great disorder, with much slaughter, and with the loss of twelve pieces of Artillery.

The Governor-General congratulates the Commander-in-Chief on the Victory thus obtained by the Army under his command: and, on behalf of the Government of India, he desires cordially to acknowledge the gallant services which have been rendered on this occasion by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, the Generals, the officers, non-commissioned officers, and soldiers of the army in the field.

The Governor-General offers his thanks to Major-General Sir Joseph Thackwell, K.C.B. and K.H. for his services; and to Brigadier White for his conduct of the brigade of cavalry on the left.

Major-General Sir W. Gilbert, K.C.B., and Brigadier-General Campbell, C.B., are entitled to the special thanks of the Governor-General, for the admirable manner in which they directed the divisions under their orders.

To Brigadier Mountain, C.B., and to Brigadier Hoggan, the Governor-General tenders his acknowledgments for the gallant example they offered in the lead of their men; and to them, to Brigadier Godby, C.B., and Brigadier Pennycuick, C.B., for their able conduct of their respective brigades.

The warm thanks of the Governor-General are due to Brigadier-General Tennant, commanding the artillery division, to Brigadier Brooke, C.B., and Brigadier Huthwaite, C.B., for their direction of the operations of that distinguished arm, and for the effective service which it rendered.

To the heads of the various departments, and to the officers of the general and personal staff, whose services are acknowledged by the Commander-in-Chief, the Governor-General offers his thanks.

The Governor-General deeply regrets the loss of Brigadier Pennycuick, C.B., and of the gallant officers and men who have honourably fallen in the service of their country.

It has afforded the Governor-General the highest gratification to observe, that the conduct of the troops generally was worthy of all praise.

The Governor-General, indeed, is concerned to think that any order or misapprehension of an order could have produced the movements, by the right brigade of cavalry, which his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief reports.

To the Artillery, European and Native, to the Cavalry on the left, and to the European and Native Infantry, the Governor-General offers his hearty thanks; especially to those corps, European and Native, which his Excellency reports to have acted, under trying circumstances, with a gallantry worthy of the greatest admiration.

The Governor-General will have sincere satisfaction in bringing the services of this Army under the favourable notice of Her Majesty's Government and the Honourable East India Company.

A salute of 21 Guns has been ordered to be fired from every principal Station of the Army in India.

The Governor-General repeats to the Commander-in-Chief, and to the Army the assurance of his cordial thanks; and expresses his confident belief that the Victory which, under Divine providence, they have won, will exercise a most important influence on the successful progress of the war in which they are engaged.

By order of the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India.

H. M. ELLIOTT, Secretary to the Government of India, with the Governor-General.

The Secretary with the Governor-General to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Ferozepore, January 31, 1849.

1. I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief's despatches, dated the 5th, 10th and 16th ultimo, reporting the particulars of an action with the enemy at Adoolapore, and the passage of the Chenab by Major-General Sir Joseph Thackwell, K.C.B.
2. The Governor-General regrets to find that he inadvertently omitted to issue instructions founded on a minute which he had recorded on the subject of the despatches under acknowledgment.
3. His Lordship begs to congratulate the Commander-in-Chief on the success of the measures which he adopted for effecting the passage of the Chenab, and to convey to him the assurance of his satisfaction with, and his best thanks for, the judicious arrangements by which he was enabled, with comparatively little loss, to carry into execution his plans for the passage of that difficult river, and for compelling the retreat of the Sikh army from the formidable position which they occupied on its further bank, after they had been engaged, and beaten back by the forces under Major-General Sir Joseph Thackwell.

4. The result of his Excellency's movements, in driving the Sikh army from their entrenchments, and forcing them to retire to the other extremity of the Dooab, was of much importance.

5. The Governor-General offers his best thanks to Major-General Sir Joseph Thackwell for his successful direction of the force under his command, and for the dispositions by which he compelled the enemy to retire, and ultimately to quit, the ground he had occupied.

6. The Governor-General tenders his best thanks to Brigadier-General Campbell for the able assistance which he rendered to Major-General Sir Joseph Thackwell, and to Lieutenant-Colonel Grant for the powerful and effective use which he made of the artillery under his command.

7. The Governor-General has had much gratification in observing the terms in which the Commander-in-Chief has spoken of the army under his command in the field ; and he concurs with his Excellency in bestowing upon them the praise which is their due.

CHAPTER of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

Chapter of this Most Noble Order having summoned for this day, the Knights Companions hereafter named, in their mantles and robes, assembled in the green drawing-room, viz.

the Duke of Wellington, the Marquess of Exeter, the Duke of Richmond, the Marquess of Downe, the Marquess of Salisbury, the Duke of Cleveland, Earl de Grey, the Marquess of Cornwall, the Marquess Camden, the Marquess of Bedford, the Duke of Bedford, and the Duke of Norfolk, attended by the following Officers, viz.

the Lord Bishop of Winchester, Prelate; the Bishop of Oxford, Chancellor; the Honourable and Reverend George Neville-Grenville, Dean of Windsor, Register; Sir Charles George Young, Garter, Principal King of Arms; and Sir Augustus William James Clifford, Bart. Gentleman-Usher of the Black Rod.

At three o'clock, the Knights Companions were called over by Garter (when Her Majesty and His Royal Highness the Prince Albert having passed the Throne-room), they proceeded with the Officers of the Order, for the Green Drawing-room, into the Throne-room.

The Chancellor then signified to the Chapter

Her Majesty's royal will and pleasure that the two vacant stalls in the Royal Chapel of Saint George at Windsor be filled; and as, by the Statutes, none but a Knight can be elected, the Right Honourable Frederick Earl Spencer was introduced by Garter and Black Rod, and knighted by Her Majesty with the sword of state, when his Lordship, having kissed the Sovereign's hand retired.

The Knights Companions then proceeded to the election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Chancellor, were by him presented to the Sovereign, who commanded him to declare, and he accordingly did declare, that the Right Honourable George William Frederick Earl of Clarendon had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

Then, by the Sovereign's command, his Lordship was received at the door of the Chapter-room by the Dukes of Bedford and Norfolk, the two junior Knights Companions present, and conducted between them to Her Majesty, preceded by Garter (bearing the ensigns of the Order upon a crimson velvet cushion), and by Black Rod. The Earl of Clarendon kneeling near the Sovereign, Garter on his knee presented the Garter, and Her Majesty, assisted by His Royal Highness Prince Albert and the Duke of Wellington, the two senior Knights Companions present, buckled it on his Lordship's left leg, the Chancellor pronouncing the usual admonition.

Garter next presented, in like manner, the ribband and George, and Her Majesty, assisted as before, put the same over his Lordship's left shoulder, the Chancellor pronouncing the admonition. The Earl then again kissed Her Majesty's hand, and, having received the congratulations of each of the Knights Companions, retired.

The Chapter then proceeded to a second election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Chancellor, were by him presented to the Sovereign, when the Right Honourable Frederick Earl Spencer was by Her Majesty's command declared duly elected; and his Lordship was introduced and invested with the garter and the ribband and George with the like ceremonies.

The Chapter being ended, Garter, by Her Majesty's command, again called over the Knights Companions, who, with the Officers of the Order, retired from the presence of the Sovereign, with the usual reverence.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, made in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from any British possession on or near the continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter (excepting the possessions of the said Company), as to Her Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary.

And whereas Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth deem it expedient and salutary to make the several regulations hereinafter contained touching the trade and commerce of Her Majesty's colony of Sierra Leone.

1st. Now, therefore, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the power so vested in Her as aforesaid, by the said recited Act of Parliament, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the several sorts of goods enumerated or described in the table following, denominated "A Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions," are hereby prohibited to be imported or brought into the said colony, or shall be so imported or brought only under the restrictions mentioned in such table, according as the several sorts of such goods are set forth therein ; that is to say :

A Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions.

Gunpowder, arms, ammunition, or utensils of war; Prohibited to be imported, to be used therein except from the United Kingdom, or from some other British possession; but such articles may, nevertheless, be imported in any vessels which may legally trade with the British possessions on the western coast of Africa for the purpose of being warehoused at the port of Free Town for exportation only.

Articles of foreign manufacture, and any packages of such articles, bearing any names, brands, or marks purporting to be the names, brands, or marks of manufacturers resident in the United Kingdom.

Base or counterfeit coin.

Books first composed, or written, or printed and published in the United Kingdom wherein the copyright shall be subsisting, and printed or reprinted in any other country, as to which the proprietor of such copyright or his agent shall have given to the Commissioners of Customs a notice in writing that such copyright subsists, such notice also stating when such copyright will expire ; Prohibited to be imported.

2. And if any goods shall be imported or brought into the said colony, contrary to any of the prohibitions or restrictions mentioned in such table in respect of such goods, the same shall be forfeited ; and if the ship or vessel in which such goods shall be imported be of less burthen than sixty tons, such ship or vessel shall be forfeited.

3. And whereas it is expedient to extend certain of the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act, of the 8th and 9th years of the reign of Her present Majesty to the said colony, now therefore Her Majesty with the advice of Her Privy Council and in further pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in Her as aforesaid, by the said Act of Parliament, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods be exported from the said colony, by sea, from or to any place other than the United Kingdom or some other British possession, except into or from the port of Free Town or such other port or ports within the said colony, as may be hereafter declared by Her Majesty in Council to be fit for such importation and exportation; and if any goods shall be imported into the said colony, contrary hereto, such goods shall be forfeited.

4. And it is hereby further ordered that goods of any sort, or the produce of any place, not otherwise prohibited than by the Law of Navigation, may be imported into the said port of Free Town, in the said colony, from any place in a British ship, and from any place, not being a British possession in a foreign ship of any country and however navigated, to be warehoused for exportation only, under the provisions of this order, or of any law in force, for the time being, made for the warehousing of goods; provided always, and it is hereby ordered that it shall be declared upon the entry of such goods that they are entered for exportation only.

5. And it is hereby further ordered, that the master of every ship arriving at any port in the said colony or its dependencies, whether laden or in ballast, shall come directly, and before bulk broken, to the Custom House at the port of the Town, and there make a report, in writing, to the collector or other proper officer, of the arrival and voyage of such ship, stating her name, country, and tonnage, and, if British, the port of registry, the name and country of the master, the country of the owners, the number of the crew, and how many are of the country of such ship, and whether she be laden or in ballast, and if laden, the marks, numbers, and contents of every package and parcel of goods on board, and where the same are laden, and where and to whom consigned, and where any and what goods, if any, had been unladen during the voyage as far as any such particulars can be known to him; and the master shall further answer all such questions concerning the ship and cargo and the crew and the voyage, as shall be demanded of him by such officer; and if any goods are unladen from any ship before such report be made, or if the master fail to make such report, or make an untrue report, or do not truly answer the questions demanded of him, he shall forfeit the sum of one hundred pounds, and if any goods be not reported such goods shall be forfeited.

6. And it is hereby further ordered, that no goods shall be laden, or water-borne to be laden, on board any ship, or unladen from any ship in the said colony, until due entry shall have been made for such goods and warrant granted for the lading and unlading of the same, and the person entering for such goods shall deliver to the Collector of the Customs or other proper officer, a Bill of the entry in proof, fairly written in words at length, containing the name of the exporter or importer, and of the ship and of the master and of the place to or from which bound, and of the place within the port where the goods are to be laden or unladen, and the particulars of the quality and quantity of the goods, and the packages containing the same,

and the marks and numbers on the packages, and setting forth whether such goods be the produce of the British possessions or not, and shall also deliver at the same time one or more duplicates of such Bill, in which all sums and numbers may be expressed in figures, and the particulars to be contained in such Bill of entry shall be written and arranged in such form and manner, and the number of such duplicates shall be such as the collector or other principal officer shall require.

7. And it is hereby further ordered, that the master of every ship bound from the said colony shall, before any goods be laden therein, deliver to the collector or comptroller, or other proper officer of customs, an entry outwards, under his hand, of the destination of such ship, stating her name, country, and tonnage, and, if British, the port of registry, the name and country of the master, the country of the owners, the number of the crew, and how many are of the country of such ship; and if any goods be laden on board any ship before such entry be made, the master of such ship shall forfeit the sum of fifty pounds; and before such ship depart, the master shall bring and deliver to the collector and comptroller, or other proper officer, a content in writing, under his hand, of the goods laden, and the names of the respective shippers and consignees of the goods, with the marks and numbers of the packages or parcels of the same, and shall make and subscribe a declaration to the truth of such content, as far as any such particulars can be known to him; and the master of every ship, bound from any such possession, whether in ballast or laden, shall, before departure, come in before the collector or comptroller, or other proper officer, and answer all such questions concerning the ship and the cargo, if any, and the crew, and the voyage, as shall be demanded of him by such officer; and thereupon the collector, or other proper officer, if such ship be laden, shall make out and give to the master a certificate of the clearance of such ship for her intended voyage, containing an account of the total quantities of the several sorts of goods laden therein, or a certificate of her clearance in ballast, as the case may be; and if the ship shall depart without such clearance, or if the master shall deliver a false content, or shall not truly answer the questions demanded of him, he shall forfeit the sum of one hundred pounds.

8. And it is hereby further ordered, that no entry, nor any warrant for the landing of any goods, or for the taking of any goods out of any warehouse, shall be deemed valid, unless the particulars of the goods and packages in such entry shall correspond with the particulars of the goods and packages purporting to be the same in the report of the ship, nor unless the goods shall have been properly described in such entry, by the denominations and with the characters and circumstances according to which such goods may be imported; and any such goods taken or delivered out of any ship, or out of any warehouse, by virtue of any entry or warrant not corresponding or agreeing in all respects, or not properly describing the same, shall be deemed to be goods landed or taken without due entry thereof, and shall be forfeited.

9. And whereas it is expedient to constitute and appoint the port of Free Town to be a free warehousing port for all such goods as may be legally imported under this order, it is therefore hereby ordered that the port of Free Town shall be a free warehousing port for all the purposes mentioned in this order.

10. And whereas it is necessary to make regulations for the appointing proper warehouses at the port of Free Town, and for the lodging and securing therein of such goods as may be imported under this Order, it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be lawful for the Collector of Customs at the said port, with the assent of the Governor by notice in writing under his hand to appoint from time to time such warehouses at that port as shall be approved of by him, for the free warehousing and securing of goods therein for the purposes of this Order, and also in such notice to declare what sorts of goods may be so warehoused, and also by like notice to revoke or alter any such appointment or declaration.

Provided always, that every such notice shall be transmitted to the Governor or Lieutenant-Governor of the said colony, and shall be published in such manner as he shall direct.

11. And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be lawful for the importer of any such goods as aforesaid into the port of Free Town, to warehouse the same in the warehouses so appointed, subject nevertheless to the rules, regulations, restrictions, and conditions hereinafter contained.

12. And it is hereby further ordered, that all goods so warehoused, shall be stowed in such parts or divisions of the warehouse, and in such manner as the collector shall direct, and that the warehouses shall be locked and secured in such manner and shall be opened and visited only at such times, and in the presence of such officers, and under such rules and regulations as the collector shall direct; and that all such goods shall, after being landed upon importation, be carried to the warehouse, or shall, after being taken out of the warehouse for exportation, be carried to be shipped, under such rules and regulations as the collector shall direct.

And we direct that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to alter or affect the rates of postage fixed by a Treasury Warrant bearing date the 9th day of May, 1843, on letters transmitted by the post between France or foreign countries or Her Majesty's Colonies viâ France and any part of Canada, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward's Island, and Newfoundland, through the United Kingdom, which rates shall continue payable as if this Warrant had not been signed.

THE dispatch, of which the following is an extract, and the accompanying papers, have been this day received at the East India-House, from the Governor-General of India.

The Governor-General of India to the Secret Committee of the East India Company.

(Extract.)

March 7, 1849.

Under Divine Providence, the British arms have signally triumphed. On the 21st of February, an action was fought, which must ever be regarded as one of the most memorable in the annals of British warfare in India; memorable alike from the greatness of the occasion, and from the brilliant and decisive issue of the encounter. For the first time, Sikh and Afghan were banded together against the British power. It was an occasion which demanded the putting forth of all the means at our disposal, and so conspicuous a manifestation of the superiority of our arms, as should each enemy, and dissolve, at once, their ct, by fatal proof of its futility. The comess of the victory which has been won, the highest hopes entertained. The results

 t yet fully developed.

e enemy, estimated at 60,000 men, with 59 were posted near the town of Goojerat.
 Excellency the Commander-in-Chief opened illery upon them, with tremendous effect, on orning of the 21st of February. A sus-cannonade of three hours compelled them ire from the positions they had maintained esolute hardihood. The subsequent advance whole British line drove them back, at once, every point; and, retreat speedily becoming they fled in the utmost disorder, "their broken" (the Commander-in-Chief writes), r position carried, their guns, ammunition, equipage, and baggage, captured; their masses driven before the victorious pur-from midday to dusk, receiving most severe nment in their flight." It will much enhance ratification which the intelligence of this success must afford you, to hear that it has achieved with comparatively little loss, and amongst the 53 guns captured, we have ered those lost at Ramnuggur and Chilliana general order, issued on the 1st of this , I gave public expression to the sense I ain of the devoted gallantry of the noble which has gained this victory.

the name, and on behalf of, the Government ia, I offered to his Excellency Lord Gough, anding in Chief, to the generals, the officers, ommissioned officers, and soldiers of the my grateful acknowledgments of the service ave rendered to their country.

ook occasion to express the unbounded confidence I feel, and have ever felt, in this army, and my conviction that they will meet, cheerfully and gallantly, as heretofore, whatever obstacles may yet be opposed to them. I stated, further, that I would earnestly commend their past services to the consideration of Her Majesty's Government, and of the East India Company; and I now, accordingly, fulfil this promise.

On the morning after the battle of Goojerat, Major-General Sir W. Gilbert was detached with a force to effect the passage of the Jhelum, and follow the enemy towards Peshawur, in which direction the main body of them that still held together, had fled. Brigadier-General Campbell advanced, at the same time, on the road to Bimber, scouring the country all round in that quarter. He returned, on the 25th, bringing in several guns which the enemy had abandoned in their flight.

Major-General Gilbert experienced some difficulty in crossing the Jhelum, in consequence of the enemy having reached the river before him and burnt all the boats, with the view of retarding his passage. The Bengal division was over the river by the 2nd instant, and succeeded in capturing, in the town of Jhelum, two brass mortars with 9000 rounds of ammunition. On the 5th they were at the formidable pass of Bakrala, the Bombay division being two marches behind them. The road to the next stage has been broken up by the enemy, but, after repairing it, and reaching Dhuneal, it is the Major-General's intention to stay there, till his ammunition, heavy guns, and commissariat stores, reach him.

NOTIFICATION.

Camp, Ferozepore, February 24th, 1849.

The Right Honourable the Governor-General has the publication of the following letter, His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, announcing the complete defeat of the Sikh army, on the 21st instant. The detailed dispatches will be published hereafter.

Commander-in-Chief in India to the Governor-General of India.

Camp in front of Goojerat, February 21st, 1849.

I have the honour to report to your Lordship, that I have, this day, obtained a victory of no ordinary order, either in its character, or, I trust, in its effects.

I was joined, yesterday, by Brigadier Mark-Brigade, Brigadier-General Dundas having completed the preceding night. I moved on, in the afternoon of yesterday, as soon as these troops were refreshed, from Trikura to the village of Sha- and, at seven this morning, I moved to the place, which commenced at half-past eight o'clock; by one o'clock, I was in possession of the Sikh position, with all of his camp equipage, baggage, magazines, and, I hope, a large proportion of his guns; the exact number I cannot, at present, state, from the great extent of his position, and length of pursuit, as I followed up the enemy, for four to five miles on the Bimber road, and I had on Sir Joseph Thackwell with the cavalry. The pursuit has been most complete; the whole road, for twelve miles, is strewn with guns, ammunition, baggage, arms, and baggage.

The loss was comparatively small (I hope within reasonable limits and wounded), when it is considered I have attacked 60,000 Sikhs, in a very strong position, armed with upwards of sixty guns. The loss of the enemy must have been very severe.

The conduct of the whole army, in every arm, was conspicuous for steadiness in movement, and gallantry in action. The details I shall furnish hereafter.

GENERAL ORDER BY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDIA.

Camp, Ferozepore, March 1, 1849.

The Governor-General, having received from His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief a dispatch, reporting the details of the brilliant victory which was gained by the British Army at Goojerat, on the 21st ultimo, directs that it be published for the information of the army, and of the people of India.

The Sikh army, under the command of Sirdar Chuttur Sing and of Raja Shere Sing, combined with the Affghan troops in the service of the Ameer of Cabool, were posted, in great strength near to the town of Goojerat.

Their numbers were estimated at 60,000 men and 59 guns were brought by them into action.

On the morning of the 21st, they were attacked by the forces, under the personal command of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief. A powerful and sustained cannonade by the British artillery compelled them, after some time, to retire from the positions they had well and resolutely maintained.

The subsequent advance of the British Army drove them back, at once, from every point, and, retreat having been speedily converted into rout, they fled in the utmost disorder; and, abandoning their guns, and throwing away their arms, were pursued by the artillery and cavalry, till the evening, for many miles beyond the town.

ty-three pieces of the enemy's artillery, his baggage, his magazines, and vast store of ammunition, left in the hands of the British, bear testimony to the completeness, and to the importance, of the victory that has been won. The Governor-General, in the name, and on behalf, of the Government of India, most cordially congratulates his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, and the whole army, on the glorious success achieved, under the blessing of Divine Providence, by the skill and gallantry have achieved; and he expresses to his Excellency, to the Generals, the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Soldiers of the force, his grateful acknowledgments of the service they have thus rendered to the Government of their Country.

The Governor-General begs especially to thank Major-General Sir Joseph Thackwell, K.C.B. Major-General Sir W. Gilbert, K.C.B. Major-General Whish, C.B. Brigadier-General Peel, C.B. and Brigadier-General the Hon. H. Dundas, C.B. for the ability and judgment with which they directed the operations of the Divisions respectively under their command. The Chief Engineer, Brigadier Cheape, C.B. the Officers commanding Brigades, Brigadier Peel, C.B. Brigadier Huthwaite, C.B. and Brigadier Leeson, to Brigadier White, C.B. Brigadier Hearsey, and Brigadier Lockwood, C.B. to Brigadier Hervey, and Brigadier Markham, to Brigadier Mountain, C.B. Brigadier Penny, C.B. Brigadier Capon, and Brigadier Hoggan, Brigadier Carnegie, and Brigadier McLeod, the best services of the Governor-General are due.

The services of Brigadier-General Tennant, of the artillery of the force, have been recorded, in the dispatch of the Commander-in-Chief, in terms of which they may justly be proud.

The Governor-General cordially joins with his Excellency, in acknowledging their merit, and in bestowing upon them the praise they have earned so well.

To Major Lugard, to Lieutenant-Colonel Gough, C.B. and to the Officers of the General Staff of Her Majesty's Army, to Lieutenant-Colonel Grant, C.B. to Lieutenant-Colonel Garden, C.B. and to the Officers of the General Staff of the Army, to Captain Ramsay, and the Officers of the Commissariat Department, to Mr. Franklin, Inspector-General of Her Majesty's Hospitals, to Dr. Renny, and the Officers of the Medical Department, and to the Officers of his Excellency's Personal Staff, the Governor-General offers his thanks, and assures them of his full appreciation of their services.

And to all the troops of every arm, European and Native, the Governor-General desires to convey his entire approbation of their steady and gallant conduct throughout the day, particularly to a portion of the 9th Lancers, and the Sind Horse, for their charge against the Affghan cavalry to the 3rd Brigade of Infantry under Brigadier Penny, C.B. for their attack on the village of Kalra; and to a portion of Brigadier Hervey's Brigade, for their charge, led by Lieutenant-Colonel Franks, C.B. all of which have been specially reported by his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

The Governor-General estimates highly the important results which the battle, gained on the 21st ultimo, is calculated to produce. He entertains a hope that the conviction, which the event of that day must force upon all, of the vast superiority, which the British Army derives, from the possession of science and military resource, will induce the enemy shortly to abandon a contest which is a hopeless one.

the war in which we are engaged must be prosecuted, with vigor and determination, to the entire rout and dispersion of all who are in arms against us, whether Sikhs or Affghans.

The Governor-General has ever felt, and feels, an undiminished confidence in the army which serves in India. He relies fully on the conviction that their services will be given, cheerfully and gallantly, as of yore, whatever may be the obstacles opposed to them; and he does not doubt that, with the blessing of Heaven, such full success will continue to follow their efforts as shall speedily give to the Government of India the victory over its enemies, and restore the country to the enjoyment of peace. The Governor-General will not fail earnestly to commend the past services of this Army to the honorable consideration of Her Majesty's Government, and of the East India Company.

The Commander-in-Chief in India to the Governor-General of India.

*Head-quarters, Camp, Goojerat,
February 26, 1849.*

By my letter of the 21st instant, written on the day of battle, immediately after the action, your Excellency will have been made acquainted with the glorious result of my operations on that day against the Sikh Army, calculated, from all credible reports, at 60,000 men of all arms, and 59 pieces of artillery, under the command of Sirdar Dattur Sing and Rajah Shere Sing, with a body of 500 Affghan horse, led by Akram Khan, son of the Ameer Dost Mahomed Khan; a result, my Excellency, glorious indeed for the ever-victorious Army of India; the ranks of the enemy broken, their position carried, their guns, ammunition, camp equipage, and baggage, captured, their flying masses driven before the victorious pursuers, from midday to dusk, receiving most severe punishment in their flight: and, my Lord, with gratitude to a merciful Providence, I have the satisfaction of adding that, notwithstanding the obstinate resistance of the enemy, this triumphant success, this brilliant victory, has been achieved with comparatively little loss on our side.

The number of guns taken in action, and captured in the line of pursuit, I now find to be fifty-three.

The official report, made by the Adjutant-General of the army, on the 20th instant, will have informed your Lordship that I had directed Brigadier-General the Honorable H. Dundas to join me, by forced marches, and that I had closed up, to so short a distance of the Sikh army, that they could not possibly attempt the passage of the Chenab, in order to put into execution their avowed determination of moving upon Lahore, make a retrograde movement by the Kooree Pass (the only practicable one for guns) or, indeed, quit their position, without my being able to attack them, and defeat their movement.

On the 18th instant, Brigadier Markham had proceeded from Ramnuggur, up the left bank of the river, to Kanokee, to which I had directed forty-seven boats to be sent up. On the morning of the 20th, this officer crossed the Chenab, by my instructions, and joined me at 11 o'clock, A.M. At the same time, Lieutenant-Colonel Byrne was directed to move down the left bank, from the position he held in front of Wuzeerabad, with two corps of infantry and four guns, leaving two regiments of irregular cavalry to watch the fords, and to prevent any marauding parties, or of the routed enemy, from effecting a ege.

On the same day, a reconnoissance was made of the enemy's position, and it was ascertained that their camp nearly encircled the town of Verat, their regular troops being placed immediately fronting us, between the town and a deep r-course, the dry bed of the river Dwara; nullah, which is very tortuous, passing round by two sides of the town of Goojerat, 'dividing to a considerable distance on the north and west faces, and then taking a southerly direction, running through the centre of the camp and I occupied at Shadewal. Thus, the enemy's position, on the right, was greatly strengthened, the nullah giving cover to his artillery, in front of his guns, whilst another deep, though narrow, wet nullah, running from the south of the town, and falling into the Chenab, in the direction of Wuzeerabad, covered his left.

The ground between these nullahs, for a space nearly three miles, being well calculated for operations of all arms, and presenting no obstacle to the movement of my heavy guns, I determined to make my principal attack in that direction, and disposed my force accordingly.

On the extreme left, I placed the Bombay column, commanded by the Honorable H. Duncan, supported by Brigadier White's brigade of artillery, and the Sind horse, under Sir Joseph Colwell, to protect the left, and to prevent the bodies of Sikh and Affghan cavalry from reaching that flank; with this cavalry, I placed Gains Duncan's and Huish's troops of horse artillery, whilst the infantry was covered by the Bombay troop of horse artillery, under Major Dalrymple.

On the right of the Bombay column, and with its right resting on the nullah, I placed Brigadier-

General Campbell's division of infantry, covered by No. 5 and No. 10 light field batteries, under Major Ludlow and Lieutenant Robertson, having Brigadier Hoggan's brigade of infantry in reserve.

Upon the right of the nullah, I placed the infantry division of Major-General Sir W. Gilbey, the heavy guns, eighteen in number, under Major Day and Horsford, with Captain Shakespear and Brevet-Major Sir Richmond Shakespear commanding batteries, being disposed, in two divisions, upon the flanks of his left brigade.

This line was prolonged by Major-General Whish's division of infantry, with one brigade of infantry under Brigadier Markham, in support, in second line; and the whole covered by the troops of horse artillery, Major Fordyce's, Captains Mackenzie's and Anderson's, and No. 1 light field battery, under Captain Dawes, with Lieutenant-Colonel Lane's and Captain Kinross's troops of horse artillery, in a second line in reserve, under Lieutenant-Colonel Brind.

My right flank was protected by Brigadier Hearsey's and Lockwood's brigades of cavalry, with Captain Warner's troop of horse artillery.

The 5th and 6th light cavalry, with the Bombay light field battery, and the 45th and 69th regiments, under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel Mercer, most effectually protected my rear and baggage.

With my right wing I proposed penetrating the centre of the enemy's line, so as to turn the position of their force in rear of the nullah, and thus enable my left wing to cross it with little loss, and, in co-operation with the right, to double upon the centre, the wing of the enemy's force opposed to them.

At half-past 7 o'clock, the army advanced, in the order described, with the precision of a parade movement. The enemy opened their fire, at long distance, which exposed to my artillery the position and range of their guns. I the infantry just out of fire, and advanced whole of my artillery, covered by skirmishers. The cannonade now opened upon the enemy the most magnificent I ever witnessed, and as to its effects.

The Sikh guns were served with their accustomed rapidity, and the enemy well and resolutely maintained his position; but the terrific force of the cannonade obliged them, after an obstinate resistance, to retire back. I then deployed the infantry, and ordered a general advance, covering the movement by my artillery, as before.

The village of Burra Kalra, the left one of the two of that name, in which the enemy had concentrated a large body of infantry, and which was evidently the key of their position, lay immediately in the line of Major-General Sir Walter Scott's advance, and was carried, in the most gallant style, by a spirited attack of the 3rd Brigade, under Brigadier Penny, consisting of the 1st Europeans, 31st, and 70th regiments of the infantry, which drove the enemy from the position with great slaughter.

This very spirited and successful movement was made, about the same time, against a heavy position of the enemy's troops in and about the village of Chota Kalra, by part of Brigadier Scott's brigade, most gallantly led by Lieutenant-Colonel Franks, of Her Majesty's 10th Foot. The heavy artillery continued to advance with extraordinary celerity, taking up successive positions, driving the enemy from those they retired to, whilst the rapid advance, and beautiful fire, of the horse artillery and light field batteries, which I strengthened, by bringing to the front the two reserved troops of horse artillery, Lieutenant-Colonel Brind, Brigadier Brooke having the general superintendence of the whole of the horse artillery, broke the ranks of the enemy at all points. The whole infantry line now rapidly advanced, and drove the enemy before it. The nullah was cleared, several villages stormed, the guns that were in position carried the camp captured, and the enemy routed in every direction, the right wing and Brigadier-General Campbell's division passing in pursuit to the eastward, the Bombay column to the westward of the town.

The retreat of the Sikh army, thus hotly pressed, soon became a perfect flight, all arms dispersing over the country, rapidly pursued by our troops, for a distance of twelve miles, their track strewed with their wounded, their arms, and military equipments, which they threw away to conceal that they were soldiers.

Throughout the operations thus detailed, the cavalry brigades on the flanks were threatened and occasionally attacked, by vast masses of the enemy's cavalry, which were, in every instance put to flight by the steady movements and spirited manœuvres of our cavalry, most zealously and judiciously supported by the troops of horse artillery attached to them, from whom the enemy received the severest punishment.

On the left, a most successful and gallant charge was made upon the Affghan cavalry, and a large body of Goorchurras, by the Sind horse and a party of the 9th Lancers, when some standards were captured.

The determined front shown by the 14th Light Dragoons, and the other cavalry regiments, on the right, both regular and irregular, completely overawed the enemy, and contributed much to the success of the day. The conduct of all, in following up the fugitive enemy, was beyond all praise.

competent force, under the command of Major-General Sir Walter Gilbert, resumed the pursuit towards Jhelum, on the following morning, with a view of cutting off the enemy from the only practicable gun road to the Jhelum. Another division of infantry, under Brigadier-General Campbell, advanced on the road to Bimber, clearing the country in that direction, to prevent the carrying off the guns by that route; and a division of cavalry, under Lieutenant-Colonel Bradbury, successfully pushed on several miles into the hills, and 24 from Goojerat, accompanied by that energetic political officer, Captain Nicholson, for the same purpose, whilst I remained in position on the field, for the purpose of supporting these operations, covering the fords of the Ravi, and destroying the vast magazines of ammunition left scattered in all directions. I am happy to add that these combinations have been entirely successful, the detached parties coming, at every step, on the wreck of the dispersed and routed foe.

Having thus endeavoured to convey to your Lordship the particulars of the operations of the army of Goojerat, I beg now to offer my heartfelt congratulations to your Lordship, and to the Government of India, upon the signal victory achieved, under the blessing of Divine Providence, by the united efforts, and indomitable gallantry of the noble army under my command; a victory, my Lord, as glorious to the army that achieved it, as it must be satisfactory to yourself and the Government of India, from the very important and decisive results to be expected from it.

It is quite impossible for me sufficiently to express my admiration of the gallant and steady conduct of the officers and men, as well Native as European, upon this occasion.

The brilliant service they have performed, in so signally defeating so vastly superior a force amongst whom were the élite of the old Khals army, making a last, united, and desperate struggle, will speak for itself, and will, I am confident be justly estimated by your Lordship.

I cannot too strongly express to your Lordship my deep sense of obligation to the general officers and brigadier generals, in command of divisions who so ably carried out my views, and directed the operations of their troops, on this day.

I beg to annex, for your Lordship's information, the reports I have received from them, and to bring most prominently to your Lordship's notice the brigadiers commanding brigades, the commanding officers of regiments, and troops of horse artillery, and light field batteries, and the several officers of the divisional and brigade staff enumerated in these reports in terms of such just commendation.

I feel much indebted to Major-General Sir Joseph Thackwell, for the able and judicious manner he manœuvred the cavalry, with horse artillery attached, on the left, keeping in check the immensely superior force of the enemy, whose main object was to turn my flanks. I am also greatly indebted to this tried and gallant officer, for his valuable assistance, and untiring exertions, throughout the present, and previous operations, as second in command with this force.

To Major-General Sir Walter Gilbert, whose services upon this, as on all former occasions, were invaluable, and ever marked by energy, zeal, and devotion, as well as to Major-General Whish, Brigadier-Generals Campbell and Dundas, for their able assistance, I am deeply indebted.

To Brigadier-General Tennant, commanding that splendid arm, the artillery, to whose irresistible power I am mainly indebted for the glorious victory of Goojerat, I am indeed most grateful.

picious as the artillery has ever proved itself,
 r was its superiority over that of the enemy, resistible and annihilating power, more truth-shown than in this battle. The heavy bats manœuvred with the celerity of light guns;
 the rapid advance, the scientific and judicious tion of points of attack, the effective, and well ted fire of the troops of horse artillery, and field batteries, merit my warmest praise; and g most earnestly to recommend their brave and nt commanders, with the several officers named Brigadier-General Tennant's report, to your ship's most favourable notice.

om Brigadier Cheape, the Chief Engineer, the talented officers in that department, as ed in the Brigadier's report, I have received most valuable assistance, in reconnoitring the y's position, and on the field of battle. The ers and pioneers, under that most able officer, ain Siddons, did excellent service, and were in front to overcome any obstacle to the ade of the artillery.

o the officers of the General Staff of Her Ma's service, Major Lugard, Acting Adjutanteral, and Lieutenant-Colonel Gough, Quarter-ter-General of Her Majesty's forces in India, best thanks are due; their exertions upon the ent occasion, and throughout the recent opera-, were most valuable; and I beg to bring them
 r your Lordship's favourable notice. I am lly indebted to Captain Otter, Acting Assist-Adjutant-General of Her Majesty's forces, for aluable services.

o the Officers of the General Staff of the army, t.-Colonel Grant, Adjutant-General, and t.-Colonel Garden, Quarter-Master-General, e most onerous and very important duties invariably been conducted to my entire faction, I am under the greatest obligation.

Their valuable assistance in the field, and their indefatigable exertions, throughout operations of no ordinary character, deserve my warmest thanks and your Lordship's approbation.

To Lieut.-Colonel Birch, Judge-Advocate-General, I am much indebted for his assistance upon every occasion.

To Major Tucker, Deputy-Adjutant-General, most gallant, energetic, and valuable officer; Lieutenant-Colonel Drummond, Deputy-Quarter-Master-General, whose services have been very praiseworthy; to Major Chester, Assistant-Adjutant-General, and Lieutenant Tytler, Assistant Quarter-Master-General, Lieutenant Johnson, Deputy-Judge-Advocate-General, Major Thomson, Lieutenant-Colonel Curtis, Assistant Commissary-General, and Captain C. Campbell, Paymaster to the army, I offer my best thanks for their services whilst attending me in the field, and the efficient manner they have performed the several duties.

Mr. Franklin, Inspector-General of Her Majesty's hospitals, has been unceasing in his exertions in rendering every aid to the sick and wounded of the royal service, and giving the benefit of his long professional experience in such duties; and has Dr. Renny, Superintending Surgeon of the army, who has been indefatigable in his professional exertions, and well organized medical arrangements.

I feel I cannot too prominently bring to notice the valuable exertions of Dr. Macrae, Field Surgeon, and of the medical officers of the army generally; they have been most unwearied and praiseworthy.

To Captain Ramsay, Deputy-Commissary-General, and to the officers of his department, I am much indebted, and feel grateful for their unceasing and successful exertions, amidst culties, to supply the troops, and thus preserve efficiency of the army.

The Officers of my Personal Staff have well merited my best thanks, and your Lordship's favourable notice; Captain Haines, Military Secretary, who has rendered me most valuable aid, Major-General Bates, A.D.C. Lieutenant A. J. B. A.D.C. Lieutenant S. J. Hire, A.D.C. Captain Gabbett, A.D.C. Lieutenant G. Harcourt, A.D.C. and Lieutenant W. G. Prendergast, my Persian Interpreter.

I beg also to acknowledge the valuable assistance we have received from the Political Officers, Major-General Keson, Mr. Cocks, Captain Nicholson, and Lieutenant Robinson, both in the field, and throughout the operations. I regret to add that Mr. Cocks was seriously wounded, during the action, in a rencontre with a Sikh horseman.

I would also bring to your Lordship's notice the services of Lieutenant Stannus, of the 5th Light Cavalry; this officer has commanded the cavalry party attached to my escort, throughout the operations, to my entire satisfaction. He was severely wounded on the 21st, when gallantly charging a party of the enemy's horsemen.

Major Anstruther, of the Madras artillery, Lieutenant Mayne, of the Madras cavalry, and Captain Showers, of the 14th N.L. attended me in the field.

I have, most unwillingly, been delayed from forwarding this dispatch, from the circumstance of having only this day received Brigadier-General the Honourable H. Dundas's report; and the returns of the casualty returns have not even yet reached me. As soon as the whole come in, a full and general return shall be transmitted, without loss of time, for your Lordship's information. I have the pleasure to enclose a plan of the battle of Goojerat, also a return of the captured ordnance.

P.S. — The casualty lists having arrived, I have the honour to enclose the return of killed and wounded, which I am sorry to see so much heavier than I, at first, anticipated. Several of these were occasioned by accidental explosions of the enemy's tumbrils and magazines, after the action.

to about 600 yards, and the heavy guns at 800 or 1000 yards, of the enemy's artillery, which they opened their fire about 9 o'clock.

Shortly after the action commenced, an opportunity was observed of enfilading one of the enemy's batteries, when the reserve artillery, Lieutenant-Colonel F. Brind, was advanced,

The batteries of the 3rd division engaged the enemy came up, and those with the cavalry supported their movements, as opportunity offered. Nearly the whole engagement was a cannonade, no movement of importance taking place among the batteries, which maintained their fire until half-past 11 A.M., when many of the enemy's guns were observed to be dismounted and their line broken, and an advance was ordered in pursuit.

I have the honour to state, for the Command-in-Chief's information, my perfect satisfaction with the professional exertions of the officers, and my high approbation of the steady conduct of both officers and men, during the day.

To Brigadiers Brooke, C.B. and Huthwaite, C.B. in general direction of the horse and foot artillery respectively, under my orders, Lieutenant-Colonels C. Grant and F. Brind, Majors L. Horsford, E. F. Day, and J. L. Mowatt, all of whom held commands, as well as to all the officers commanding troops and batteries above enumerated, I have to acknowledge my best thanks for their exertions, by which these results were obtained. To the Divisional Staff, Captain J. Abercrombie, Deputy-Assistant-Adjutant-General, and Lieutenant H. Tombs, Deputy-Assistant Quarter-Master-General, and to Lieutenant J. A. Olpherts, my Aide-de-Camp, I am much indebted for their exertions, and also to Captain C. Hogge, the Commissary, and Lieutenant J. Christie, Deputy-Commissary of Ordnance, for their excellent arrangement of their departments as well as for their assistance in the field.

Brigadiers Brooke and Huthwaite mention the Majors of Brigade, Lieutenant C. V. Cox and Lieutenant E. Kaye respectively, as having afforded them able assistance. I have great pleasure, finally, particularly to bring to his Excellency's notice the zeal and attention of Mr. Deputy Commissary Spencer during the day, and beg to recommend that old and deserving warrant-officer to his kind consideration.

Brigadier J. Cheape, Chief Engineer of the Army of the Punjab, to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

*Head-quarters, Camp, Goojerat,
February 26, 1849.*

In reference to General Orders of the 21st inst, I beg to submit, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, a report on the conduct of the Engineer Department, during the late operations, and the engagement of the 21st.

Major Napier, attended by Lieutenant Great-
, and Major Tremenheere, attended by Lieutenant Glover, were employed on the 21st, former with the right, the latter with the left column of attack, and were very useful from their previous examination of the ground, and, in particular, of the position of the nullah on our right

Captain Western, Lieutenants Goodwyn, Cromn, and Taylor, accompanied me, and to all the Officers my acknowledgments are due for facilitating communications, and obtaining information on every point required, during the day.

I have also the gratification to report to his Excellency the zealous and able manner in which Captain Cunningham and Lieutenant C. Paton performed the duty assigned to them, of bringing the fleet of boats ordered by his Excellency from Ramnuggur, and placing them so as to cover the portion of the army on the other side the Chenab to co-operate, and to come up:
The former officer arrived before the close of the day, and joined Brigadier-General Campbell's division.

The other officers of engineers were detached to the different divisions of the army, and no further notice of these officers is needed from me, as, whatever service they may have had an opportunity of rendering, will be more appropriate reported to his Excellency, or acknowledged, the general officers commanding each division.

Captain Siddons, commanding the sappers and pioneers, was attached to the heavy guns with a portion of his corps, the remainder being detached by companies, to the different divisions; such duty as was required from them, I need hardly say, was effectively performed; and I trust it may not be considered by his Lordship out of place, my mentioning here the gallant behaviour, and unwearied exertion, displayed by these men throughout the present service. I allude, in particular, to the siege operations at Mooltan, and the conduct of that portion of the corps who were employed there.

Prior to the engagement on the 21st instant, the officers of engineers were employed in collecting information, and in surveying and reconnoitring, and it is due to Captain Longden, of Her Majesty's 10th regiment, who is attached to the engineer department as surveyor and field engineer, to state the very able assistance he has rendered in all these duties, during the whole operations since I have joined the army.

I beg to add, that I am much indebted to Lieutenant J. H. Maxwell, for the very zealous performance of his duties, on all occasions, as Major of brigade of engineers; and to Lieutenant J. Cracroft, Brigade Quarter-master, my acknowledgments are also due; and I hope I may be permitted to recommend to his Excellency's favour Lieutenant Hutchinson, of engineers, a very promising young officer, who has been lately acting as my aide-de-camp, and who was very severely wounded, on the 21st instant.

Major-General Sir Jos. Thackwell, K.C.B., Commanding the Cavalry Division, to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

*Head-quarters, Camp, Goojerat,
February 25, 1849.*

I have the honor to report, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, the operations of the division of cavalry under my command, in the battle fought on the 21st instant, near the town of Goojerat.

The left column of cavalry, under the command of Brigadier White, C.B. consisting of the troops, named in the margin*, was assembled in column of troops at half distance, right in front, at deploying interval, on the left of the Bombay column of infantry, at 7 o'clock in the morning.

The 3rd Division of Infantry, and the Bombay Brigade, all on the left of the nullah leading

* Left Column. 1st Brigade of Cavalry.

Brigadier White, C.B. Commanding. H.M.'s 3rd Dragoons (Major Yerbary); H.M.'s 9th Lancers (Lieutenant-Colonel Fullerton); 8th Light Cavalry (Major Mackenzie); Sindh Horse (Captain Malcolm); Captain Duncan's Troop Horse Artillery; Captain Huish's Troop Horse Artillery.

† Right Column. 2nd Brigade of Cavalry.

Brigadier Lockwood, C.B. Commanding. H.M.'s 14th Light Dragoons (Lieutenant-Colonel King); 1st Light Cavalry (Lieutenant-Colonel Bradford); 2 Regiments 11th Irregular Cavalry (Captain Master); 2 Regiments 14th Irregular Cavalry (Lieutenant Roberts); Captain Warner's Troop Horse Artillery.

4th Brigade Cavalry.

Brigadier Hearsey, Commanding. 3rd Irregular Cavalry (Major Taft, C.B.); 9th Irregular Cavalry (Major Christie). The 5th and 6th Light Cavalry were left in the rear, to protect the baggage, towards Goojerat, being under my immediate superintendence, I remained on the left flank of the army, and I make no doubt Brigadier-Generals Dundas and Campbell have made you fully acquainted with the operations of the troops under their command.

On approaching the village of Nurrawalla, just without the range of the enemy's batteries, the infantry deployed into line, and Brigadier White formed his cavalry in front of that village, with its left back and parallel to a gentle rising of the ground, on which was posted the enemy's right consisting of a large body of Affghans and Goorchurra horse. From this position, a fire of round shot was opened, and the enemy's cavalry extended to the right so as to threaten to turn our left flank. To oppose the enemy's guns, I ordered Captain Duncan to move his troop of horse artillery to the front, which he did in good style and opened his fire within 500 or 600 yards. This movement was followed by the advance of Captain Huish's troop, and both did considerable execution upon the enemy, but did not prevent the attempt of the Affghans to outflank our left. The Sindie horse were on the left of my line; and I ordered them to advance, with a squadron of the 9th Lancers, under Captain Campbell, a part of the former to be in reserve, and supported by a squadron of the 9th Lancers, under Major Grant. C.B. in échelon on the right. These troops made a most brilliant charge upon the enemy; and at the same time, I advanced the guns and cavalry towards the enemy's line. The fire of the guns soon put the Goorchurras in retreat; and the glorious charge of the troops, on the left, caused their whole force to seek safety in retreat by the Barra Durree. A gun was captured during these proceedings; but, as we were then considerably in advance of the left of the infantry, although Captain

Duncan was enabled to enfilade a battery opposed them, and ignorant of the force the enemy might have between the Barra Durree and the town, a space covered with trees, it became necessary to proceed with caution, yet I soon was enabled to open a fire upon the enemy, both on the right and left of the former place, which caused them considerable loss, and hastened their retreat.

I may here observe, that all the enemy's tents were left standing near the Barra Durree, and on the Sikh right of the town, with probably much baggage in them, all which were probably plundered by the camp followers.

The enemy being now in full retreat, I moved Brigadier White's brigade well to the left front, and then forced the enemy from the Jhelum road, and eventually from that of Bimber also, cutting off large bodies of the enemy, much baggage, and many guns, which were secured by this brigade, as well as the troops of the 2nd and 4th brigades, which had been ordered to join in the pursuit. At 20 minutes past 4 P.M. none of the enemy were in sight, and being, as was said by the pioneers, nine or ten miles from Goojerat, I discontinued the pursuit, and returned to camp at the same place. In this pursuit, Captains Duncan's and Smith's troops of artillery, latterly joined by Major Leeson, with Major Blood's troop of the same arm, brought their guns to bear upon the enemy with good effect on several occasions, and their advance was as rapid as the intersected nature of the ground by nullahs would admit, and the 9th Lancers and 8th Light Cavalry made gallant attempts to close with the enemy's cavalry, which, however, were frustrated by the rapid retreat of the latter; yet a great number of the enemy were slain by this brigade in the pursuit. I witnessed the activity of Captain Unett, and part of his squadron of the 3rd Light Dragoons and Brigadier White mentions that the whole of that regiment was actively engaged in this work of retribution.

Being an eye-witness to all the movements of the 1st brigade, I have great satisfaction in stating, that Brigadier White conducted them very much to my satisfaction. I am also well satisfied with the manner in which Lieutenant Colonel Fullerton, Majors Yerbury and Mackenzie, commanded their respective regiments, and in which Major Grant supported the charge of the cavalry, on the left. The charge of the Sind horse reflects the highest credit on Captain Malcolm; and I have great pleasure in having witnessed the gallant bearing of all the officers and men of this brigade, during the operations of the day; and I feel sure that their only regret was that the enemy's cavalry so often declined the attack.

To Captains Duncan and Huish, and Major Leeson and Blood, I am much indebted for the manner in which they brought their guns into action, whenever an opportunity occurred; and the steadiness and good conduct of both officers and men were very conspicuous.

I have now the pleasing duty to state, that I have received every assistance and support from my Deputy-Assistant-Adjutant-General, Captain Pratt, on the present occasion, as well as during the campaign. To my Deputy-Assistant-Quarter-Master-General, Lieutenant Tucker, I am greatly indebted for his zeal, activity, intelligence, and successful endeavours to procure intelligence of the movements of the enemy during the operations; he, as well as my Aide-de-camp, Lieutenant Thackwell, Lieutenant Young, of the engineers, Lieutenant Carter, of the pioneers, and Cornet Beatson, of the 6th light cavalry, ac-accompanied me during the battle, and afforded me essential service in carrying my orders, on various occasions, during the operations of the day.

Brigadier White states how greatly he was satisfied with the conduct of his Brigade Major, Captain Cautley, and the whole of the officers and men of his brigade.

As the operations of the 2nd and 4th brigades of cavalry did not come under my observation, except towards the latter end of the pursuit, I have the honor to forward Brigadier Lockwood's report, and it would appear therefrom that he conducted his brigade judiciously; and I am gratified to learn that both officers and men behaved greatly to his satisfaction, and that the 14th Light Dragoons and 1st Light Cavalry conducted themselves gallantly, and evinced every anxiety to close with the enemy. I am happy to observe that the Brigadier has mentioned, with great approbation, the conduct of Lieutenant-Colonels Bradford and King, in command of their regiments, and I cannot avoid here stating, for the information of his Lordship, that I observed with much satisfaction the zeal and judgment evinced by both officers, when in command of considerable bodies of cavalry, detached from the camp at Phillianwalla, on important duties.

I regret that I have not yet received any report from Brigadier Hearsey, or return of casualties from his brigade, or the Sinde horse; these will be forwarded when they arrive.

Brigadier G. H. Lockwood, C.B. commanding the 2nd Cavalry Division, to the Deputy-Assistant-Adjutant-General, Cavalry Division, Army of the Punjab.

Camp, Goojerat, February 22, 1849.

I have the honor to report, for the information of Major-General Sir Joseph Thackwell, commanding the cavalry division, that, on the morning of the 21st, I formed my brigade, directed by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, on the right rear of the 1st division infantry, and parallel to Brigadier Markham's reserve, advancing, in this order, until the enemy opened their fire.

I then deployed the brigade in the following manner: In the first line, 5 troops of Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons, two squadrons 1st Light Cavalry, with the 1st troop 3rd Brigade Horse Artillery, on the left, escorted by a troop of the 14th, and a ressalah of the 11th irregular cavalry in support, the remainder of the 11th irregular cavalry; and in reserve, one squadron 14th, and one squadron 1st light cavalry.

In the commencement of the action, I directed Captain Warner to open his fire upon a large body of the enemy, near a village in our front; but, as they returned a heavy fire within accurate range, I changed position left back, and the horse artillery ceased firing.

The enemy's horsemen now appeared, in great force, upon our right, threatening to turn our flank; so I changed front to the right, directing the reserve to retain its front, and communicate with the infantry.

Captain Warner's guns opened with great effect upon the horsemen, and turned them; but they only retired a short distance, and then a regiment of their regular cavalry moved round by a circuitous route, and got completely into our rear. I immediately detached towards them three guns with a squadron of the 14th, who, in conjunction with Major Christie's corps of irregular cavalry, drove them off.

About this time, a large gale of horses came on towards me, and I prepared to charge; but as the turned at once from the fire of the guns, and as there was a nullah in our front, I refrained from advancing after them. The reserve, also, now advanced in support of Colonel Hervey's brigade of infantry.

I then received orders from the Commander-in-Chief to bring on the brigade, which I did, and followed in pursuit of the enemy, until I found myself parallel to the cavalry under the Major-General, when I placed myself in communication with him.

In the pursuit, the 14th Dragoons and 1st Light Cavalry cut down, or shot, a considerable number of the Sikh infantry, both regular and irregular; and Corporal William Pain, of the 14th Dragoons, captured a red silk standard, killing in single combat the horseman who bore it.

I beg to state to the Major-General that I had the greatest satisfaction in witnessing the steadiness of the troops composing the brigade, in performing several manœuvres, under a heavy fire of artillery.

My best thanks are due to Captain Warner, of the Horse Artillery, for the able and efficient manner in which he employed his guns; also to Lieutenant-Colonel Bradford, commanding the 1st Light Cavalry; Lieutenant-Colonel King, 14th Light Dragoons; Captain Master, 11th Irregular Cavalry; and Lieutenant Robarts, 14th Irregular Cavalry; and Lieutenant-Colonel Doherty, who commanded the reserve.

I am also under the greatest obligations to my Brigade Major, Captain Yule, 9th Lancers, for the essential assistance he rendered me, not only during the action, but during the period I have commanded the 2nd Brigade.

Brigadier Hearsey, 4th Brigade, commanding the Cavalry on the right flank of the Army, Captain Pratt, Assistant-Adjutant-General, Cavalry Division.

Camp, near Korie, February 23, 184

I have the honor to report to Sir Joseph Thackwell, K.C.B. and K.H. commanding the cavalry division of the Army of the Punjab, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, that agreeably to instructions received from Captain Pratt, Assistant-Adjutant-General, cavalry division, I joined, at about 8 30 A.M. of the morning of the 21st instant, the brigade of cavalry on the right under Brigadier Lockwood, with the 3rd and 9th irregular cavalry, and, as senior cavalry officer in the field on that flank, I assumed command of the whole of that arm as detailed in the margin and a troop of horse artillery under Captain Warner. Soon after, the action commenced by a cannonade, and heavy bodies of horse, amongst the apparently a regular regiment, showed in our front. The cavalry, under my command, advanced towards them, and the troop of horse artillery was sent to the front, with its support (a squadron of Her Majesty's 14th Dragoons, and a squadron of irregular horse), and opened a well-directed fire of round and shrapnell, which made the enemy fall back to a respectful distance. On this, several numerous bodies of horse went off to our right, apparently with the intention of turning that flank.

A troop of Horse Artillery pports of one Squadron of 9th Irregulars, ded by Lieutenant and Adjutant Tytler, to the front, and got under the fire of their , when several men and horses suffered und shot. It was now apparent, from the e of the sound of our guns, that the enemy a retreat, and Major Mackeson informed as the Commander-in-Chief's wish that all alry should pursue, and prevent the enemy carrying off their guns. I immediately directed Brigadier Lockwood's brigade to take a sweep to the right, and pushed on myself, with the 3rd Irregulars, and Lieutenant Roberts's ressalah, with Captain Warner's troop of horse artillery; the 9th Irregulars, and 11th, under Captain Master, following as soon as they could get clear of a deep and quaggy nullah; and we perceived the enemy in full retreat, after a canter of four miles. The artillery opened upon the masses of men, while the cavalry advanced on the flank, and overtook them near the village of Runnewall, where a great many of the Bunnoo troops were sabred and shot. In this manner the pursuit continued, until a deep nullah prevented the horse artillery getting on without delay. Here I left them with two squadrons, and pushed on again, overtaking another body, and punishing them. I detached Captain Biddulph, with half a ressalah, to ascertain the cause of a heavy cloud of dust to our left. He reported it was Sir J. Thackwell's division, and I soon after heard his battery of horse artillery open. Both divisions of cavalry were now closing on the enemy, and Captain Biddulph was so fortunate as to capture five guns, and Major Christie another that had been left in a nullah by the retreating foe. (Major Christie informs me that this gun would have been left behind, if he had not made great exertions in having it brought into camp; he disclaims the capture of it. J. B. H.) The pursuit continued to the village of Sainthul, where I met, and reported to, Sir J. Thackwell, and from whence we returned to camp. The distance the cavalry under my command went over, in pursuit, was fifteen miles. We did not get to the camp of the Irregulars, near the Barra Durree of Goojerat, until 10 o'clock at night, and had thus been fifteen hours on horseback.

I have every reason to be pleased with the con-of all the officers under my command. Some ence arose as to carrying my orders into by Brigadier Lockwood, in consequence of receiving directions from supreme authority, which I was not at the time aware, but I found most zealous, and desirous of having an oppor-ty to charge the enemy, at the head of Her ty's 14th Dragoons. The conduct of that ent, throughout the day, was most exemplary ready, and I have not the least doubt, had an tunity occurred, it would have been most ea-seized, to the utter destruction of any body ed to it. Brigadier Lockwood's report will testimony to the energy of the officers coming regiments in his brigade, as I do, most dly, of those officers commanding in the ents of Irregular Cavalry. My thanks are to Major Tait, C.B. commanding 3rd Irregu-Major Christie, commanding 9th Irregulars ; in Master, commanding 11th Irregulars ;

 Lieutenant Robarts, commanding a ressalah 14th Irregulars. The conduct of the Horse ery was beyond all praise ; and I feel much ed to Captain Warner, his officers and men, e able manner in which that noble arm was yed.

I feel much indebted also to Lieutenant Neville berlain, Brigade-Major, 4th brigade irrecavalry, for his assistance in the field during enoon, which I cannot too much appreciate, or the example he set, in several hand-to-affairs with a furious and exasperated enemy, the pursuit. Lieutenant Crawford Chama, 2nd in command, 9th irregular horse, gh still suffering from his wound, was present he regiment the whole day, thus showing his energy.

Lieutenant and Adjutant Tytler, 9th Irregulars, brought to my notice the steadiness of a squadron of that regiment, when under severe artillery fire, by which one sowar was killed, and several men and horses wounded.

I shall forward a list of casualties as soon as I can get them from the different officers in command of regiments and parties; but, from the constant marching we have had since the battle of Goojerat, and the inclement weather we are now enduring, I have not as yet been able to get them.

P.S.—I have just got the return of casualties of the 3rd and 9th Irregular Cavalry, which I have the honor to enclose.

Major-General Whish, C.B. commanding the Infantry Division, army of the Punjab, to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp, Goojerat, February 22, 1849

I have the honor to report, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, that the 1st Infantry Division, with horse artillery attached (as detailed per margin*), marched, at about half-past 7 A.M. yesterday; the 1st brigade commanded by Brigadier Hervey, in quarter distance columns, the 2nd regiment, right in front, at deploying distance, with a troop of Native Horse Artillery, on either flank, drawn up in corresponding order.

The 2nd brigade, in reserve, commanded by Brigadier Markham, and 300 to 400 yards in rear, proceeded in contiguous quarter distance columns.

* 4th Troop 1st Brigade Horse Artillery.—(Captain Mc Kenzie.)

1st Infantry Brigade.—52nd Regiment Native Infantry; Her Majesty's 10th Foot; 8th Regiment Native Infantry.

4th Troop 3rd Brigade Horse Artillery.—(Captain Anderson, except 2 guns at Wuzerabad.)

3rd Company of Pioneers.—Lieutenant Mc Mullin, reserve.

2nd Infantry Brigade.—51st Regiment Native Infantry; Her Majesty's 32nd Foot; 72nd Regiment Native Infantry.

After advancing about two miles or more, the ny opened their fire, and after the army had e some further progress, both brigades, agree-to His Lordship's orders (and taken up the left) deployed, the Horse Artillery forming thereto. Immediately afterwards, the os of Horse Artillery and skirmishers (of the brigade) were ordered to the front, the latter 00 yards distance. I then requested Brigadier kham to take ground to the left, that the val made by the advance of Captain Anderfour guns might be covered by the 72nd ve Infantry. Both troops began a spirited onade, and continued it for about three hours, he rate of forty rounds per gun, per hour, the enemy's guns in our front (like those I ve in front of every part of the line, through ilar treatment) were silenced.

During the cannonade, on first receiving an e for the further advance of both troops, I t from Major Garbett, who was in command em, that the guns on our left front had had any horses killed and disabled, that they must t the arrival of others from the rear, which served were making quick progress to their s ; and which, shortly afterwards, I regret to lost its gallant Captain, who was mortally
 ver, to be efficiently prosecuted, under the intendence of Lieutenants Francis and Mec-to the former of whom the command immely devolved.

After this, both troops being well advanced to front, and the enemy making one or two tening demonstrations, I thought it right to a requisition on the cavalry for a small hment for their protection, which was ptly complied with, by Brigadier Lockwood.
 the advance of the line being directed, the right brigade found the enemy's infantry in great force in its front, with a strong body of cavalry on their left, which rendered it necessary for Brigadier Hervey to make a short flank movement to the right, and throw back the 52nd Native Infantry in order to counteract any attack the enemy might have in contemplation.

As this, unavoidably, caused a great gap in the line, I thought it advisable to direct Brigadier Markham, at once, to occupy it by his brigade, which was accordingly done, and the arrangements immediately reported to his Excellency. The enemy were otherwise preparing to take advantage of this opening, but, on seeing the 2nd brigade advancing to it, halted, and gave a few rounds of grape and matchlock fire, which was returned with full effect by file firing from the right divisions and Lieutenant Francis's guns, which latter were being replenished with ammunition, and, for the moment, in rear of the infantry. Lieutenant Need, Aide-de-Camp, on noticing the enemy's cavalry and infantry immediately in front of the 2nd brigade, had made known the same to Lieutenants Francis and Mecham, who, on his suggestion, instantly galloped to the front, through an interval made for the purpose by Her Majesty's 32nd regiment, and with a few rounds of grape co-operated with the infantry (who were advancing to charge) in sending back the enemy in great confusion.

In the flank movement by the 1st brigade, already adverted to, and which, under a heavy fire from the enemy of round grape, and matchlock, with the re-formation to line, (on discovering that the enemy did not make the anticipated attack) was effected in the most steady and orderly manner, Captain Mackenzie, by his able and judicious co-operation, made his troop particularly useful, and, on the enemy's declining to receive charge of Her Majesty's 10th, and the 8th, and Native Infantry, poured in such a continued shower of shrapnell and round, upon their retiring ranks, as, with what had occurred from the 2nd division, effectually to prevent any further threat of molestation to the division under my command; as far as I could observe, every part of the attack had been equally successful in defeating the ranks of the enemy, who, long before noon, must have discovered that the entire loss of their ammunition, camp equipage, and cattle, was inevitable.

On reaching Goojerat, the 2nd brigade, agreeable to his Lordship's orders, commenced collecting the enemy's abandoned guns, nineteen of which were sent in by them forthwith, and entered the town, with the following details, Major Case, Her Majesty's 32nd regiment, which was afterwards reinforced by the 36th regiment Native Infantry):

Two companies of Her Majesty's 32nd regiment, Captain Pigott ;

Two companies 51st regiment Native Infantry, Lieutenant Wallace.

The possession of the eight gates was first taken, when of the fort, where about eighty of the enemy laid down their arms, and were made over prisoners to the 36th regiment Native Infantry, other small parties found in different parts of the town, that, with few exceptions, made no resistance. The above four companies captured standards, and some horses, with the loss of one man killed of Her Majesty's 32nd, and another of the same corps wounded, Lieutenant Pigott. The 1st brigade, on halting here, detached a sub-division of Her Majesty's 10th regiment, and the grenadier company of 52nd regiment Native Infantry, to expel a party of 200 of the enemy in occupation of the temple and garden, in rear of which the 8th regiment Native Infantry now encamped, which was effected with trifling loss on our side; but the enemy had thirty or forty killed and wounded, and a great number taken prisoners.

- It is particularly satisfactory to me to bring the favorable notice of the Commander-in-Chief to the conduct of the division under my command during the services of yesterday, performed under his Lordship's immediate orders and direction, and consisting of, in fact, the Horse Artillery and Infantry of the Bengal (Mooltan) field force, with the exception of the 49th regiment of Native Infantry on detached duty. Brigadiers Hervey and Markham conducted their brigades, under various circumstances of the day (some of which I have briefly specified), in a manner that merited the strongest commendation, and they were, heretofore, admirably supported by the officers in command of regiments; viz.:

Lieut.-Colonel Franks, C.B. H. M.'s 10th Regt.
Ditto Brooke, do. 32nd do.

Major Farquharson, 8th Regiment Native Infantry, and, on his being severely wounded, Brevet Major Williams.

Brevet Major Griffin, 51st Regt. N. Infantry.
Captain Jamieson, 52nd do. do. do.
Do. Lloyd, 72nd do. do. do.

I cordially unite with both Brigadiers in the expression of thanks to the above officers, for the intelligence and zeal with which they carried out their orders, and to all the officers and men under their command, for the steadiness and prompt obedience so uniformly evinced throughout the division.

Brigadier Hervey acknowledges the services of his Brigade Major, Captain Wiggins, in high terms of commendation; and the active assistance he ceived, throughout the day, from Lieutenant B. (34th Regiment Native Infantry), Interpreter Her Majesty's 10th regiment; as does Brigadier Markham those of his Brigade Major, Captain Balfour, Her Majesty's 32nd regiment (who happily recovered from the wound he received the action of the 12th September last), and of sign Fraser, 23rd regiment, appointed Acting Interpreter of the 49th regiment Native Infantry, who is awaiting the arrival of the regiment from Coltan, and who gladly made his services useful to the Brigadier.

To Major Garbett, commanding the Horse Artillery attached to my division, my best acknowledgments are due, for his unremitting attention to both troops under his command, and particularly in matters the officers commanding them were not so able to give directions about. He mentions in the highest terms (as does Brigadier Hervey) Captain Mackenzie and his troop, and notices that, after the lamented death of Captain J. Anderson, four guns of his troop were well commanded by Lieutenant Francis; and I heartily concur in the testimony he bears to the admirable conduct of the officers and men of both troops, who worked their guns with a rapidity and precision that could have been impracticable, except from their firm coolness and steadiness, under a heavy fire from the enemy at both positions, 1st at 1000 yards, and 2ndly at 500 yards. Major Garbett notices, in most favourable terms, the assistance rendered him by Lieutenant De Teissier, Acting Adjutant 1st Brigade Horse Artillery. Lieutenant McMullin and his company of pioneers deserve much credit, having continued with the 4th Troop 1st Brigade Horse Artillery, rendered useful service whenever called upon. Having but recently had my attention drawn to the circumstances I am about to mention, I think, in justice to the gallant officer affected by them, I may be permitted so to do, though they refer to anterior conflicts with the enemy. On the 12th September last, after Lieutenant-Colonel Pattoun was mortally wounded, the command of the six companies of Her Majesty's 32nd regiment devolved on Major Inglis, and, through the exertions of the gallant troops employed, the enemy's strong position was carried; and a similar result occurred on the 7th of November last, when from Lieutenant-Colonel Brooke having the command of one of the two columns of attack, that of Her Majesty's 32nd regiment again devolved on Major Inglis, whose conduct in that important trust was highly satisfactory to the Brigadier commanding; and I have accordingly great satisfaction in soliciting the favourable notice of his Excellency to the same.

Major Napier (attended by Lieutenant Greathead) of Engineers, who was attached, for the day, to the two divisions on the right, aided me much, by occasionally reconnoitring positions we were approaching; and in giving me the advantage of his reconnoissance of the preceding day. Captain Glasfurd and Lieutenant R. B. Smith, of Engineers, having been directed to join me, were extremely useful, during the day; and I feel much indebted to both, as also to Captain Cheape (51st Native Infantry), late treasurer to the Mooltan field force, who attended me throughout, and for whom it was not difficult to find frequent and active employment.

Major Becher, Assistant-Quartermaster-General, and Captain Whish, Deputy-Assistant Adjutant-General of the division, as also my aides-de-camp, Captain J. C. Kennedy, Her Majesty's 18th Foot, and Lieutenant A. Neill, Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons, afforded me every assistance, and are entitled to my beanks for their attention and zeal. The horse the Deputy-Assistant-Adjutant-General from ich he had just dismounted, having, on the nnement of our cannonade, been severely unded by a cannon-shot, it was some time ore another could join from the rear, and, in-mediately, a camel served him as a tolerable stitute.

I beg respectfully, in conclusion, to offer to the mmander-in-Chief my hearty congratulations the complete success of his Lordship's arrange-nts for the day, and on an issue which, under vine Providence, has been permitted to be st triumphant.

Major-General Sir W. R. Gilbert, K.C.B. commanding the 2nd Infantry Division, Army of the Punjab, to the Adjutant-General.

Camp, Nowrungaabad, February 24, 1849.

I have to apologize for the delay which has taken place in complying with general orders of the 21st instant, directing reports of the proceedings of the troops employed against the enemy to be forwarded for the information of the Commander-in-Chief; but having been, as you are aware, constantly on the move since the morning after the action near Goojerat, in pursuit of the fugitive Sikh army, I have not had any opportunity of doing so.

I have now to report, for the information of your Lordship, that the 2nd Infantry Division, consisting of the troops mentioned in the margin*,

* 3rd Brigade.

31st Regiment Native Infantry.

2nd European Regiment.

advanced from Shadewal, on the morning of the 21st instant, in line of quarter distance column at deploying distance, leaving a battery of heavy guns under Major Horsford of the Artillery between the two brigades, No. 17 light field battery under command of Captain Dawes, and Breve Major Fordyce's troop of Horse Artillery, between the right regiments of the left and right brigades respectively.

Having received orders to push forward my light troops, to force the enemy to show their position, I immediately advanced the troop of Horse Artillery, and Dawes' light field battery, which instantly drew a very heavy and well directed fire from two large batteries, which the enemy had established on either side of the village of Kalra, by which they were nearly screened from the fire of our guns, which, with the light companies, were then still further pushed forward followed by the division which had deployed into line; the heavy guns in our centre at this time opening a very destructive cannonade. Up to this time, the village above named seemed to be unoccupied, and I directed a party of infantry to take possession of it. Upon the approach of this party, a tremendous fire of musquetry was opened from the walls, which were loopholed in every direction: the 2nd European Regiment was then ordered up in support, under the command of Major Steel, and soon carried it, after a most obstinate resistance, in which that gallant regiment suffered rather severely, as well as upon its emerging from the village; soon after which, the enemy left many of their guns, and fled in the greatest confusion.

It affords me the highest satisfaction to record the valuable services of Brigadier A. S. H. Mounttain, C.B. and of Brigadier N. Penny, C.B. who led the 2nd European Regiment to the attack of the llage, in the most gallant and exemplary manner. I should wish particularly to mention the very great assistance I received from Major Horsford, commanding the heavy battery, and Major Force, commanding 2nd troop 2nd brigade H.A., and Captain Dawes, commanding No. 17 light field battery: it is impossible to praise too highly their conduct and that of all those under their command.

I beg likewise to bring to his Excellency's notice, the valuable assistance I received from my divisional and personal Staff, Bt. Captain J. A. D. Bergusson, Deputy-Assistant-Adjutant-General; Lieutenant A. S. Galloway, Deputy-Assistant-Quartermaster-General; Lieutenant Colt, Aide-de-camp; Captain Sherwill, and Lieutenant Macdonnell, Majors of Brigade; and Captain Goldie and Lieutenant Irwin, of the Engineers.

Captain W. P. Robbins, 15th N.I. who acted as my Aide-de-camp during the action, afforded me great and active assistance, as did also Lieutenant B. Hopper, 31st N.I. (Orderly Officer.)

My warmest thanks are due to Lieutenant-Colonel Congreve, C.B. H.M.'s 29th Foot, Lieutenant-Colonel Jack, 30th N.I. and Lieutenant-Colonel Holmes, 56th N.I. and to Majors J. Steel, 1st European Regiment, W. R. Corfield, 31st N.I. and J. R. McCausland, 70th N.I. (severely wounded in the attack on the village of Kalra), for the exemplary manner in which they led their regiments. I trust I may be permitted to bring to his Excellency's notice the name of Brevet Captain G. Gordon, 50th N.I. Officiating Sub-assistant-Commissary-General, who, at my request, destroyed the enemy's camp equipage and all its ammunition.

The conduct of all the troops under my command, European and Native, under a terrific and well-directed cannonade, was such as to call for my highest commendation.

In conclusion, I regret that, in consequence of our being so constantly on the move, since the action, I am unable to forward herein the returns of casualties, but I shall do myself the honour to transmit them with the least possible delay.

P.S.—In the absence of the regular returns, I may here add that the amount of loss is very trifling, considering the heavy fire kept up by the enemy's artillery on the centre of the division where the heavy guns were, the 2nd European Regiment having only lost 8 men killed, and 11 wounded; the 31st N.I. 11 men killed, and 11 wounded; and 70th N.I. 10 killed, 40 wounded.

In the 4th Brigade, H.M.'s 29th Regiment lost only 2 men, and 6 wounded; the 30th N.I. 11 men wounded; and the 56th N.I. only one man wounded.

Brigadier-General C. Campbell, commanding the 3rd Division, Army of the Punjab, to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp, Dowlutnugger, February 23, 1849

I have the honour to report to you, for the information of the Commander-in-chief, that, in obedience to the orders I received from his Lordship at daylight of the 21st instant, I formed the brigades of the 3rd division, commanded by Brigadiers Carnegy and McLeod, with the light field batteries attached to them, close to the left bank of the nullah which passed in front of the village of Shadewal, a little after 7 A.M. The brigade, under Brigadier Hoggan, was formed at the same time in rear, to act as a reserve to the whole force intended to be employed on that side of the nullah.

In the advance to the attack of the enemy's position, his Lordship desired me to keep close to the left side of the nullah, and to preserve my communication with the heavy guns, which were placed on the opposite bank.

His Lordship further directed me to approach, but not to pass, that part of the nullah, behind which the right of the enemy's army was formed, without further instructions from him.

With a view to the effectual fulfilment of his Lordship's wishes, to maintain close communication with the heavy guns on my right, and to prevent their molestation by the enemy from the nullah, I directed the Light Company of H. M.'s 11th to occupy, and move along the nullah, in advance of the heavy guns; and, to render the communication more secure, I supported this company with two guns from No. 10 light field battery, which moved close along the bank of the nullah.

The two brigades were formed, in the first instance, in contiguous columns of regiments (the brigades at full distance), covered by a strong line of skirmishers, and these immediately supported by Nos. 5 and 10 light field batteries, attached to them respectively. These skirmishers communicated, on the left, with those covering the front of the Bombay division, which were likewise supported by the troop of Horse Artillery belonging to that force. The whole line moved forward at a quarter before 8 A.M. in this order, with the regularity of troops at a review. The country we passed over in our advance was perfectly level, highly cultivated, and without an obstruction, being merely dotted here and there with an occasional tree.

At half-past 9, the skirmishers having arrived within long range of the enemy's guns, the columns were deployed into line, when we again moved forward. At this time, the right wing of the enemy's army was plainly to be seen, formed directly in our front, beyond a turn in the nullah which seemed to run parallel to the front of the position, in the centre of which, and nearly opposite to Nos. 5 and 10 light field batteries, they had two very heavy guns, and several six and nine pounder field guns which then opened fire; the fire from the former, in the first instance, caused some loss in the batteries, and here it was, I regret to say, that Lieutenant Day, of the Artillery, a very brave and most promising young officer, was killed by a cannon ball.

The line moved onwards to the front, keeping in communication with, and as much as possible in the alignment of, the heavy guns, while the field batteries kept up so destructive a fire upon the enemy in their front, in position behind the nullah, that they finally obliged the whole force to abandon it, and take shelter under cover of the bank of the nullah, and from which they were afterwards driven, in confusion and flight, by the enfilading fire from the same field batteries.

About three-quarters of an hour before the enemy had been finally driven in flight from the nullah and from the field, a great effort was made by many, apparently of the principal chiefs, to bring forward a large body of their cavalry, which was followed, in a tumultuous manner, by the infantry which had taken shelter in the nullah, to attack the centre of the Bombay division. This attack was taken in flank by No. 5 field battery and caused great loss to the enemy, both in killed and short advance, and subsequent retreat.

The infantry of the 3rd division had not occasion to fire a shot; the enemy were driven from their different positions, and from the field, by the fire of those two field batteries, aided by the fire of the Bombay Troop of Horse Artillery.

I cannot find language to express my sense of the calm, steady, and admirable manner in which these two batteries were commanded, and worked, by Major Mowatt, the commanding officer, and Major Ludlow and Lieutenant Robertson, the former commanding No. 5, the latter No. 10 battery, nor am I able adequately to express my admiration of the bravery and gallantry of the senior officers of these batteries, and of their non-commissioned officers and men, all of whom I beg to recommend, in an especial manner, to the favorable notice of the Commander-in-Chief.

After the troops had crossed the nullah, I received his Lordship's orders to follow the troops of the right wing in their movement towards the west side of Goojerat, while the Bombay division cleared the town on the other side. After clearing the town, the division again resumed its communication with the Bombay troops, and proceeded with them in advance, together with the troops of the 2nd division on our right, until ordered to halt, and encamp.

I beg leave to bring to the favorable notice of the Commander-in-chief the conduct of Brigadiers Burney and McLeod, to whom I feel much indebted, for the brave example they set their men, and for the officer-like manner in which they managed their respective brigades, during the day. Brigadier Hoggan, commanding the reserve, was under the immediate orders of Brigadier-Generalundas, on the left.

The two former Brigadiers speak, in strong terms, of the merits and services, during the day, of their respective Brigade Majors, Captain Burke, of the 25th Native Infantry, and Captain Miller, of the 6th Native Infantry, and I can confirm their opinion of the zeal, activity, and value of these officers' services, from my own personal observation.

I beg also to recommend to the favourable notice of the Commander-in-Chief the conduct of the several officers commanding regiments, who all set an example of the greatest gallantry in their respective corps, viz. Lieutenant-Colonel Smith, H. M.'s 24th Regiment, Lieutenant-Colonel Corbett, 25th Native Infantry, Lieutenant-Colonel Jones, H. M.'s 61st, Major Tudor, 46th Native Infantry, and Captain Lang, 36th Native Infantry. They are all truly deserving of his Lordship's favourable notice and approbation. Lieutenant-Colonel Jones, of H. M.'s 61st, speaks, in terms of praise, of the assistance he received from the two majors of that regiment, Major Campbell and Major Stephens; and Lieutenant-Colonel Smith, of H. M.'s 24th Regiment, in a similar manner, notices the conduct of Major Blachford of that corps.

I received, during the day, the most cordial and valuable assistance from Major Ponsonby, Assistant Adjutant-General of the Division, to whom I found a real pleasure in being associated on service, and to whom I owe great obligations for the able and careful manner in which he conducted the duties of his department.

I beg to recommend, to the particular notice of his Lordship the Commander-in-Chief, the conduct of Ensign Garden, Deputy-Assistant Quartermaster-General, to whom I am also under many obligations for the zeal and ability with which he performs his various duties.

Captain Durand and Lieutenant Morton, of the Engineers, were attached to the 3rd Division during the action, and accompanied me during the day: they rendered me valuable assistance, and I owe to them, accordingly, my warmest acknowledgments.

I cannot conclude this report without also bringing to the notice of the Commander-in-Chief the willing and valuable assistance afforded me by my Aide-de-Camp, Captain Hagthorne, and also by my brother officer Lieutenant Shadwell, of Her Majesty's 98th Regiment, who was present in the action as a volunteer.

I beg, herewith, to enclose a return of the killed and wounded, together with a present state of the troops actually engaged, and returns of the quantity of ammunition expended.

Brigadier-General the Honorable H. Dundas, C.B. commanding the Bombay Column, Army of the Punjab, to the Adjutant-General of the Bengal Army.

Head-quarters, Camp, Saiherwalla, February 22nd, 1849.

I have the honor to inform you that, agreeably to the orders I received, the Bombay Infantry Division was formed on the left of the line. I advanced, for some distance, in contiguous columns at quarter distance, the 60th Rifles under Lieutenant-Colonel Bradshaw, and 3rd Troop Horse Artillery under Major Blood, being thrown in advance. The division deployed into line, and gradually advanced, as the attack on the right developed itself. A party of the enemy's horse made a demonstration of attacking the line, but speedily moved off to their own right, on receiving one or two rounds from Major Blood's troop. A battery of the enemy, which was in front of the Bengal Division, was also quickly silenced by this troop, which made excellent practice. The division kept gradually advancing, without firing a shot, the enemy moving off so fast we could not reach him, the Artillery taking every advantage of opening its fire that was afforded. The infantry kept constantly advancing, passing through the enemy's camp, which was left standing, and round the town of Goojerat on the left, bringing up the left shoulders. The ground, at the first, was studded with bushes and hedges of prickly pear which caused some delay in getting through ; and on reaching the open country again, not a sign of the enemy was to be seen. Two guns were abandoned by him, on this side of the town. Not a casualty occurred in the infantry division, or in the troop, with the exception of two horses. The troop, afterwards, accompanied Major-General Sir Joseph Thackwell's Division of Cavalry, in the pursuit of the enemy, and it has been reported to me by Brigadier Leeson, commanding Bombardment Artillery, that it rendered good service. The 1st Sinde Horse, under Lieutenant Malcolm, having been attached, for the day, to Major-General Sir Joseph Thackwell's Division, I had not an opportunity of witnessing a most successful and gallant charge which was made by that distinguished regiment against a party of the enemy's Horse, which was completely overthrown, with the loss of their standards ; and the attempt to turn our left, which the enemy showed a disposition to try, altogether frustrated. This success was gained without some loss, which amounted to three killed, and sixteen or seventeen wounded. The 1st field-battery, under Capt. Turnbull, was attached to the force protecting the baggage. Where the troops never came in contact with the enemy, who moved off with the utmost rapidity, there is little room for remark on their conduct, beyond making a steady and regular advance, and for a long distance, and preserving a good order of formation. I had every reason to be satisfied with the conduct of all, and my thanks are due to Brigadier Capon, commanding the 1st Infantry Brigade, Lieutenant-Colonel Bradshaw, commanding 60th Rifles, Major Hallett, commanding 3rd Regiment N.I. Major Mignan, commanding 1st Bomb

Fusiliers, Major Mant, commanding 19th Regiment
 I. I. ; Brigadier Leeson, commanding the artillery, rendering every assistance ; and Major Blood, in command of the troop, is entitled to every credit, for the efficient service the troop was enabled to perform.

The steady and good order in which the brigade of the Bengal army moved, under Brigadier Loggan, which was in support of the Bombay division, was very praiseworthy.

I am indebted to the officers of the Divisional staff for the active assistance they afforded me.
 Major Green, Assistant-Adjutant-General, Captain Hart, Deputy-Assistant-Adjutant-General ; Captain Ramsay, the Assistant-Quartermaster-General ; Captain Skinner, the Deputy Judge Advocate-General ; Major St. John, Paymaster-General ; Lieutenant Mules of the 1st Fusiliers, Postmaster ; Lieutenant Ward, 60th Rifles, my Aide-de-Camp ; and Lieutenant Crawley, 15th Hussars, Aide-de-Camp to Major-General Aitchison, commanding the Mysore Division, who officiated as my Aide-de-Camp. Brigadier Capon also reports favourably of the assistance he derived from Captain Stiles, Major of Brigade, and Lieutenant Gordon, 60th Rifles, who officiated as Aide-de-Camp. Lieutenant Stevenson, Brigade-Major of Artillery, rendered every assistance in his department. The sappers and miners, under Lieutenant Kendall, were kept prepared for any duty that might have been required in sloping down nullahs for the guns, &c. but the ground was so favorable for the movement of the troops, that their exertions were not required in this duty. My thanks are also due to Captain Threshie, Assistant-Commissary-General, on this occasion, as also for the efficient manner in which the duties of his department have been conducted.

Lieutenant Henry, 19th Regiment Native Infantry, Aide-de-Camp to the Governor of Bombay, and who was placed in political charge of the prisoner of war, the Dewan Moolraj, joined me the afternoon, having ridden post from Lahore, purpose to be present, after delivering over charge of his prisoner on the 20th instant.

Herewith I enclose a list of casualties, which principally in horses, together with a return of ammunition expended.

Major J. S. Leeson, Brigadier, command Artillery Brigade, Bombay Division, to Assistant Adjutant-General, Bombay Division

Camp, Goojerat, February 22nd, 184

In compliance with your order, I have the honor to report that the 3rd, or Major Blood's troop of Horse Artillery, was ordered to accompany the cavalry division under General Sir Joseph Thackwell, K.C.B. at about half-past one yesterday to follow the enemy, who were then retreating. With this troop I proceeded, accompanied by Lieutenant Hamilton and my staff.

After proceeding at a trot and gallop for about nine miles, we joined the Cavalry Division, and soon joined the enemy's rear, and, at a distance of about 400 yards, opened fire, with manifest good effect: they were then attempting to carry their guns; and a considerable body of cavalry was hovering round to afford them protection: but they were unable to effect, as our well-directed fire soon obliged the enemy to abandon their guns, camels, carts, bullocks, &c. and a great proportion of their baggage, which fell into our hands.

The enemy still continuing to retreat in a disorderly manner, we advanced at a gallop about three miles, and again opened fire with such effect that they were compelled to abandon another gun.

We again advanced some distance further, and were halted by order of the General commanding, who proceeded, and at a quarter to 5 P.M. we began to fall back towards camp, which we reached at half-past three o'clock, P.M.

FROM THE

of MAY 3, 1849.

India Board, May 2, 1849.

THE dispatch, of which the following is an extract, and the accompanying papers, have been this day received at the East India-House from the Governor-General of India.

The Governor-General of India to the Secret Committee.

Camp, Ferozepore, March 24, 1849.

(Extract.)

The victory of Goojerat, followed up, as it has been, with unflinching vigor by Sir Walter Gilbert, has led to the delivery of the British prisoners, and the surrender of the Sikh chiefs, with all the g at still remained to them, and the entire prosecution of the Sikh army. These important results have been obtained, without another shot being fired.

On the 8th instant, the enemy, about 16,000 strong, were at Rawul Pindee, thirty-one miles in advance of the position which Sir Walter Gilbert had reached. In the evening, Mrs. Lawrence and her children, with others of the British prisoners, arrived in the General's camp. The next day, accompanied by Raja Shere Sing, Lall Singh, Morareea, and 450 followers, came in a few hours afterwards. On the following day, Shere Sing returned to Rawul Pindee, to arrange with the enemy's troops for their unconditional capitulation. Sir Walter Gilbert, however, determined to continue his advance, and to close up his rear division, for the purpose of moving on the enemy's position. On the 18th, he was at Manikyala, where Sirdar Khan Sing Majeetia came, and offered his submission, bringing with him his armed retainers, about 1000 men, with some guns. On the 11th, he was at Hoormook, on the west bank of the Sohan River. There Sirdar Gurmurtur Sing, Raja Shere Sing, and several other Sirdars and officers of the Sikh army, arrived in his camp, gave up their swords, and handed over seventeen guns, intimating that others were on their way.

On the 14th, the General reached Rawul Pindee, and received the surrender of the whole body of the Sikh army, the Sirdars surrendering their swords, in the presence of the commanding officers of the divisions and brigades, and their staffs. The total number of guns given up was forty-one, and 10,000 stand of arms were laid down. I have since learnt that the arms amount to more than 10,000.

All the Sirdars that were in arms have surrendered, with the exception of two, Bhacee Mah raj Sing, (still alive, it seems,) and Col Richpaul Sing, who have absconded, but witho adherents.

"We have now," writes his Excellency t Commander-in-Chief, "in our possession, guns, taken at Goojerat, and abandoned by t enemy in his retreat, on the 21st of February 41, surrendered to Major-General Sir W. Gilbe since that event—12, captured at Chillianwalla and 50, at Mooltan—making a total of 158 piec of ordnance, which have fallen into our han during the present campaign."

In offering to Major-General Gilbert, and the whole army, my heartfelt congratulations up the events above related, the results of the bat of Goojerat, and of the operations subsequent it, so admirably conducted by the Major-Gener in fulfilment of his Excellency the Commande in-Chief's instructions, I did not allow the glo of these results to conceal the fact that, althou the Sikh enemy was humbled to the dust, and his power utterly crushed, there still remain another, whose wanton and insolent hostility d manded speedy chastisement. I cannot regard t war as concluded—I cannot say that peace restored—until Dost Mahomed Khan and the A ghan enemy are either driven from the provin of Peshawur, or destroyed within it. This may —I hope it is,—the case even now. I have hear already, of Sir W. Gilbert being at Attock, whi the enemy evacuated, on his approach. This ene getic officer made a forced march of thirty-o miles to that fortress, in order to secure the brid of boats on the Indus from being burnt or d stroyed; and, in this object, he has been quite su cessful, having secured no less than seventy boats, after the bridge had been broken by t retreating Affghans. The Major-General write that he hopes to cross the river with the Bengal division, on the afternoon of the 19th instant, and intends to push on, after the flying enemy, with all expedition. He must, by this time, have reached Peshawur ; and the Ameer will hardly venture to meet him in the field.

General Order by the Right Honorable the Governor-General of India.

Camp, Ferozepore, March 17, 1849.

The Governor-General has the utmost satisfaction in directing that the dispatches which he has, this day, received from his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, and from Major General Sir Walter Gilbert, K.C.B. be published for the information of the Army, and of the People of India.

The British subjects who were prisoners in the hands of the enemy have all returned in safety.

On the 14th instant, Sirdar Chuttur Sing, Raja Shere Sing, and the principal Sikh Sirdars and Chiefs, delivered their swords into the hands of Major-General Sir Walter Gilbert.

Forty-one pieces of artillery were, at the same time, surrendered ; and the remains of the Sikh army, to the number of 16,000 men, laid down their arms, in the presence of the British troops.

The Governor-General offers to his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, to Major-General Gilbert, and to the whole Army, his heartfelt congratulations on this glorious result of the battle of Goojerat, and of the operations subsequent to it, so admirably conducted by the Major-General, in fulfilment of his Excellency's instructions.

But the war is not yet concluded : nor can there be any cessation of hostilities, until Dost Mahomed Khan and the Affghan army are either driven from the province of Peshawur, or destroyed within it.

The British army has, already, resumed march upon Attock; and the Governor-General confidently hopes, that the entire success which, with God's blessing, will attend it, may enable him soon to announce the restoration of peace.

The Governor-General directs that, in honor of the important events which have now been notified, a salute of 21 guns be fired, from every principal station of the army in India.

The Commander-in-Chief to the Governor-General of India.

*Head-quarters, Camp, Kullalla
March 16, 1849.*

I have the greatest gratification in reporting to your Lordship the further happy results of the decisive victory obtained at Goojerat, on the 21st ultimo.

Major-General Sir Walter Gilbert, with the energy and judgment which induced me to select him to conduct the ulterior operations subsequent to that action, has well fulfilled the trust reposed in him, by rapidly pressing the routed enemy, which has led to their unqualified submission, the surrender of their remaining guns, and about 16,000 stand of arms, all of which are now in our possession; and I rejoice to add, that this fortunate consummation has been obtained without a single shot being fired.

The whole of the Sikh force, with their Sirdar, have now come in, with the exception of Bha Maharaj, and Colonel Richpaul Sing, who have absconded, but without followers.

We have now in our possession 56 guns taken at Goojerat, and abandoned by the enemy in their retreat, on the 21st of February; 40 surrendered to Major-General Sir Walter Gilbert since that event ; 12 captured at Chillianwalla ; and 50 at Mooltan ; making a total of 158 pieces of ordnance, which have fallen into our hands during the present campaign.

Major-General Sir W. R. Gilbert, K.C.B. Commanding Field Force on Special Service, to the Secretary to the Government of India with the Governor-General.

Camp, Rawul Pindee, March 14, 1849.

Since I addressed you, on the 11th instant, from Hoormook, I have advanced to Rawul Pindee, which place I reached to-day.

I have now the high gratification of reporting, for the information of the Governor-General of India, that the disarming of the Sikh army, commenced at Manikyala, has been, this day, completed, by the surrender of their swords by the Sikh Sirdars, in presence of the commanding officers of divisions and brigades, and their staff.

The total number of guns surrendered is 41, of which a return shall be forwarded hereafter ; and the number of stand of arms laid down, before the force under my command, is about 16,000.

Major-General Sir W. R. Gilbert, K.C.B. to the Adjutant-General.

Camp, near Attock, March 18, 1849.

Since my dispatch from Rawul Pindee, of the 14th instant, I have advanced to this place, and beg to report, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, that I am, to-day, in possession of the fort of Attock.

On the 15th instant, the Bengal division of the force under my command moved to Jani-Ke-Sung, 17 miles, and, on the 16th, reached Wah, after a march of 14 miles. While at Wah, intelligence reached me that the bridge over the river Indus was still standing, and that Attock was occupied by the Affghan troops: seeing, at once, the importance of securing the bridge, or, at all events, the boats forming it, or such of them as could be rescued from the hands of the enemy, I resolved upon advancing on Attock, by a forced march of thirty-one miles, relying with confidence on the utmost exertion being made, by every officer and soldier under my command, to effect so great an object as that of securing the means of rapid crossing the river Indus. This confidence has not been misplaced.

At 6 o'clock P.M. on the 16th, the force moved from Wah, bivouacked for a few hours at Boora, and reached Shumshabad about sunrise. From Shumshabad, after feeding the horses, I pushed on with my cavalry and artillery, to Attock, before which fortress I arrived, with the cavalry, at half past 11 o'clock, the artillery coming up at 1 P.M. The fort of Attock I found to be evacuated, and the rear-guard of the Affghan army was in the act of crossing the bridge of boats. Our troops had hardly shown themselves, when the bridge was broken up, and many of the boats allowed to float down the river.

The enemy was drawn up in force on the right bank, and on the sloping ground extending from the river to the hills in his rear: on the right bank he had placed three batteries, two of them of three guns each; the third or right battery consisted of a larger number of guns. To the right was the fort of Khyrabad, where he had placed two guns, outside that fortress. Each battery was supported by a regiment of regular infantry; and crowds of irregulars, both infantry and cavalry, were formed on the sloping ground in rear of his guns.

From his position, with a rapid river in his front, I was led to expect that he would have offered some resistance to our passage ; but, in this belief I was mistaken, and was disappointed by his moving off, almost immediately on my arrival with the cavalry, and before my guns could come up.

The batteries on the river side, and the guns at Khyrabad, opened upon such parties as showed themselves, while the guns remained in position ; and an exchange of musketry was kept up by the Jezzailchies and some of our troops, until late in the day, but, apparently, without loss on either side.

Seventeen boats have been secured, and are sufficient to form a bridge, which shall be made with all possible dispatch. I hope to cross the river, with the Bengal division, on the afternoon of the 19th instant, and shall push on, after the flying enemy, with all expedition.

The Secretary with the Governor-General to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp, Ferozepore, March 10, 1849.

The name of Lieutenant-Colonel Birch, Judge-Advocate-General, having been inadvertently omitted in the General Order, dated the 1st of March, publishing the details of the action at Goojerat, I am directed by the Governor-General to request that that officer's name may be inserted immediately after that of Lieutenant-Colonel Garden, C.B.

The Commander-in-Chief to the Governor-General.

Camp, Kullalla, March 15, 1849.

On re-perusal of my dispatch, relative to the operations of the 21st of February at Goojerat, I regret to find I omitted mentioning the names of Lieutenants Lumsden and Hodson, of the Corps of Guides, and Lieutenant Lake, of the Engineers, attached to the Political Department.

These officers were most active in conveying orders, throughout the action; and I now bring their names to the favourable notice of the Government and Lordship.

Major-General Whish, C.B. to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp, Ramnuggur, February 13, 1842.

In my dispatch of the 22nd ultimo, I expressed my apprehension that I might have omitted mention of some who merited particular notice, and I beg leave, now, to repair the omission.

After Lieutenant Garforth was wounded on the 2nd ultimo, Lieutenant Maxwell, of the Engineers, who had, on the 27th of December, accompanied the column of attack, commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel Young, Her Majesty's 10th Regiment, was appointed to officiate as Brigade-Major, and carried on its duties with great efficiency, giving, as his predecessor had done, every satisfaction to the Chief Engineer, who also made a favourable mention of Captain Longden, Her Majesty's 10th Regiment, Acting Field Engineer, whose diligence and useful services have, frequently, during the operations before Mooltan, come under my own notice; and although, at the earliest commencement of them, I drew his Excellency's attention to the ability and perseverance evinced by Lieutenant Glover, of the Engineers, performing (in August last) the important duty assigned to him on my approaching Mooltan, blocking up the mouth of the Grand Canal, I would fain recur to it in this, as that officer course has, ever since, been consistent with this beginning.

As, from July last, the arduous, and often harassing duties of Brigade Quartermasters of the Bengal field force have been uniformly carried out by the undermentioned officers, with an energy and attention most creditable to them, I beg to bring them to his Lordship's favourable notice.

Artillery—Lieutenant W. K. Fooks.

Engineers—Lieutenant J. E. Cracroft, 69th Native Infantry.

Cavalry—Lieutenant J. H. Toone, 11th Light Cavalry.

2nd Infantry Brigade—Lieutenant J. H. Reid, 51st Native Infantry.

I have the honour to enclose a detailed return of the ordnance, captured from the enemy, during our operations before Mooltan; total 50 pieces, including 4 large mortars; also Major Garbett's letter of the 23rd ultimo that accompanied it; and with which I also associate letters, of the same date, from Brigadier Cheape, C.B. Chief Engineer, Major Napier, and Captain Siddons.

I have, in conclusion, the honour of forwarding a general casualty list of the force, from the 17th of August 1848 to the 22nd of January 1849, which will, I trust, prove, under all the circumstances, a satisfactory document.

Of all ranks, total; killed, 210; wounded, 982.

Major H. Garbett, Commanding Artillery, Bengal Column, to the Assistant Adjutant-General, Mooltan Field Force.

Camp, Mooltan, January 23, 1849.

In forwarding, for the information of the Major-

General commanding the Mooltan Field Force the enclosed document,* connected with the late siege of Mooltan, I have, particularly, to bring to his notice the indefatigable zeal of the Commissary of Ordnance, Lieutenant Christie; and the system and regularity with which the constant and heavy demands of the batteries were supplied.

I would also, most strongly, recommend to his notice the conduct of Mr. Deputy Commissary Spencer, who, in the embarkation and disembarkation of the train, and, indeed, on all occasions, evinced the utmost zeal and attention; and should feel highly gratified by the services of this Ordnance officer, of long standing, being brought especially to the notice of the Government.

Brigadier J. Cheape, C.B., Chief Engineer Army of the Punjab, to the Assistant Adjutant General, Mooltan Field Force.

Mooltan, January 23, 1849.

At the close of our operations against the town and citadel of Mooltan, I believe it is my duty to report, for the information of Government, the services of the Engineer corps and officers employed in the siege, whose talent and indefatigable exertions have so much contributed to the fall of the place.

So general has been the energy displayed by every officer, it would be impossible to make any distinction; and it only remains for me to mention the different officers, with a hope that they may be brought to the favourable notice of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

To Major Napier, my second in command, and Major Scott, of the Bombay Engineers, the duties of directing Engineer were chiefly intrusted; and

Captains Abercrombie, Western, Siddons, and Lieutenant Maxwell, were also employed in directing, at the commencement, when the extended line of our operations against the town and citadel rendered such arrangements necessary; and I have every reason to be satisfied with these officers, especially with Captains Abercrombie and Siddons, who superintended the operations against the city. I am also indebted for the assistance given to these officers by Lieutenants Fulton, Paton, Glover, and Greatehead.

The conduct of Captain Siddons and his corps requires particular mention being made, and I have much pleasure in forwarding his report.

Major Scott reports most favourably of the officers of the Bombay Engineers; Lieutenant John Hill, (wounded,) Kendall, Walker, Playfair, Fuller, and Berthon; and their services deserve every praise.

To Captain Longden, of Her Majesty's 10th Regiment, and Assistant to the Lahore Durbar Engineer, my best thanks are due for his diligence, and the very useful plans and information he has, from time to time, supplied; and I would here acknowledge the valuable assistance and intelligence I received from Major Napier, Chief Engineer, in the former operations against Mooltan.

I have also to mention Lieutenants Taylor (wounded) and Hyde, in charge of the Engineer Park, through whose able arrangements the operations have been greatly forwarded; and my thanks are due to Lieutenant Cracroft, Brigade Quartermaster, who generally accompanied me.

Lieutenant Garforth, my Brigade Major, was wounded, severely, in the assault on the 2nd of January; and Lieutenant Maxwell has acted, since, as Brigade Major ; and to both of these offices my warmest acknowledgments are due, not only for every personal assistance to myself, and in carrying on the duties of the Department, but for the intelligence and zeal in everything relating to the operations.

I have omitted to mention General Cortlandt Sappers, who, under Lieutenant Young, Bengal Engineers, made themselves very useful in our late operations.

Brevet Major R. Napier, late Chief Engineer Mooltan Field Force, to the Assistant Adjutant General, Mooltan Field Force.

Mooltan, January 23, 1849

The siege of Mooltan having been concluded it is my duty to bring to the notice of the Major General commanding, with the hope of the being favourably mentioned to the Commander-in-Chief, the services of the officers employed under me, in the early operations of the siege in those for protecting the British and allied camps, which terminated in the capture of the enemy's position and guns, on the 7th November, 1848 ; and in the preparation of the plans, and supply of siege materials, with the aid of which the siege has since been successfully concluded.

To the zeal and ability of Captain Abercrombie my second in command, I am most highly indebted.

To Captain Garforth, for his services as Brigade Major, I am also most highly indebted ; and his gallantry, and that of Lieutenant Grindall, in the assault of the Dhurru Sala, on the 12th of September 1848, was conspicuous.

The exertions of Lieutenant Maxwell, who acted as directing Engineer ; of Lieutenant Taylor in charge of the Park ; and of every officer belonging ing to the Engineers, or doing duty with the Corps, were deserving of the highest praise. I never met a more zealous body of officers.

The services rendered by Lieutenant Glover, in the difficult operation of closing the head of the Wullee Mahomed Canal, and of Captain Longden, H.M.'s 10th Regiment of Foot, assistant to the Durbar Chief Engineer, have been most valuable.

I have great pleasure in mentioning, particularly, the services of Captain Siddons, Directing Engineer, and the Corps of Sappers and Pioneers under his command; they fully maintained their high character.

To Lieutenant Lake, of the Engineers, in command of the troops of the Nawab of Bahawalpore, who conducted the left attack, I was also greatly indebted, for his support and assistance. He reports very highly of the Company of Sappers under Lieutenants Pollard and Maunsell.

It would be unjust to omit favourable notice of General Cortlandt's Sappers, and the willing assistance afforded by them.

Although the defection of our ally, Raja Shere Sing, snatched from us the prize of success, when it seemed almost within our grasp, it is satisfactory to reflect that our labours have paved the way for the present, comparatively bloodless, triumph; that our trenches of the Khutteh Byragee, and the Dhurru Sala, made us acquainted with the intricacies of the suburbs; and that to the respect gained for our bayonets on the 12th of September, may be attributed the rapid fall of the strong positions of the Shums-Tabreez, Wuzeerabad, and the Mundee Awa, on the 27th of December, 1848.

Brevet Captain H. Siddons, Commanding the Sappers and Pioneers, to the Brigadier Major of Engineers.

Mooltan, January 23, 1849

On the occasion of the fall of Mooltan, I believe it is my duty to make a report, as commanding the Corps of Bengal Sappers and Pioneers: to write such in detail, would be to embrace the whole of the siege operations, which, of course, is unnecessary.

Nor need I dwell on the exertions of my men as their hard work and excellent conduct must have been observed by every one, from the Major General downwards, and will, no doubt, receive ample justice in Brigadier Cheape's dispatch.

Custom justifies me in naming my Adjutant Lieutenant Fraser, as having rendered me most important assistance, in carrying on all the details of the corps during the siege: his services were always available, when required, in the trenches and he superintended the loading, tamping, and firing, of the mines, on the right attack.

I also wish to name Second Lieutenant F. Grindall, who has undergone much more than his share of labour and fatigue, and has behaved in the most gallant manner, in the assaults of the 12th of September, 27th of December, and 2nd of January last, it having been his fortune to lead, on all these occasions. Of my other officers, I can only say, that they could be exceeded by none, in zeal, perseverance, and gallantry.

In like manner, the European non-commissioned officers have all behaved admirably, and I wish to bring the following to favourable notice:—

The Acting Sub-Conductor, Serjeant-Major Casey.

Serjeant W. Waring, wounded.

Corporal H. Granger.

Corporal H. Bruen, wounded.

2nd Corporal W. Ford.

2nd Corporal W. Burtry, wounded.

In the native branch of the corps, in addition to those I have had occasion specially to recommend, on various occasions, for the third class of the order of merit, I beg earnestly to recommend the following to the favourable notice of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

Jemadar Sooful, 1st Company Sappers and Miners.

Havildar Sewdeen, 2nd Company Sappers and Miners.

Havildar Toola, 1st Company Sappers and Miners.

Havildar Chut Kao, 3rd Company Sappers and Miners, wounded.

Havildar Goordat Sing, 2nd Company.

Havildar Naick Buctour, 3rd Company Pioneers.

Havildar Naick Buldaun, 2nd Company Pioneers.

Havildar Naick Sewdeen, 2nd Company Pioneers.

Sepoy Mukha, 2nd Company Sappers and Miners.

Sepoy Oree, 2nd Company Sappers and Miners, wounded.

Sepoy Bregloll Sing, 1st Company Sappers and Miners.

Sepoy Koosial, 2nd Company Sappers and Miners.

Sepoy Munbode, 2nd Company Sappers and Miners.

I have the honour to annex a Return of the killed and wounded, and of ammunition expended, since the 27th December.

sions in Asia, Africa, or America, from the countries to which they belong, goods the produce of those countries, and to export goods from such possessions to be carried to any foreign country whatever; and that it is expedient that such permission should be subject to certain conditions, it is enacted that the privileges thereby granted to foreign ships shall be limited to the ships of those countries which, having colonial possessions, shall grant the like privileges of trading with those possessions to British ships, or which, not having colonial possessions, shall place the commerce and navigation of this country, and of its possessions abroad, upon the footing of the most favoured nation, unless Her Majesty, by her Order in Council, shall in any case deem it expedient to grant the whole or any part of such privileges to the ships of any foreign country, although the conditions aforesaid shall not, in all respects, be fulfilled by such foreign country:

India Board, May 24, 1849.

The dispatch, of which the following is an extract, and the accompanying papers, have been this day received at the East India-House, from the Governor-General of India.

The Governor-General of India to the Secret Committee of the East India Company.

Camp, Sidham, April 7, 1849.

(Extract.)

On the 21st ultimo, Major-General Sir Walter Gilbert took possession of the city of Peshawur. Dost Mahomed Khan had fled with his army on the 19th, and had reached the western side of the Khyber Pass. The city of Peshawur was found uninjured; but most of the garden houses in the neighbourhood had been burnt by the Affghans, and the Sikh cantonment completely destroyed.

You are aware, from my dispatch of the 24th ultimo, that I looked to the occupation of Peshawur, and the flight, or destruction, of Dost Mahomed Khan, as results, the accomplishment of which was necessary to enable me to declare the war concluded, and peace restored. The indefatigable ardor of Sir Walter Gilbert, inspiring his troops with like zeal, achieved, with singular rapidity, the crowning successes of the war.

I request your attention to the General Order issued by me on the 2nd instant, and to the names of the officers particularly noticed therein.

General Order by the Governor-General of India.

Camp, Ferozepore, April 2, 1849.

The Governor-General has the gratification of publishing, for general information, dispatches which have been received from his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, and from Major-General Sir Walter Gilbert, K.C.B. announcing the termination of hostilities in the Punjab.

The Governor-General declared that, before the war could cease, every enemy, whether Sikh or Affghan, should be driven from before us; and the British army has well and gallantly made good his words.

The Sikh Sirdars and the remnant of the army were pursued, have surrendered, and have been disarmed.

The Ameer of Cabool with his troops has fled before the British force, and has been chased nominously from the territories he invaded.

The war has thus been brought to an end, and the Punjab has been declared a portion of the British empire in India.

Once again the Governor-General offers to His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, to the General Officers, the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Soldiers of the Army, the assurance of his deep and unfeigned gratitude for the great services they have rendered to the country, and the zeal and gallantry they have displayed, and for the sustained and cheerful exertions they have made.

In anticipation of the wishes of the Honourable Court of Directors, the Governor-General will grant to every officer and soldier, who has been employed within the Punjab in this campaign, on the date of the occupation of Peshawur, a medal bearing the word "Punjab," in commemoration of the honourable service they have done.

The Governor-General is also pleased to direct that every corps which has been so employed shall bear the same word on their standards, colours, and appointments.

The Governor-General desires to take this opportunity of acknowledging his obligations to the officers who have been serving in various positions connected with the army in the field.

The Governor-General is sensible of the energy and activity of Major-General Sir D. Hill, K.C.B., commanding the reserve, and he would have looked with confidence to his service, if it division under his command had been called into operation.

Brigadier-General Wheeler, C.B. has executed the several duties which have been committed to him with skill, and with success, and the Governor-General has been happy to convey to him his thanks.

The Governor-General is indebted to Brigadier Stalker, commanding at Mooltan, for the successful exertions which have been made under his directions for placing the fort again in a condition of defence, and for maintaining the tranquillity of the country.

The Governor-General begs to acknowledge the service which has been rendered by Lieutenant-Colonel McSherry, 1st Native Infantry, commanding at Govindghur. The energy, vigilance, and tact which he has exhibited, during his occupation of that fortress, have been of much value to the Government of India.

From Sir Frederick Currie, Bart. Resident at Lahore, previously to his return to his seat in Council, the Governor-General received at all times effective and most ready co-operation : and he has continued to receive from Lieutenant-Colonel Sir H. Lawrence, K.C.B. the support which his known ability and experience enable him to afford.

The meritorious conduct of the several Assistants to the Resident has elicited the strong approbation of the Government. In addition to those whom he has before named, the Governor-General offers his especial thanks to Major George Lawrence, for the able management which so long enabled him to maintain his position at Peshawur, and to Captain James Abbott, for the gallant stand he has made in the hills of Hazara.

Lieutenant Taylor has earned the full approbation of the Government by his judicious and persevering efforts, which regained, and have h

the province of Bunnoo.

The sustained defence of the Fort of Att which was made by Lieutenant Herbert, un circumstances of great difficulty, has been view by the Government of India with admiration, entitles him to their warmest praise.

Mr. John Lawrence, Commissioner of Trans-Sutlej province, has received the thanks the Governor-General. Well seconded by assistants in the district, he has greatly con buted, by his promptitude, energy, and firmn to the maintenance of the general tranquil which has prevailed in these newly acquired ritories.

The Governor-General especially wishes record his marked approbation of the manner which Major Mackeson, C.B. as his Agent w the army, has discharged the duties which w intrusted to him. In the important polit matters in which he has been engaged, Ma Mackeson's proceedings have been distinguis by ability, judgment, discretion, and firmness;
the Governor-General begs to convey to him expression of his unqualified satisfaction.

The Governor-General concludes by tender to the Officers of the Government in his ca sincere thanks for the assistance he has, at times, received from them.

He particularly desires to express his obligat to Mr. Henry Elliot, Secretary to the Gove ment of India, for his very able, laborious, valuable aid in the important affairs wh have occupied the Governor-General's attentio and to Colonel Stuart, C.B. Military Secret to the Government of India, and to Lieuten
Colonel Benson, C.B. Member of the Milit Board with the Governor-General, for the gr assistance he has derived from their experie and judgment in the affairs of their respective departments.

While thus congratulating the Army and British Subjects in India, on the triumphant success which has been achieved, the Governor-General desires humbly to acknowledge the Hand, by which alone all victory is given.

He has, accordingly, intimated to the Lord Bishop his wish, that, on the first Sunday in May, thanksgiving shall be offered to Almighty God, for the successful termination of the war in which we have been engaged, and for the restoration to the people of the blessing of peace.

By order of the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India,

H. M. ELLIOT, Secretary to the Government of India with the Governor-General.

The Commander-in-Chief in India to the Governor-General.

Wuzeerabad, March 25, 1849.

I have sincere satisfaction in forwarding to your Lordship a copy of a dispatch received this day from Major General Sir Walter R. Gilbert, K.C.B. commanding the advanced force of this army, dated the 21st instant, announcing the occupation of Peshawur by the British troops, the precipitate retreat of the Ameer Dost Mahomed Khan and his followers beyond the Khyber Pass, and the consequent dissolution of the Affghan confederacy. The brilliant results have been obtained, your Lordship will observe, without a single shot being fired by our troops since the victory of Goojerat, on the 21st ultimo.

It is almost superfluous for me to repeat to your Lordship how very highly I estimate the unwearied and zealous exertions, in these subsequent movements, of that most energetic and able of Major-General Gilbert, and the excellent troops under his command.

In soliciting your Lordship's particular attention to Major-General Gilbert's commendation of Major F. Mackeson, C.B. your Lordship's Army with the force, I beg to repeat the high sense entertain of that officer's merits, and the excellent service he has rendered throughout the campaign.

The Sikh rebellion and Affghan confederacy having been now effectually put down and overthrown, I beg to be favored with your Lordship's instructions for breaking up the Army of Punjab, which has, I trust, merited the approbation of your Lordship and the country.

Major-General Sir W. R. Gilbert, K.C.B. Commanding the Field Force on Special Service the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Peshawur, March 21, 1849

I advanced this morning, from Nowshera Peshawur, with the Bengal division of my force, and have much satisfaction in reporting, for information of His Excellency the Right Honourable the Commander-in-Chief, that I am in possession of the city of Peshawur and its Fort Hissar.

The Affghan Army, under command of Amir Dost Mahomed Khan, retreated from Peshawur on the 19th instant, and is to-day reported to have reached Dakka, on the western side of Khyber Pass. The city I found untouched by the Affghans, the Ameer having directed the gates to be closed against his troops ; but most of the garden-houses in its neighbourhood, have been burnt, or otherwise rendered uninhabitable, and the Sikh cantonment, at Ali Murdan Khan

Bagh, has been burnt to the ground. The fort of Jumrood is also reported to be destroyed.

By the expulsion from the Province of Peshawur of the Ameer and his army, I have carried to a successful conclusion the whole of the instructions of the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India, conveyed to me, through his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, with your letter of the 3rd instant. The Sikhs have been humbled, and their power crushed; the British prisoners released from an irksome captivity; and the rich province of Peshawur freed from its Mahomedan invaders. To my troops I am indebted, under Providence, for these glorious results. Since the 1st of the month, they have marched from the Jhelum to the Indus and Peshawur, crossing both rivers under many disadvantages, and overcoming all the obstacles of the road, which are naturally great, and were much enhanced by our large train of stores and baggage—the necessary incumbrances of a force like this. To both officers and men I am deeply indebted, for their cheerful endurance of the fatigues and privations to which all have been exposed.

I cannot permit myself to conclude this report of my arrival at Peshawur, without expressing to his Lordship my sense of the valuable services rendered me by Major F. Mackeson, C.B. who accompanies the force as Agent of the Governor-General. I am particularly indebted to him for his ready assistance, and for the unwearied and unremitting zeal with which he has performed the important duties of his office. To his cool judgment, and unswerving decision of purpose, I owe much of the success that has attended the progress of my force.

From my Staff generally, I have received every assistance.

The Governor-General to the Commander Chief.

(Extract.)

I have had the honour of receiving your Excellency's dispatch, dated the 25th instant, closing a copy of one from Major-General Walter Gilbert, K.C.B. in which he announces the occupation of Peshawur by the force under his command, and the retreat of the Ameer and Mahomed Khan and his followers beyond Khyber Pass.

I request that your Excellency will convey to Major-General Sir Walter Gilbert my strong approbation of the manner in which the service on which he was sent has been conducted and performed.

Major-General Gilbert has earned the high credit by the ability, energy, and discretion with which he has directed these movements; and I am most sensible of the cheerful and continuous exertions which have been made by officers and men—exertions which have produced the gratifying result of compelling the surrender of the remnant of the Sikh army, of driving the Affghaun Sovereign and his army ignominiously from the country, and bringing the war to a full and most honourable conclusion.

Your Excellency can now proceed to take proper steps for breaking up the army of Punjab.

War Office, 25th May 1849.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the "appointment of convenient places for the holding "of assizes in England and Wales," it was declared and enacted that His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council should have power from time to time to order direct at what place or places, in any county in England or Wales, the assizes and sessions under the commissions of Gaol delivery and other commissions for the despatch of civil and criminal business shall be holden; and whereas by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament after reciting that the holding of the summer assizes for the county of Buckingham, at the town of Buckingham, is inconvenient to the inhabitants of the said county, and that it would conduce to the more cheap, speedy, and effectual administration of justice if some other place or places were appointed for the holding of the said assizes, by reason of an Act of the twenty-first year of the reign of King George the Second, intituled "An Act for holding the summer assizes, for the county of Buckingham, at the county town of Buckingham," that object could not be effected under the provisions of the said first-above-recited Act, it was so enacted that all the powers and provisions of the said first-above-recited Act should extend and apply to the said county of Buckingham, and every place therein; any law, statute, matter, or thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE have it in command from Her Majesty to inform you, that the state of public business enables Her to dispense with your attendance in Parliament, and to close the present session.

2 X

Her Majesty has directed us to express Her satisfaction with the zeal and assiduity with which you have discharged the laborious and anxious duties, in the performance of which you have been occupied.

Her Majesty has given Her assent to the important measure you have passed to amend the navigation laws, in full confidence that the enterprise, skill, and hardihood of Her people will assure to them a full share of the commerce of the world, and maintain upon the seas the ancient renown of this nation.

Her Majesty has commanded us to acquaint you, that the friendly character of Her relations with foreign powers affords Her a just confidence in the continuance of peace.

The preliminaries of peace between Prussia and Denmark have been signed, under the mediation of Her Majesty, and Her Majesty trusts that this convention may prove the forerunner of a definitive and permanent treaty.

Her Majesty's efforts will continue to be directed to promote the restoration of peace in those parts of Europe in which it has been interrupted.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

We are commanded by Her Majesty to return you Her thanks for the provision which you have made for the public service.

The public expenditure has undergone considerable reductions within the present year, and Her Majesty will continue to apply a watchful economy in every branch of the public service.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

We are commanded by Her Majesty to congratulate you on the happy termination of the war in the Punjaub. The exertions made by the Government of India, and the valour displayed by the army in the field, demand Her Majesty's warmest acknowledgments.

Her Majesty has observed with gratification the spirit of obedience to the laws which has been manifested by her subjects during the period which has elapsed since Her Majesty last addressed Her Parliament.

It is the characteristic of our constitution that it renders the maintenance of order compatible with the fullest enjoyment of political and civil liberty.

The satisfaction with which Her Majesty has viewed the peaceful progress of Her people in arts and industry has been greatly alloyed by the continuance of severe distress in one part of the United Kingdom.

Her Majesty has observed with pleasure your liberal exertions to mitigate the pressure of this calamity; and Her Majesty commands us to thank you for your unremitting attention to measures calculated to improve the general condition of Ireland. It is Her Majesty's fervent hope that it may please the Almighty Disposer of Events to favour the operation of those laws which have been sanctioned by Parliament, and to grant to Her Irish people, as the reward of that patience and resignation with which they have borne their protracted sufferings, the blessings of an abundant harvest, and of internal peace.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read; after which the Lord Chancellor said;

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name, and in obedience to Her commands, prorogue this Parliament to Tuesday the ninth day of October next, to be then here holden ; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the ninth day of October next.

At the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of July 1849.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, there was this day read at the Board a memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the second of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, in the words following ; viz. :

“ Whereas your Majesty was graciously pleased, by your Royal Proclamations of the nineteenth day of May and the sixth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, to regulate, according to the scheme set forth therein or recognized thereby, the distribution of the net proceeds of prizes captured from the enemy, of captures and seizures under the several Acts of Parliament passed relating to the revenues of customs and to trade and navigation, for the abolition of the slave trade, for the capture and destruction of piratical vessels and of the rewards conferred for the same, as also of the awards for all salvage granted to the crews of your Majesty's ships and vessels of war when not otherwise specially apportioned by the terms of the respective awards and allowances. And whereas in consequence of several new ratings and denominations of officers, and others having been introduced into your Majesty's naval service since the dates of your Majesty's said former Proclamations, and for other causes, it is expedient that provision should be made for the future distribution of such net proceeds and salvage not otherwise specially apportioned, and all other moneys whatsoever granted to be shared in the manner of prize-money, We do therefore most humbly submit that your Majesty will be graciously pleased, by your Order in Council, to annul the above-mentioned Proclamations from and after the thirty-first day of December next, and to direct that the Proclamation, transmitted herewith for your Majesty's approval, be substituted in lieu thereof."

Her Majesty, having taken the said memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is hereby pleased to direct that the aforesaid Proclamations, of the nineteenth day of May and the sixth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, be annulled from and after the thirty-first day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and the same are hereby annulled accordingly, save and except as to any captures or seizures which may have been made before the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and any captures or seizures which shall be made after the said thirty-first day of December, and which shall be condemned and adjudged in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Vice Admiralty, or any Court of Mixed Commission, before notice of this Order shall have been received by the Court of Vice Admiralty or of Mixed Commission in which such condemnation or adjudication shall pass; and further, that the proceeds of all such captures and seizures made before the said first day of January, or which shall be made after the said thirty-first day of December, and which shall be condemned or adjudged in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Vice Admiralty, or any Court of Mixed Commission, antecedent to the notice of Her Majesty's Royal Proclamation having been received in such Courts, together with all rewards aforesaid, shall continue to be distributed in the proportions and manner directed in and by Her Majesty's said Proclamations, dated the nineteenth day of May and the sixth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-six.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS by Our Order in Council of this day's date, We were graciously pleased to annul, from and after the thirty-first day of December next, Our Royal Proclamations of the nineteenth day of May and the sixth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, regulating, according to the scheme set forth therein, or recognised thereby, the distribution of the net proceeds of prizes captured from the enemy, of captures and seizures under the several Acts of Parliament passed relating to the revenues of customs and to trade and navigation, for the abolition of the slave trade, for the capture and destruction of piratical vessels and of the rewards conferred for the same, as also of the awards for all salvage granted to the crews of Our ships and vessels of war, when not otherwise specially apportioned by the terms of the respective awards and allowances. And in consequence of several new ratings and denominations of officers and others having been introduced into Our naval service since the dates of Our said former Proclamations, and for other causes, it is expedient that provision should be made for the future distribution of such net proceeds and salvage not otherwise specially apportioned, and all other moneys whatsoever granted to be shared in the manner of prize-money :

We do therefore now make known to all Our loving subjects, and to all others whom it may concern, by this Our proclamation, by and with the advice and consent of Our Privy Council, that Our royal will and pleasure is, and We do hereby direct that the distribution of all such net proceeds of prizes, rewards, allowances, salvage, awards, and of all bounties and grants whatsoever, distributable to Our royal navy in the manner of prize-money, shall be made as follows ; videlicet :

That the flag officer or officers shall have one-sixteenth part of the whole net proceeds arising from prizes captured from the enemy and from all other captures, seizures, &c. as aforesaid made by any of the ships or vessels under his or their command, and of the rewards conferred for the same, according to the following conditions and modifications—save and except as hereinafter provided and directed ;—that is to say : when there is but one flag officer, he shall have the entire one-sixteenth : when two flag officers shall be sharing together, the chief shall have two-thirds and the other flag officer shall have the remaining one-third of the one-sixteenth part : and when there shall be more than two flag officers, the chief shall receive one-half of the said one-sixteenth, and the remaining half shall be equally divided among the junior flag officers : Commodores of the first class and captains of the fleet to share as flag officers :—

tually on board any of our ships or vessels of war, and at the actual taking, sinking, burning, or otherwise destroying any ship or ships of war, or privateers belonging to the enemy, shall share in the distribution of any head-money or bounty-money granted as a reward for the taking, sinking, burning, or otherwise destroying any such ship or vessel of the enemy :

That no flag officer, unless actually present at the capture or destruction of any pirate ship, vessel, or boat, shall be entitled to share in any distribution of the proceeds or bounty in respect of the crews of such piratical ship, vessel, or boat :

That no flag officer shall share in any remuneration or reward conferred or awarded to any of our ships or vessels as salvage, unless he shall have been actually on board the ship or vessel to which the award shall be made, or have personally aided and assisted in the transaction at the time the service was rendered.

That no flag officer commanding in any port in the United Kingdom shall share in the proceeds of any prizes captured from the enemy, nor in other captures, seizures, rewards, or any distributive proceeds as aforesaid, made by any ships or vessels which shall sail from, or leave such port, by order of the Lord High Admiral, or of Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral :

That when ships or vessels under the command of several flag officers belonging to separate stations shall be joint captors, &c. each flag officer shall receive a proportion of the one-sixteenth, according to the number of officers and men present under the command of each such flag officer ; and when ships or vessels under orders from the Lord High Admiral, or from Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, are joint captors, &c. with other ships or vessels under a flag or flags, the like regulation as to the apportionment of the flag share to the flag officer or officers is to be observed.

And with reference to these regulations it is to be noted that a captain, commander, or other commanding officer, of a ship or vessel, shall be deemed to be under the command of a flag, when he shall actually have received some order from, or be acting in the execution of some order issued by, a flag officer, whether he be or be not within the limits of the station of such flag officer; and in the event of his being directed to join a flag officer on any station, he shall be deemed to be under the command of such flag officer, from the time when he arrives within the limits of the station, which circumstance is always to be carefully noted in the log-book; and it shall be considered that he continues under the flag officer of such station until he shall have received some order directly from, or be acting in the execution of some order issued by, some other flag officer, duly authorized, or by the Lord High Admiral, or Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral.

And we hereby direct that the captain, commander, lieutenant commanding, or master commanding, or any other officer commanding any ship, sloop, or vessel of war, singly making a capture, or seizure, or otherwise entitled to the distributive benefit arising from any proceeds, reward, grant, bounty, salvage, or award, as aforesaid; that is to say, the officer actually in command at the time, shall have one-eighth of the remainder, or if there is no flag, one-eighth of the entire net proceeds ; and if more than one commanding officer of the same rank of command shall be entitled to share as joint captors, &c. the one-eighth shall be equally divided between them ; but when captains, commanders, lieutenants commanding, and masters commanding, respectively, our ships, sloops, and vessels of war, shall share together, in whatever variety of combination, the one-eighth shall be so divided into parts for a graduated apportionment as to provide for each captain receiving six parts, each commander of a sloop three parts, and each lieutenant commanding, or master commanding a vessel of war, two parts, which We hereby direct shall be the proportion in which they shall respectively share : commodores of the second class, and field officers of marines, or of land forces serving as marines, doing duty as field officers above the rank of major, to share as captains : and field officers of marines, or of land forces serving as marines, and doing duty in the rank of major, to share as commanders of sloops.

And We hereby further direct that, after provision shall thus have been made for the flag share (if any) and for the portion of the commanding officer or officers, the remainder of the net proceeds shall be distributed in ten classes, so that each officer, man, and boy, composing the rest of the complements of our ships, sloops, and vessels of war, and actually on board at the time of any such capture, seizure, &c. as aforesaid, and every person present and assisting, shall receive shares, or parts of shares, according to his class, as set forth in the following scale :

Treaty of Friendship and Commerce between Her Majesty and the Republic of Liberia. Signed at London, November 21, 1848.

[Ratifications exchanged at London, August 1, 1849.]

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Republic of Liberia, being desirous to conclude a Treaty of Peace and Friendship, and to regulate thereby the commercial intercourse between the dominions and subjects of Her Majesty and the territories and citizens of the Republic; Her Majesty has for this purpose named as Her Plenipotentiaries, that is to say:

The Right Honourable Henry John Viscount Palmerston, Baron Temple, a Peer of Ireland, a Member of Her Britannic Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, a Member of Parliament, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, and Her Britannic Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs; and the Right Honourable Henry Labouchere, a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, a Member of Parliament, and President of the Committee of Privy Council for affairs of Trade and Foreign Plantations:

And the Republic of Liberia having, by resolutions of the Legislature, bearing date the 4th of February 1848, authorized and empowered Joseph Jenkins Roberts, the President of the Republic, to conclude such Treaty on behalf of the Republic ;

The Plenipotentiaries of Her Majesty, and the said President of the Republic, after having communicated to each other their respective powers, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles :

ARTICLE I.

There shall be perpetual peace and friendship between Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Her heirs and successors, and the Republic of Liberia, and between their respective subjects and citizens.

ARTICLE II.

There shall be reciprocal freedom of commerce between the British dominions and the Republic of Liberia. The subjects of Her Britannic Majesty may reside in, and trade to, any part of the territories of the Republic to which any other foreigners are or shall be admitted. They shall enjoy full protection for their persons and properties ; they shall be allowed to buy from and to sell to whom they like, without being restrained or prejudiced by any monopoly, contract, or exclusive privilege of sale or purchase whatever ; and they shall moreover enjoy all other rights and privileges which are or may be granted to any other foreigners, subjects or citizens of the most favoured nation. The citizens of the Republic of Liberia shall, in return, enjoy similar protection and privileges in the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty.

ARTICLE III.

No tonnage, import, or other duties or charges shall be levied in the Republic of Liberia on British vessels, or on goods imported or exported in British vessels, beyond what are or may be levied on national vessels, or on the like goods imported or exported in national vessels; and, in like manner, no tonnage, import, or other duties or charges, shall be levied in the British dominions on vessels of the Republic, or on goods imported or exported in those vessels, beyond what are or may be levied on national vessels, or on the like goods imported or exported in national vessels.

ARTICLE IV.

Merchandise or goods coming from the British dominions in any vessel, or imported in British vessels from any country, shall not be prohibited by the Republic of Liberia, nor be subject to higher duties than are levied on the same kinds of merchandise or goods coming from any other foreign country, or imported in any other vessels.

All articles the produce of the Republic may be exported therefrom by British subjects and British vessels, on as favourable terms as by the subjects and vessels of any other foreign country.

ARTICLE V.

It being the intention of the Government of the Republic of Liberia to trade in certain articles of import, with a view to raising a revenue by selling them at a fixed advance upon the cost price, it is hereby agreed that in no case shall private merchants be absolutely prohibited from importing any of such articles, or any article in which the Government of the Republic may at any time see fit to trade; nor shall such articles, or any article in which the Government of the Republic may at any time see fit to trade, be subject to a duty of a greater amount than the amount of the advance upon the cost price at which the Government may from time to time be bound to sell the same.

In case the Government of the Republic shall at any time fix the price of any article of native produce, with a view to such article being taken in payment for any articles in which the Government may trade, such article of native produce shall be received into the Treasury at the same fixed price, in payment of taxes, from all persons trading with the Republic.

ARTICLE VI.

The protection of the Government of the Republic shall be afforded to all British vessels, their officers and crews. If any such vessels should be wrecked on the coast of the Republic, the local authorities shall succour them, and shall secure them from plunder, and shall cause all articles saved from the wreck to be restored to their lawful owners. The amount of salvage dues in such cases shall be regulated, in the event of dispute, by arbitrators chosen by both parties.

ARTICLE VII.

It being the intention of the two Contracting Parties to bind themselves by the present Treaty to treat each other on the footing of the most favoured nation, it is hereby agreed between them, that any favour, privilege, or immunity whatever, in matters of commerce and navigation, which either Contracting Party has actually granted, or may hereafter grant, to the subjects or citizens of any other State, shall be extended to the subjects or citizens of the other Contracting Party, gratuitously, if the concession in favour of that other State shall have been gratuitous, or in return for a compensation as nearly as possible of proportionate value and effect, to be adjusted by mutual agreement, if the concession shall have been conditional.

ARTICLE VIII.

Each Contracting Party may appoint Consuls for the protection of trade, to reside in the dominions of the other ; but no such Consul shall enter upon the exercise of his functions until he shall have been approved and admitted, in the usual form, by the Government of the country to which he is sent.

ARTICLE IX.

Slavery and the Slave Trade being perpetually abolished in the Republic of Liberia, the Republic engages that a law shall be passed, declaring it to be piracy for any Liberian citizen or vessel to be engaged or concerned in the Slave Trade.

The Republic engages to permit any British vessel of war which may be furnished with special instructions under the Treaties between Great Britain and Foreign Powers for the prevention of the Slave Trade, to visit any vessels sailing under the Liberian flag, which may, on reasonable grounds, be suspected of being engaged in the Slave Trade ; and if, by the result of the visit, it should appear to the officer in command of such British vessel of war that the suspicions which led thereto are well grounded, the vessel shall be sent without delay to a Liberian port, and shall be delivered up to the Liberian authorities, to be proceeded against according to the laws of the Republic.

ARTICLE X.

The Republic of Liberia further engages to permit any British vessel of war which may be furnished with special instructions as aforesaid, to visit, on the coast within the jurisdiction of the Republic, or in the ports of the same, any vessel which may be suspected of being engaged in the Slave Trade, and which shall be found sailing under any flag whatever, or without any flag ; and if the suspicions which led to the visit should appear to the officer in command of such British vessel of war to be well grounded, to detain such vessel, in order to send it as soon as possible before the competent court for adjudication.

Duly constituted ports of entry in the Republic of Liberia shall be excepted from the operation of the stipulations of the present Article ; and no vessel shall be visited by a British cruizer within the limits of such ports, except on permission specially granted by the local authorities.

ARTICLE XI

The present Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at London within the space of twelve months from the date hereof.

In witness whereof the Plenipotentiaries of Her Britannic Majesty, and the President of the Republic of Liberia, have signed the same, and have affixed thereto their respective seals.

Done at London, the twenty-first day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such warrant, and from time to time by warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time by warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid. And it is provided that the power thereby given should extend to any increase, or reduction, or remission of postage.

And whereas it is considered expedient to alter the rates of postage payable on letters conveyed by British packet-boats between Halifax and Boston and between Halifax and New York :

Now we, the undersigned, being three of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, in exercise of the power reserved to us in and by the said Act, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, by this warrant under our hands order and direct that on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight transmitted by British packet-boats between the port of Halifax in British North America and the port of Boston in the United States, and between the ports of Halifax and New York, there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such letters, a packet rate of British postage of four-pence.

And we direct that on every letter transmitted as is before mentioned in this warrant exceeding half an ounce in weight there shall be charged, taken, and paid, progressive and additional rates of postage according to the scale of weight and number of rates following ; that is to say :

On every such letter exceeding half an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding one ounce, and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding two ounces, and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage.

And on every such letter exceeding three ounces, and not exceeding four ounces in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces there shall be charged and taken two additional rates of postage, and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces shall be charged as one additional ounce ; and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would have been charged with under this warrant if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

And we direct that nothing hereinbefore contained shall extend to any letters sent by the post to or from the United Kingdom.

And we direct that all letters brought into the United Kingdom by British or United States' packet-boats, otherwise than in a mail bag, shall be charged and chargeable with the like rates of postage as such letters would be liable to and chargeable with if the same had been contained in the mail bags brought by any such packets.

And whereas, by a warrant under the hands of three of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, dated the 8th day of March 1849, the said Commissioners did, amongst other things, order and direct, that on every printed foreign newspaper posted in or addressed to the United States, and transmitted between the United States and any of Her Majesty's colonies, or any foreign country, through the United Kingdom, and on every printed colonial newspaper transmitted between any of Her Majesty's colonies and the United States, through the United Kingdom (such newspapers being conveyed between the United Kingdom and the United States by British or United States' packet-boats), there should be charged and taken an uniform rate of British postage of one penny, except in any case in which a lower rate was or should be provided by any treaty between the United Kingdom and any foreign country or state.

Now We, the undersigned Commissioners, do hereby further direct, that on every printed foreign or colonial newspaper posted in the United States, addressed to the United Kingdom, and on every colonial newspaper addressed to the United Kingdom and forwarded via the United States (the conveyance of all such newspapers from the United States to the United Kingdom being either by British or United States' packet-boats), and on every other printed foreign or colonial newspaper brought into the United Kingdom by any such packet-boats from the United States, addressed to places within the United Kingdom, there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of British postage of one penny; and every printed supplement or additional sheet to any such newspaper shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless sent in the same cover, or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

And we direct, that no such printed newspaper shall be sent by the post at the rate aforesaid, unless the following conditions shall be observed:

- 1st. It shall be sent without a cover or in a band or cover open at the sides or end.
- 2nd. There shall be no word or communication printed on the newspaper after its publication, or upon the cover thereof, nor any writing or marks upon it, or upon the cover of it, except the name and address of the person to whom sent.
- 3rd. There shall be no paper or thing enclosed in or with any such newspaper.

And in case any one of such conditions shall not be fulfilled, the whole paper or packet shall be charged with the letter rates of postage.

And we direct, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to annul prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions and privileges granted by the said recited Act, of the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, or by an Act, made and passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the management of the Post-office," or by any Treasury Warrant issued under or by virtue of the said first-mentioned Act.

And we direct, that the several terms and expressions used in this warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning, in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

And we further direct, that this warrant shall come into operation on the 20th day of September 1849.

Provided lastly, and we do hereby declare and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any three of them by warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby fixed or altered, or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

IT is hereby notified that Viscount Palmerston, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has received from Mr. Riddel, the British Acting Consul-General at Caracas, a despatch dated the 12th of July last, reporting that a blockade of the coast of Coro, between the mouths of the rivers Yaracuy and Oribono, had been declared by the Government of Venezuela, and inclosing a copy of the decree issued by that Government.

The following is a translation of the decree :

Republic of Venezuela.

JOSE TADEO MONAGAS,
General of Division, President of the Republic,

Considering ;

1st. That the first and most important of the attributes of the Executive Power is to preserve internal order and tranquillity.

2nd. That the Ex-General José Antonio Páez, not yet satisfied with the tears and blood he has caused to be shed, has just disembarked at the Vela de Coro, with the view of renewing hostilities against the Republic, pretending by his silly obstinacy in so criminal a design, to involve Venezuela in the calamities of another cruel and devastating war ; and,

3rd. That under such circumstances the Government ought to hasten to dictate all such measures as may be within the sphere of its attributes, in order opportunely to obstruct the consequences of that invasion, to spare greater expense and sacrifices, and opportunely to bring back to their duties those who, departing therefrom a second time, shew themselves more hostile and stubborn ;

I decree :

Art. 1st. The coast of the Province of Coro, extending from the disembogement of the river Yaracuy to the mouth of the river Oribono, is declared in a state of blockade.

Only Clause. A maritime division, at present composed of four armed vessels of war, the strength of which will be gradually augmented, will enforce the blockade.

Art. 2nd. The vessels of war of friendly and neutral nations shall be allowed to enter into, depart from, and remain at the port of Vela de Coro, the Government being persuaded that they will not in any manner aid the enemies of the Republick.

Art. 3rd. For the penal effects of the blockade, eight days are fixed for the island of Curaçao and its dependencies St. Thomas and Santa Cruz; thirty days for vessels proceeding from Demerara and from the Antilles, not specified; forty days for those proceeding from the United States of America; and sixty days for those coming from European ports.

Only Clause. During the lapse of time specified in this Article, the blockading squadron will limit itself to making known the existence of the blockade to all merchant vessels proceeding from the said points, for which purpose it will note down this fact in the certificate of registry, or on the document which accredits the nationality or property of the visited vessel, and also that it has been duly notified of the existence of the said blockade; and only in the event of attempting after this notification to enter at any point comprised within the limits of the blockade shall there be room for the detention and judgment of such vessel, in conformity with the laws and international right.

Art. 4th. The Secretary of State in the Departments of War and Marine is charged with the execution of this Decree.

Given, signed with my hand, sealed with the seal of the Executive Power, and countersigned by the Secretary of State in the Departments of War and Marine, in Caracas,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twelfth and thirteenth years of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled the "Passengers' Act, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Order in Council, to be by Her made with the advice of the Privy Council, to prescribe such rules and regulations as to Her Majesty may seem fit, for preserving order, and for securing cleanliness and ventilation on board of passenger ships proceeding from the United Kingdom to any port or place in Her Majesty's possessions abroad, and the said rules and regulations from time to time in like manner to alter, amend, and revoke, as occasion may require ;

And whereas it is expedient to revoke an Order in Council made at a Court held at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight, on the fifteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in virtue of the provisions of an Act (now repealed) passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act to make further provision for one year, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament, for the carriage of passengers to North America," and to make a new

Now, therefore, Her Majesty doth, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the authority vested in Her by the said "Passengers' Act, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine," order, and it is hereby ordered that the said Order in Council of the fifteenth of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight be, and the same is hereby revoked ; and that the following shall henceforth be the rules for preserving order and for securing cleanliness and ventilation to be observed on board of every passenger ship proceeding from the United Kingdom to any port or place in Her Majesty's possessions abroad, out of Europe, and not being within the Mediterranean Sea.

2. It shall be the duty of the cook, appointed under the twenty-sixth section of the said "Passengers' Act, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine," to light the fires and to take care that they be kept alight during the day, and also to take care that each passenger, or family of passengers, shall have the use of the fire-place, at the proper hours, in an order to be fixed by the master.

3. When the passengers are dressed their beds shall be rolled up.

4. The decks, including the space under the bottom of the berths, shall be swept before breakfast, and all dirt thrown overboard.

8. The fires shall be extinguished at seven P.M. unless otherwise directed by the master, or required for the use of the sick, and the emigrants shall be in their berths at ten o'clock P.M. except under the permission or authority of the surgeon; or, if there be no surgeon, of the master.

9. Three safety-lamps shall be lit at dusk, and kept burning till ten o'clock P.M.; after which hour two of the lamps may be extinguished, one being nevertheless kept burning at the main hatchway all night.

10. No naked light shall be allowed at any time or on any account.

11. The scuttles and stemports, if any, shall, weather permitting, be opened at seven o'clock

A.M. and kept open till ten o'clock P.M.; and the hatches shall be kept open whenever the weather permits.

12. The coppers and cooking utensils shall be cleaned every day.

13. The beds shall be well shaken and aired on deck at least twice a week.
